THE NEWS.

CHESTER TOWN, Md.

Saturday Morning, February 10, 1855.

☞We learn that the Eastern Shore Steamboat Company have withdrawn their boats rrom Shester River, for the space of two weeks.

COLD WEATHER.—The weather for the last few days has been extremely cold—the Thermometer stood on Wednesday morning, at 7 o'clock, at 4 deg. Fahrenhirt,—Snow began to fall on Tuesday eveuing at 10 o'clock and continued with slight intermission to six o'clock last evening.

THE FRENCH SPOLIATION BILL has passed both Houses of Congress, and only wants the signature of the President to become a law. A despatch to the Battimore sun, dated Washington, Feb. 8, says: "Almost every democratic member of Congress with whom one converses here, is confident that the President will veto the French Spoliation Bill.

THE FAIR.—We are glad to learn that the Fair held during part of the present week, for the resusciation of the I. U. Church (the original Parish Church of ChesterParish) proved quite as successful as its friends could have anticipated; although the weather during the time was exceedingly cold and many were thus unable to attend, the nett proceeds of sales amounted to more than $200. The stock of useful and ornamental articles was handsome and well arranged, the refreshments excellent, and the affair passed off spiritedly. The ladies thus engaged in the restoration of a time honored, though long delayed sanctuary, have our best wishes for entire success in their laudable endeavors.

A Yankee Offered the Contract to Capture Canton.

The following extract of a commercial letter from Canton, taken from the London News, contains some interesting particulars respecting the posture of affairs at that port and in the neighborhood:

"On the 18th we had accounts from Fat-San, that in a grand attack made on the place by the imperialists they had met with serious reverses, having lost not less than 1,000 men in killed and prisoners; 100 junks were also taken by the conquerors, with large quantities of guns and ammunition. From all I can hear, I believe this to have been the most decisive fight they have had.

"The vanquished were not long in making their way to Canton, where they continue in a state of nervous trepidation, as rumors reach them from time to time that the rebels are coming. I should not be surprised if their good fortune did not induce, what we call rebels, and what the Chinamen insist on calling ladrones, to make a combined attack on Canton. They sent a polite letter to the American consul about a week since, r commending foreigners to move over to the other si e of the river, as we were in their way, and, the observed they must have Canton. Their good intentions are. doubtless, appreciated, but if they try that movement on they will most likely find an unwholesome quantity of English powder and lead pervading the atmosphere. So anxious are the Chinease authorities to regain Fat-San, they have offered a broken down Yankee $50,000 to take it, and $15,000 if he will take a small fort near Whampoa.

"The American Consul has intimated to his 'free and enlightened citizen,' that if he goes on this expedition he cannot expect 'their everlastin' stars and stripes to protect him if he comes to grief."—The imperialists have, I understand, already paid a heavy amount in advance, and another American holds security ior the balance. He has enlisted about 300 scamps of all sorts, and only waits for written authority from the mandarins. Foreigners generally are averse to the whole affair as being likely to lead to a general embroilment of all parties. This has been pointed out to the Chinese government, and has made them all at once comfortable about giving their open sanction to the thing.

RE-ELECTION OF SENATOR SEWARD—Albany, Feb. 6—The Hon. Wm. H. Seward was re-elected to the U. S. Senate to-day by the Legislature, receiving 18 votes in the Senate and 69 in the House. The vote stood as follows:

Senate—Wm. H. Seward, 18; D. S. Dickenson 5, W. F. Allen 7; and five others one each.

House—Seward 69; Dickenson 14; Seymour 13; Hunt 8; Dix 7, and 11 scattering.

☞Fresh shad are selling at Norfolk at $1.

THE INDIANAPOLIS DEFAULTER—W. F. MAY.—Ex-sheriff Hunter has returned from his search for this young man unsuccessful. All he learned was that May had sold a large amount of Rensellaer bills to a Philadelphia house for gold, but from the account given by the dock master at New York, it is probable that he made his escape in the Baltic, which sailed on Wednesday. A young man, answering to May's description, was seen to climb the vessel's side just as she was putting out from the dock, and as May negotiated his bills in Philadelphia on Tuesday, in time to reach New York before the starting of the Baltic, it is reasonable to suppose that he availed himself of this opportunity to get beyond the reach of inquisitive officers. We have not learned what further steps, if any, will be taken.—Indianopolis Journal.

A RUSSIAN'S OPINION OF THE WAR A Constantinople letter gives as from a Russian prisoner, the following explanation of the origin of the present war. "The Turks massacreed the Russian Bishop and several Russian priests at Jerusalem. God, in his wrath, sent a squadron of angels to carry away the tomb of Christ which remains at this moment suspended in the heavens, and he commissioned the Czar to aveng the Pagan sacrilege. When the Emperor Nicholas shall enter Jerusalem a conquoror, as by the aid of heaven he certainly will do, Christ's tomb will restore to its place. The phalanx of angels will line the road along which the conquoring Russian army will pass and will present arms to them. Then the Czar will be master of the whole world, which will renounce its errors, and become converted to the orthodox faith." This story is implicitly believed by the Russian serfs.

PROHIBITORY LIQUOR LAW IN MICHIGAN.—The Governor of Michigan has signed the prohibitory liquor bill passed by the Legislature of that State a few days ago. It takes effect in ninety days after its approval. There is some provisions about it that render it doubtful whether it is constitutional or not. One of these allows a man to make an affidavit that he suspects and believes that an individual has liquor about his premises with intent to sell—and thereupon a justice may issue a warrant to seize and destroy the liquor, upon proof of the complaint. Another provision allows druggists to sell liquor.

LATER FROM NEW MEXICO.—Advices from Santa Fe to a late date have been received.

Gen. Garland had returned from the Mesilla Valley.

The Legislature was in session, and is acting ridiculously. The patriotic members (as they call themselves) meaning thereby the Mexican members, have refused to pay the freight on a number of books, presented by Congress to the Territory, because they were printed in the English language.

The Indians generally have been more than usually troublesome lately.

HEALTH OF MR. MASON.—A letter from Mr. Walsh in the N. Y. Journal of Commerce, dated Paris, Jan. 18th, says:—

"Our worthy Minister, Mr. Mason, is convalescent. His mind has not been affectee by the paralytic stroke experienced in his left arm. A member of my family conversed with him yesterday in his chamber. He was seated by the fire, and talked both lucidly and cheerfully.

APPOINTMENTS BY GOV. POLLOCK—Harrisburg, Feb. 3.—Gov. Pollock, has made the following appointments: T. J. Power, of Beaver county, K. N. dem., Adjutant General of the State. Christian Myers, of Clarion county, K. N. whig; Whiskey Inspector of Philadelphia, C. L. Magee, K. N. whig, Inspector of Weights and Measures for Alleghany county. Mr. Culp, K. N., Flour Inspector for Pittsburg.

SINGULAR DEATHS OF TWO CLERGYMEN.—It is stated that the Rev. Cyrus Johnson, D. D., of Charlotte, N. C., died suddenly of apoplexy, on the 25th ult., in an omnibus, while going to the Railroad Depot. He was on his way to Fort Mills for the purpose of marrying a gentleman and lady. He was the second clergyman who had been engaged to perform the ceremony. The Rev. A. S. Watts, who had been engaged for the same purdose, died a few days previous.

Liberty to Think, but not to Speak.—Louis Napoleon, Emperor of France, in answer to a memorial of the Protestants in that country, praying for permission to exercise the rights of conscience in matters of religion, replied through his Minister of worship, "that he recognizes the right of conscience in his subjects, but not liberty of worship." Most liberal monarch.

GREAT SALE OF JACK STOCK.—The sale of jacks and jennets, imported recently from Spain, by the Kentucky importing Company, took place at Georgetown, Ky. The prices were remunerative, ranging from $395 to $1550 per head, with the exception of one which sold for $235.

☞Gov. Wright, of Indiana, has withdrawn from the Methodist church, assigning that his pastor was a "know nothing."

"I will Never be Without them."

Salford, Vermilion Co., Ill, May 2, '50.

Mr. SELLERS:—Having used your Liver Pills, Cough Syrup, and Vermifuge in my family for more than three years, I believe I am justified in saying to the public, that they are decidedly the best family medicine now in use. I will never be without them unless they cannot be obtained at any cost.—In they section of country they have saved hundred of dollars in doctors' bills. I would recommend the Liver Pills in preference to anything else, for an enlargement of the spleen.

Yours respectfully,
JAMES ASHMORE.

TO THE PUBLIC.—The original, only true and genuine Liver Pills are prepared by R. E Sellers, and have his name in black wax upon the lip of each box, and his signature on the outside wrapper—all others are counterfeits or base imitations.
