THE KENT NEWS.

By Last Night's Mail!

LATER FROM EUROPE.

Arrival of the Washington—The Vienna Conference—Another Battle, &c.

NEW YORK, April 12.—The Steamer Washington arrived here this evening, with four days later news from Europe.—The Vienna Conference, it would seem, does not promise much for an early restoration of good feeling among the beligerent parties; for while the allies do not insist on the destruction of Sebastopol, they have proposed conditions which are reported to be very distasteful to Russia.

From the seat of war we learn that the weather continues fine and the health of the armies had greatly improved. Omar Pasha arrived at the Allied Camp on the 12th ult., and on the 13th the Russians from the heights of Balaklava, opened a brisk fire upon the English forces, in which encounter they were worsted. On the 17th they made a general attack upon the whole line of the Allies, and after a very severe struggle, were driven back with great loss.

Deserters from the Russian army report that the news of the death of the Czar had not been promulgated to the army.

SCOTTS LITTLE GIANT CORN

And Cob Mill.

The above cut represents an invaluable improvement in Portable Mills, adapted to the various crushing and grinding purposes of a farm, which are now required and found so profitable in the improved modes of feeding stock. This mill is peculiarly adapted to grinding corn and cob together and requires no horse power machinery; simply a lever attached to the inside grinder, the outside being stationary and will grind, according to size, from 10 to 20 bushels corn and cob per hour. They are manufactured by Messrs. Robbins & Bibb, of Baltimore, and one of the firm will visit Chester Town, during the coming week for the purpose of exhibiting one of the Mills and for disposing of the right for Kent county.

The Two Largest and Most Popular

Equestrian Establishments

In the world, viz: the well known Companies,

Welch's National Circus and Hippodrome

Of Philadelphia, and

LENT'S NEW YORK CIRCUS,

FORMING TWO DISTINCT EXHIBITIONS

Blended together, and both given under one Immense Pavilion for a Single Price of Admission—reports of inferior companies to the contrary, notwithstanding. These consolidated Companies WILL EXHIBIT AT CHESTERTOWN, ON WEDNESDAY, APRIL 25th, 1855.

Doors open at 2 and 7 o'clock P. M. Performance will commence half an hour after opening.

ADMISSION 25 CENTS ☞ NO HALF PRICE.

The extensive and splendidly appointed Cortege of this Colossal Establishment, comprising 200 men and horses, and requiring 30 carriages and baggage vans for the conveyance of the performers, the properties, and paraphernalia used in each representation, will make a public parade upon entering town on the day of Exhibition, preceded by the ne plus ultra Band Car, drawn by ten beautiful cream colored horses, and containing S. V. W. Post's celebrated Philadelphia Cornet Band.

The immense resources obtained by combining the two extensive and well known troupes, will allow of a degree of brilliancy being produced in their entertainments, unparallelled in this country, and peculiar to this establishment, will be found comprised in the bills, and it is confidently believe that the novel, brilliant, and exciting representations of the double troupe, will form a feature in the amusements in America which will be remembered, with gratification, for years to come.

The bright array of talent attached to the consolidated establishment includes a great number of the most distinguished names of the equestrian profession, most of whom are well known in Europe as well as upon this side of the Atlantic.

Among the most prominent artistes attached to this establishment will be found the names of the four great Clowns, Worrell, the wit; Brower, the whimsical; Wallis, the musical; and Whittaker, the stump orator; Mad. Louise Brower, and Mad'lle Marie, the two leading equestriennes of the age, the Franklin Family, headed by the world-renowned H. W. Franklin, the most versatile performer in the world; W. H. Stout, the great two and four horse rider; Luke Rivers, the lightning rider; Her Lee, the cannon ball defier; Master Willie Franklin, the backward and somerset rider; Mr. B. The new and extremely attractive feature in the representation of this Company will be found to consist in the Grand Magic Pantomime entitled the

MISER OF BAGDAD

A piece replete with wonderful transformations, magic tricks and illusions, laughable incidents and surprising effects, and which will be produced with all the brilliant costumes properties and appointments used during its triumphant career of over one hundred consecutive nights, in the city of Philadelphia, where it was unanimously pronounced the most laughable and perfect Pantomimic spectacle ever brought out in America. The pantomime is entirely different from, and is on a greater scale of magnitude than, anything ever previously attempted in any travelling exhibition.—The Miser of Bagdad will conclude each evening's entertainment.

☞ For further particulars, see large and small bills, at the Hotels.

Will exhibit at Centreville April 24th and at Georgetown [illegible] April 25th.
