ROCK HALL

Piney Neck evangelistic services have closed and have resulted in the addition of about fifteen new members to the church. A lovely feature of the close of school was a nice treat by the teachers, Mrs. Edna Bryden, Miss Marvel Ashley and Miss Mildred Kendall, to their pupils.

The 26th anniversary of the Jr. O. U. A. M. which was celebrated on the evening of the 15th, was one of the most enjoyable occasions of the season. There were several hundred present, including a number of children who had one part of the hall for themselves and had the time of their lives. The entertainment committee presented the following literary and musical numbers: Chorus, by young ladies; duet, Wheat and Coburn; recitation, Howard Clark; recitation, Mrs. James Rodney; instrumental duet, Miss Catherine Jeffers pianist and Mr. Jesse Downey cornetist; refreshments consisted of cake and ice cream in abundance, the sick of the community not being forgotten. Dancing was indulged in by the young people and the parting came after singing "God Be With You Till We Meet Again."

SOME FINE BIRDS

The Bramble Poultry Farm has an exceptionally fine Barred Plymouth Rock cock to head their breeding pen this year. This bird is a pedigreed bird, from a hen that produced around 300 eggs in her pullet year, and weighs over 12 pounds. The Bramble Poultry Farm purchased this remarkable bird from the J. W. Pachs Barred Rock Farm and has four others with his breeders from the same place, all from hens that produce around 300 eggs in a year. They will breed these fine birds to yearlings, using no pullets in their matings, as eggs and chickens from yearlings are recognized as being far superior to ones from pullets. The Bramble Poultry Farm has 200 Barred Rock breeders and almost 500 S. C. White Leghorn breeders for this season.

SCHOOL HELP IS URGED

I sincerely hope that teachers and children in the public and private schools of the United States will cooperate heartily and liberally with the Near East Relief in raising funds for food and clothing and care of children and others who have suffered from the ravages of war in the countries of the Near East. To do this will only be doing as we would have others do to us if, like these people, we were reduced to poverty and suffering through no fault of our own but through the ruthless ambitions of others.

Yours sincerely,
(Signed) P. P. CLAXTON,
Commissioner of Education,
Washington, D. C.

NEW TERRITORY IS ACQUIRED BY U. S.

SIX THOUSAND ACRES IN THRACE ARE RENTED BY NEAR EAST RELIEF

Six thousand acres of the richest farming land in the historic region of Thrace has been rented from the Greek Government by the Near East Relief, America's official organization, chartered by Congress, for carrying on relief work in the Near East, as a homeland for one thousand destitute Armenian refugees, dependent on the resources of the American charity. American money has provided the land, the American flag flies over it, and American machinery is to till it. And this last means the economic regeneration of the people and the country.

"The time had come to start something," said James Crutcher, a young Alabama relief worker in charge of the enterprise. "We were spending all our resources feeding the starving, sheltering the sick and clothing the naked. That work, of course, was absolutely necessary and had to be done. But it wasn't getting anywhere for the future. Besides, the people chaffed at having continually to accept charity. They were hard-working, industrious people who had earned their bread by the sweat of their brows, and they wanted to work for what they got.

"We looked about us for a way Then came the idea. There were acres of the richest farming land in the world right next door, in Thrace, and most of it wasn't being worked. With the cordial co-operation of the Greek Government, we rented six thousand acres of this, brought from home enough agricultural machinery of the latest make and enough seed to put things in motion and then transported one thousand of our refugees who were living in unspeakable filth and destitution at a camp in Ismid and the project was under way.
