JOY BROUGHT INTO HOME

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, Restoring Mrs. Benz to Health

Altoona, Pa.—"I am writing to tell you what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. We have had six children die almost at birth. From one hour to nineteen days is all they have lived. As I was going to have another, I took a dozen bottles of your Vegetable Compound and I can say that it is the greatest medicine on earth, for this baby is now four months old and a healthier baby you would not want. I am sending you a picture of her. Everybody says, 'That is some healthy looking baby.' You have my consent to show this letter."—Mrs. C. W. Benz, 131 3rd Ave., Altoona, Pa.

No woman can realize the joy and happpiness this healthy babe brought into the home of Mrs. Benz, unless they have had a like experience.

Every woman who suffers from any ailments peculiar to her sex, as indicated by backaches, headaches, bearing-down pains, irregularities, nervousness and "the blues" should not rest until they have given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, In Equity. No. 2116.

James A. P. Crisfield, James A. P. Crisfield, Executor under the last will and testament of James A. Pearce, deceased.

Henry Page Burruss, Charlotte A. L. Burruss, Julia Ethelinde Crisfield, Maude C. Toulson, Hubard P. Ringgold, Julia Ethelinde White, Minnie C. Ringgold, Peggy Moore Ringgold, Mattilda R. Rasin, Trustee under the last will and testament of James A. Pearce, deceased.; James A. P. Crisfield and Hallie R. Goodin, Administrators of the estate of Eunice R. Pearce, deceased; Hallie R. Goodin, Laura E. Merritt, Mollie E. Horsey, Matilda R. Rasin, Unit Rasin, Lucille Rasin, Helen Rasin.

The object of the Bill is to procure a decree with reference to said last will and testament of James A. Pearce, deceased, as far as the same is set forth in the above case and upon the following questions:

(A) Whether, under the aforesaid Last Will and Testament of James A. Pearce, deceased, and especially under the 17th item thereof, the sum of Nine Thousand One Hundred Twenty-nine Dollars and Thirty-three Cents ($9,129.33) collected by J. A. Pearce Crisfield and Hallie R. Goodin, Administrators of the estate of Eunice R. Pearce, from the three policies of insurance on the life of the said James A. Pearce in The Maryland Life Insurance Company of Baltimore, The Aetna Life Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn., and The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York, constitute a part of the estate of the said James A. Pearce, as intended by said Item 18.

(B) Or whether the proceeds of said three policies of insurance constitute a part of the estate of the said Eunice R. Pearce.

THE BILL STATES:

1. That James A. Pearce, late of Kent County, aforesaid, deceased, departed this life on the 9th day of December, 1920, seized and possessed of both real and personal property, and leaving a last will and testament dated the 31st day of January, 1918, and with a codicil thereto annexed dated the 19th day of July, 1920, and certain written memoranda thereto also annexed, which said last will and testament has been duly admitted to probate by the Orphans' Court of Kent County, aforesaid, and duly recorded among the Wills Records of said county in Wills Liber R. R. H. No. 1, Follos 151, etc., as will appear by a certified copy of said last will and testament filed herewith and marked "Exhibit No. 1."

2. That Letters Testamentary on the estate of the said James A. Pearce have been granted to J. A. Pearce Crisfield, the Executor named in said will, who has qualified as such and has entered upon the discharge of the duties of his office, as appears by a certified copy of his Letters Testamentary filed herewith and marked "Exhibit No. 2."

3. That the said Testator, by the 17th and 18th Paragraphs of his said last will and testament, provides as follows:

"Item 17. I have three policies of insurance on my life—one in the Md. Life Insurance Company full paid, for $2,650' one in the Aetna Life Insurance Company' full paid' for $2,500—and one in the Mutual Life Insurance of New York for $4,000—on annual premium. They are all made payable to my wife in event of her surviving me, otherwise to my executor or personal representatives—but in consideration of the provision hereinafter made for her—she has agreed that the proceeds of these policies shall constitute part of my estate and shall be assigned and released by her for that purpose—and I therefore direct that her acceptance of this will shall be her confirmation of the right of my estate to the proceeds of said policies. She knows that in this arrangement as in all else her interest and comfort has always been my first consideration. I have sustained such considerable losses as I have advanced in years that my estate is not more than sufficient for the comfortable support of my wife during her life. I cannot be too grateful for her affection and devotion to my interest and for her generous sacrifices through many years to enable me to aid the needs of my sisters and their children and for her sympathy and help in every burden and trial of my life. In the last will I made I gave her absolutely all my estate beyond a few bequests, in full confidence that she could dispose of it in accordance with my known and expressed wishes. This confidence is unshaken—but circumstances have since greatly changed, and her health has become so delicate that I am convinced it is for her interest and comfort that I should place my whole estate in trust for her benefit during her life and that she be relieved of the responsibility of caring for and making ultimate disposition of it.

I therefore devise and bequeath as follows:

Item 18. I give and bequeathe to my nephew James A. P. Crisfield, as my Executor, hereinafter, named all my estate, real and personal of every kind—including the three life insurance policies above mentioned, to be administered in the Orphans' Court for Kent County—my dwelling house in Chestertown to be sold by my executor as soon after my death as a reasonable price can be obtained therefore—and on reasonable credit as to a portion of such price, and I wish my executor to consult with my friend Lewin W. Wickes as to the price and terms of such sale—the proceeds thereof to be carried into my personal estate as a part thereof. I direct that my stocks and bonds shall not be sold unless my Executor shall determine such sale to be necessary to avoid danger of loss by holding—but be held until final administration account—and then be turned over in kind to the Trustee hereinafter named and I request the Orphans' Court to fix my executors commissions at the rate of two and one half per cent. I then give and devise the net estate as ascertained by my executors final administration account, to the Mercantile Trust and Deposit Company of Baltimore in trust for the following uses and purposes—with full power of investment and reinvestment in its discretion for the best interest of my estate, 1st to pay to my said wife during her life the whole income or interest upon aid fund in regular quarterly payments from the date of the receipt of said fund from my executor, less a commission of five per cent upon the gross income thereof in accordance with the agreement of said Trust Company shown in its letter of July 15th, 1912—attached to this will; said commission to cover "all charge for receiving or distributing the trust fund—or for collecting the investments coming due or the reinvestment of the proceeds" as stated in said letter. Should my wife find the whole income of said fund insufficient for her comfortable support I hereby authorize her to draw quarterly in writing upon said Trustee one year after said trust is assumed for the further sum of Fifty Dollars to be paid out of the corpus of said trust—the interest upon such advances to be allowed and charged against said fund upon the termination of said Trust.

2. Upon the death of my wife said trust shall terminate—and I then devise and bequeath said fund as follows: To be distributed and paid accordingly by said Trustee, viz.: To my wife's sister, Mrs. H. R. Goodin, if she then living, and not otherwise, the sum of One Thousand Dollars; to her sister, Mrs. Laura E. Merritt, if she be then living and not otherwise, the sum of One Thousand Dollars, but if she be not then living said sum of One Thousand Dollors to be paid in equal proportions to her daughters, Henrietta E. Chesley and Adelaide K. Merritt; to her sister, Matilda R. Rasin, in her own right if she be then living, and nott otherwise the sum of One Thousand Dollars, and the further sum of one Thousand Dollars in trust for her sister, Mrs. M. E. Horsey, for her life, and after her death to her three sons, Thos. H. Horsey, Hanson Horsey and Palmer Keene Horsey and to Eunice Horsey, daughter of her deceased son, Unit R. Horsey, in equal shares. Said Matilda R. Rasin shall not be required to give bond as such trustee. After the payment of said last mentioned legacies or bequests I give, devise and bequeath all the residue of said trust fund or estate, as follows, viz.: One-third part thereof to be equally divided between my nephew, Henry Page Burruss, of Birmingham, Alabama, and his sister, Charlotte A. Burruss, of St. Augustine, Fla., if she be then living and not otherwise, they being the only children of my deceased sister, Mrs. Catherine G. Burruss; one-third part to be equally divided between my nephew, James A. P. Crisfield, and my niece, Julia Ethelinde Crisfield, the only children of my deceased sister, Mrs. Charlotte A. L. Crisfield; and the remaining one-third to be equally divided between my niece, Maude C. Toulson, and my nejhew, Hubard P. Ringgold, and my niece, Julia Ethelinde White, the only children of my sister, Mrs. M. C. Ringgold, to whom I have heretofore furnished a sum equal to what her children will receive, hereunder, and who is now in reasonably comfortable circumstances. If, however, my niece, Charlotte A. L. Burruss, should not be living at my death or at my wife's death, I then direct that instead of the distribution above provided for the residue of said trust estate between my nephews and nieces, per stirpes as representatives of their respective mothers, that said residue of said trust estate shall be divided equally between all said then surviving nieces and nephews, per capita and not per stirpes."

4. That after the probate of the last will and testament of the said James A. Pearce, deceased, and to-wit, on the 23rd day of December, 1920, the said Eunice R. Pearce, departed this life intestate, and Letters of Administration upon her estate were granted unto James A. P. Crisfield and Hallie R. Goodin, who have qualified as such and have entered upon the discharge of the duties of their office, as appears by a certified copy of their letters of Administration filed herewith and marked "Exhibit No. 3."

5. That by Item 18 of his last will and testament, the said James A. Pearce, among others, made the following provisions: "I then give and devise the net estate as ascertained by my executor's final Administration Account to the Mercantile Trust and Deposit Company of Baltimore in trust" * * * * * * * for the uses and purposes set forth in said Item 18 and in Item 1 of the Codicil to the said last will and testament and provided further that * * * for the Codicil to said last will and testament and provided further that * * * * * * * "upon the death of my said wife said trust shall terminate." The trust created under said Item 18 of said last will and testament of James A. Pearce having terminated upon the death of said Eunice R. Pearce, the Mercantile Trust and Deposit Company of Baltimore decline dthe appointment of Trustee under said will as is evidenced by their written declination, filed herewith and marked "Exhibit No. 4."

6. That at the time of the death of the said James A. Pearce on December the 9th, 1920, the said Eunice R. Pearce was extremely ill and confined to her bed and was neither mentally nor physically capable of transacting business of any kind, and continued in this condition until the time of her death on December 23rd, 1920, and never knew of the death of the said James A. Pearce, consequently she was unable to assign and release unto the estate of said James A. Pearce the three Policies of Insurance on the life of said James A. Pearce mentioned in Item 17 of said will so that the proceeds of said policies might form a part of his estate in accordance with the agreement as therein expressed as having been consented to by her "in consideration of the provision" in said will made for her.

7. That the said three policies of insurance being made payable to Eunice R. Pearce, in the event of her surviving the said James A. Pearce, and the said Eunice R. Pearce having survived the said James A. Pearce but being both mentally and physically unable proir to her death to assign and release the same so that the proceeds of said policies might form a part of the estate of the said James A. Pearce as sent forth in Item 17 of his will, the said James A. P. Crisfield and Hallie R. Goodin, Administrators of the estate of Eunice R. Pearce, deceased, collected and now have in their custody the proceeds of said policies of insurance amounting to $9,129.33 Dollars, as follows:

The Maryland Life Insurance Co. of Baltimore, Policy No. 5418.	$2,560.00
The Aetna Life Insurance Company of Harford, Conn., Policy No. 265857	2,500.00
The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York, Policy No. 749751	4,069.33
	$9,129.33

8. That the trust created under the last will and testament of the said James A. Pearce, having terminated upon the death of the said Eunice R. Pearce, the following persons are interested in the distribution of the estate of the said James A. Pearce to be ascertained by his Executor's final Administration Account, neamely:

Hallie R. Goodin, who now resides at No. 2107 N. Calvert Street, Baltimore, Maryland.

Laura E. Merritt, who resides at No. 2107 North Calvert Street, Baltimore Maryland.

James A. P. Crisfield, who resides at Chestnutt Hill, Philadelphia, Pa.

Julia Ethelinde Crisfield, who resides at The Portner, Washington, D. C.

Maude C. Toulson, who resides at Salisbury, Maryland.

Hubard P. Ringgold, who resides at Philadelphia, Pa.

Eunice Horsey, who resides at Middletown, State of Delaware.

The said Mollie E. Horsey, Thomas H. Horsey, Hanson Horsey, Palmer Keene Horsey and Eunice Horsey are not made defendants in this cause because the estate of the said James A. Pearce is sufficiently large to pay, without any doubt thereof, all the legacies mentioned in Item 18 of the said will, and thereof they have no interest in the disposition of the proceeds of said policies of insurance, nor have they any interest in the distribution of the net estate of the said James A. Pearce to be ascertained by his Executor's Final Administration Account.

9. That at the time of her death the said Eunice R. Pearce left surviving her as her heirs at law, the following named persons:

It is thereupon this 30th day of March, 1921, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent County in Equity, that the Plaintiff by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper, published in said Kent County, once in each of four successive weeks before the 2nd day of May next, giving notice to the said Henry Page Burruss, Charlotte A.
