THE KENT NEWS.

By Last Night's Mail!

DEATH OF CHANCEY P. HOLCOMB.—The Delaware Journal of yesterday announces the death of Chancey P. Holcomb, Esq., one of the most valuable and useful citizens of that State.

The Cincinnati Election Riot.

CINCINNATI, April 4—4 P. M.—There has been no fighting to-day. The Germans delivered their cannon, but retained possession of the wheels. The parties are now quarrelling about the latter. The military are still under arms; but the indications are that the difficulties will be settled without bloodshed.

[SECOND DISPATCH.]

6 P. M.—The military this afternoon, under the direction of the Sheriff, marched over the Canal and took possession of the wheels of the cannon that had been retained by the Germans. This having been accomplished, the crowd dispersed, and matters are now rapidly quieting down. No further disturbance are apprehended.

It is understood that the know-nothings hold a meeting to-night, to express their views with reference to the late proceedings.

[THIRD DISPATCH.]

CINCINNATI, April 5.—A large meeting of Americans was held last night in this city, when resolutions denouncing the late outrages and the destruction of the ballot boxes; and disapproving of all unlawful proceedings were passed. The city is now quiet.

Rhode Island Election.

PROVIDENCE, April 5.—The retuins of the election in this State yesterday for State officers and members of Congress came in all one way. Hoppin, the whig and know-nothing candidate for Governor and Ross, the know-nothing candidate for Lieut. Governor, have been elected by large majorities. For Congress, in the eastern district, Durfee, know-nothing; and in the western district, Thurston, know-nothing and democrat, have large majorities.

For the News.

MR. EDITOR:—We were surprised to see in your last issue, the communication of Tax Payers, urging the County Commissioners to reduce the per centage, usually allowed Collectors. It is to be regretted that the author, whoever he may be, did not apply for the office of Collector, at three per cent, including dog tax, as doubtless he would have unanimously received the appointment, by the Commissioners, for the whole county.

ANOTHER TAX-PAYER.

GREAT RACE TO COME OFF.—The celebrated race horses, Lexington and Lecompt, will meet on the Metairie Course, New Orleans, on the 14th of April, in four miles heats for the purse, and an inside stake of $5000.

THE SUNDAY LIQUOR LAW IN PHILADELPHIA.—The first case under the new Sunday Liquor Law came before Mayor Conrad on Tuesday; and the defendant, a Swiss keeper of a lager beer saloon, who had kept his place closed, but sold liquor secretly was held to bail.

HENRY CLAY FESTIVAL.—On the 12th April the old friends of Mr. Clay, (of the Clay Festival Association) have their [illegible] dinner, in New York—in commemoration of the birth-day of the illustrious deceased. The Express says it is certain that the Hon. John P. Kennedy, of Maryland, will be present, to address the meeting, and it is hoped that Ex-President Fillmore will be, among other distinguished men.

Prohibitory Liquor Law.

NEW YORK, April 4th.—The temperance bill passed the Senate of this State last evening, by a vote of 21 to 11.

Know Nothing Victories.

ST. LOUIS, April 4.—The Know-Nothings elected their municipal officers here and at Jefferson city yesterday.

Near Cecilton, on the 31st ult., of erysipelas, Col. Z. W. Potter.

In Chester Town, on Wednesday 4th April, GEORGE WALTER, son of John and Mary Perkins, age 1 year. 4 months and 6 days. And Jesus said: "Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not for of such is the kingdom of Heaven."

Dearest Walter, thou has left us!
Here thy loss we deeply feel,
But 'tis God that hath bereft us;
He can'st all our sorrows heal.
Yes, again we'll meet thee Walter,
When the day of life is fled,
Then in Heaven with joy to greet thee
Where no farewell tear is shed.
His little head is at rest;
Its paining and aching are o'er
His quiet immovable breast
Is heaved by affliction no more. *****

1693 ACRES,

more or less. The property will be offered in three divisions:

No. 1 contains

772 ACRES,

more or less, about 400 of which is in WOOD & TIMBER, of the finest quality, composed of white, red, and black oak and hickory.

No. 2 contains

721 ACRES,

more or less, about 450 of which is in

WOOD,

principally pine, interspersed with oak and chesnut, which it is supposed will cut from 50 to 60 cords per acre. The improvements on this division consists of a good substantial DWELLING—a large Barn, with Stabling in basement and other necessary out-buildings.

No. 3 contains

200 ACRES,

more or less, of arable land, with sufficient Timber for fuel.

There is a good landing on the property and bold water.

Those desirous of viewing the property are referred to Mr. Spear, on the premises, or George W. T. Perkins, or the agent Chester Town.

ALSO at the same time the

RED LYON MILLS,

in Queen Ann's county, belonging to E. F. Chambers. The Saw Mill is perfectly new. The Grist Mill is furnished with the best iron gearing. It is perhaps the best fall of water on the Shore, being some 23 to 25 feet. Both mills are driven by overshot wheels.

This property offers very strong inducements to a man of enterprise. As it is expected persons will not purchase without examining the property, a minute description is not given.

☞Terms made known on the day of sale.
