MRS. HAYDOCK SAVED FROM AN OPERATION

Followed Advice of Her Druggist's Wife and Took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Chicago, Ill.—"I was in bed with a female trouble and inflammation and had four doctors but none of them did me any good. They all said I would have to have an operation. A druggist's wife told me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I took 22 bottles, never missing a dose and at the end of that time I was perfectly well. I have never had occasion to take it again as I have been so well. I have a six room flat and do all my work. My two sisters are taking the Compound upon my recommendation and you may publish my letter. It is the gospel truth and I will write to any one who wants a personal letter."—Mrs. E. H. Haydock, 6824 St. Lawrence Avenue, Chicago Illinois.

Because Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound saved Mrs. Haydock from an operation we cannot claim that all operations may be avoided by it,—but many women have escaped operations by the timely use of this old fashioned root and herb medicine.

WASHINGTON COLLEGE HAS BRIGHT OUTLOOK

The Washington College nine is fast getting into condition for the 1921 intercollegiate race, and with the wealth of material at hand, Coach Kibler should have an easy time in selecting a championship team. College men confidently expect the Chestertown aggregation to return to the place which usually received as the best squad in the State. Material this year is the best seen at the institution in years.

At first call more than 25 candidates appeared on the field. Most of them are experienced men. Among the number were nine "W" playersof last year. Robins, who captained the football eleven last fall, is one of the best all-round athletes at the Eastern Shore school, and he will lead the baseball team. Other letter men are Davis, Usilton, W. A. Bounds, W. G. Bounds, Gordy, Griffith, Johnston and Wright.

Gordy and Wright have made a name for themselves in the pitching line heretofore and it is believed their larger experience will make them most capable twirlers on the diamond this year. Schelberg, a name familar in Washington College football circles, is a new man with plenty of ability, and under the supervision of Kibler should prove a valuable addition. Davis will probably do the receiving, and last year's infield remains intact, including Usilton, Robins, W. A. Bounds and Johnston.

Among the other new men, Duffy, a letter man of the 1919 season, who has been out of college because of sickness, will be a moundsman, and will probably show as one of the heaviest hitters. He will also be used in the outfield. Flowers, Vineyard and Seigenfuse, the latter prominent in football last fall, are players of ability. Bankard and McAllister, subs of last year, are showing up well.

Manager Ayres is completing a heavy schedule for the nine which will include 15 games. A southern trip will be made next month. The first game will be played in Chestertown April 8.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of my dear daughter, Myra L. Frazier, who was called home one year ago March 23, 1920.

Just one year ago we laid you to rest
And folded your cold hands upon your breast.
In silence you suffered in patience you bore,
Until God called you home to suffer no more.
In her health she sought the Saviour,
In sickness he was by her side,
And in death he sent his guardian angel
Safely her spirit to heaven to guide.
Some time, somebody, my eyes shall see
The face I loved so well,
Some day her hand will clasp in mine,
To never say farewell.

By her Mother.

We will never forget you dear sister,
While in this world we stay
Our hearts have never been the same
Since you have passed away.

By her loving Sister Susie.

Betterment Of Negroes Furthered At Conference On Inter-Racial Questions

The Inter-Racial Conference of Baltimore held its second annual meeting March 11 to 13 in the Friends' Meeting House and Mount Vernon Place Methodist Episcopal Church. Dr. Ainslie emphasized the attitude, purpose and scope of the conference. He said, in part:

"The attitude of this conference is that of a friendly approach to the inter-racial problems which is the scientific method of permanent adjustment of any problem. The purpose of the conference is to study the problems that enter into inter-racial conditions, finding a new appreciation by the white people of the colored people's value as members of the community, and likewise finding a new appreciation by the colored people of the white people's interest and readiness to co-operate in the colored people's endeavors for racial betterment. The scope of the conference includes all subjects that have to do with the white and colored peoples and the discussing of these problems with frankness."

The two most important factors in any discussion of the inter-racial question are prejudice, on the one hand, and haste, on the other. The white people have to get rid of their prejudice against the negro, and realize that the black man's mind is just the same os the white man's, that he has the same capabilities, if he is given the same opportunities. The negro has got to understand that the things he wants cannot happen in a day and even if it were possible, he would not be ready for them. This was fully realized by the conference and was conceded by representatives of both races.

The main question, of course, is what do the colored people want? This question was answered by several of the speakers and received the general indorsement of the colored people present.

"The negro," said one speaker,"does not want social equality." The colored man does not want to be on a par socially with the white man. What he does want is to be recognized as a man, to be given the privileges of citizenship. He wants adequate educational provisions for colored children.

What The Conference Did.

Approved plans to relieve housing congestion of negroes by forming association to finance colored people in obtaining homes.

Indorsed statements that negroes do not want social equality with white people and made it clear that betterment of the colored race cannot come in a day.

Ascertained that the negro wants privileges of citizenship and adequate educational advantages for children.

Lack of courtesy and kindness on the part of both white and colored children toward each other was deplored.

Establishment of a tuberculosis preventorium for colored children suggested.
