ROCK HALL

Easter services were held in our churches on Sunday last and were largely attended. A special program highly interesting was happily rendered in the M. E. Church at night, and was hughly enjoyed by a large audience. Pastor T. C. Smoot is attending the annual conference at Crisfield this week. Mrs. Smoot is also attending the conference. There seems to be some doubt as to Mr. Smoot being returned to this charge for the coming year. The reverend gentleman is perfect willing to come back if the "power that be" so orders. He has made good here and many are anxious for his return. The services here tomorrow will be in charge of evangelist, Miss Matthews.

Among the Easter visitors here were Mrs. A. P. Levy and son, Rulon, of Baltimore, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Crew, of Lynch, Luther Francis, of Annapolis, Nelson G. Ryan, of near Chestertown.

Our merchants had quite an Easter rush. Clerks were well faged out, and whenever opportunity offered they were glad to drop into the nearest resting place for a breathing spell.

The oyster business has taken on quite a spurt, a number of buy boats that had laid up a few weeks ago, have gone into commission again.

Fruit growers in this section seems to be alarmed concerning the fruit crops because of the severe cold snap of Tuesday morning.

Messrs. Clifton and Wilkins have dandy fields of wheat south of this town.

At Wesley Chapel M. P. Church after the Sunday school session was over a regular Easter program was presented in a room decorated with cut spring flowers. The children, in charge of Mrs. Hackett Moffett, did finely. Special appropriate music was sung by the choir with Mrs. Helen Hague as organist, Orin Downey violinist and Jesse Downey, cornetist. The program was announced by S. Elwood Burgess, superintendent, as follows: Open service; singing, choir; prayer, by pastor; recitation, Marion Joiner; recitation, Mildred Raum; song, choir; exercise, Easter, six children; recitation, George Leary; recitation, Randolph Burgess; solo, Mrs. Nannie Hadaway; recitation, Edna Jackquette; recitation, Leroy Jackquette; recitation, Little Thurmond; song, choir; exercise, six children; recitation, Elizabeth Leary; song, Elizabeth Leary; song, children; recitation, Anna Mercer; exercise, four girls; recitation, Leona Coleman; song, choir; recitation, Blanche Coleman; recitation, Hilda Kelley; recitation, Jackquette; recitation, Jean Leary; song, choir; recitation, Mildred Raum; solo, Mrs. Raum; recitation, James Kelley; talk by pastor; song, choir; Before the close of the service six persons were received into membership, all being transferred from other churches. Next Sunday was announced as the last communion of the conference year.

The entertainment, "The Fruit of His Folly," given by the young folks of Worton given Thursday evening at the Jr. O. U. A. M. Hall under the auspices of Mrs. Raum's class of young ladies was much enjoyed by those present.

An Easter sermon was delivered by Rev. Father Earner Sunday morning at St. John's Roman Catholic Church.

The Seventh Day Adventists held an interesting meeting in charge of Elder Powers at their regular hour Saturday morning. The Sabbath school was well attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Culley entertained over the week-end their daughter, Miss Gladys Culley, and friend, Miss Mattie Clark, of Worton, and another daughter, Miss Myrtle Culley of State Normal School, Towson.

Miss Jesse Moffett entertained over the holidays a couple of friends at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilkins.

Owen Selby, of Charlotte Hall, Military Academy, and Vernon Selby, of Severn School, were Easter guests of their parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. O. Selby.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clayton are hosts to their cousin, Miss Kerr, of Baltimore.

Leonard Leary, of Smithburg, was holiday guest of his mother, Mrs. IsaacLeary,

Mrs. Walter Dickinson is improving slowly at Easton Hospital and has had among her guests her mother, Mrs. Isaac Leary, sister, Miss Susie Leary, brothers, William and Leonard Leary, children, Misses Ursula and Margery, Harvey and Lloyd Dickinson.

Miss Miriam Willson, of Baltimore, was Sunday guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Willson.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Stevens and son, James Stevens, spent from Friday to Sunday at their summer home.

Mrs. Bayard Sutton and sons, Norman and Bayard, Jr., were visitors at her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William P. Durding, Sunday.

The budget for next year was made to include an increase of $200 in pastor's salary, making it now $2,000, and an increase of $50 in sexton's. It was also decided to invite the next session of conference to meet here. It is said that St. John's Church, Baltimore, and Federalsburg will also extend an invitation.

At the M. E. Church Easter Sunday night, in a room beautifully trimmed with flowering potted plants and spring blossoms an Easter program was presented in which Mrs. Orin Downey looked after the children, Mrs. Robert Shallcross presided at the piano, Orin Downey, violin, and Jesse Downey, cornet. What is your plan?

Most men have well defined plans to accomplish a certain purpose in this life. Perhaps it is your plan to accumulate an independent estate for your family, or your old age. There are just nineteen chances to one against you in the fulfillment of your plan, if you attempt it unaided.

Why take chances when there is a plan 100 per cent sure and certain. Let me advise you about this all important personal matter.

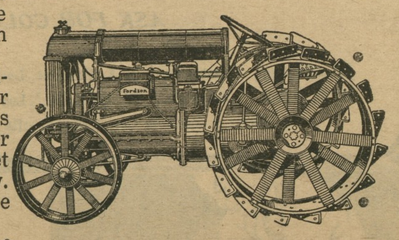
Fordson
Farm Tractor

More than one-third of the tractors in use in the United States are Fordsons, yet the Fordson has only been on the market two years. Just like the Ford car, the Fordson is an all-year utility. It is a compact tractor; it is easily operated, it has more power per pound weight than any other tractor manufactured, it is the lowest priced tractor and it is the most economical to operate.

There are more than seven thousand Fordson dealers in the United States. There is one in every community who not only sells Fordsons, but who carries a supply of Fordson parts for repairs and replacements with skilled mechanics to give dependable service, and to help the farmer get the best out of the Fordson tractor.



The demand for Fordson tractors is greater than the supply. There is only a limited number for each territory. Get your order in now. Orders are filled in the order received.
