Personal Tidings

Mrs. Samuel Logan is still on the sick list at her home in Queen Anne's.

Mrs. Kate Chilcutt has been in attendance with Mrs. Frank Jarrell, who is somewhat better.

Miss Lola Chilcutt has accepted a position in Jake's factory, Chestertown.

Miss Hazel Thompson, of Rock Hall, is visiting friends in Chestertown.

Mr. Milbourn, who had a fall recently has recovered entirely.

Mrs. Price Rolph, who has been suffering with tonsilitis, is able to be about again.

Harper Logan was a visitor of his mother a few days ago.

Mrs. Eben F. Perkins entertained a large number of friends Friday afternoon in honor of her sister, a recent bride of Mr. Bryan, of Queenstown.

P. Medford Brooks has moved his family to his recently purchased home on Front street, Chestertown, formerly belonging to Dr. J. E. Graham, who has moved to his farm near Ingleside.

Mr. and Msr. John Kelly, of Philadelphia, were week-end guests of the latter's mother, Mrs. Fannie Davis.

George H. Burk returned home last Friday after spending the past month with relatives in Philadelphia and Trenton.

John Allen, of Chester, was the week-end guest of his son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob F. Allen.

Miss Heiser, of Baltimore, is spending the winter with Prof. and Mrs. Mark Creasy.

Mrs. Owen B. Crow was called to Church Hill on Sunday last by the illness of her mother. She and daughter, Isabelle, are at her bedside and report her condition as growing worse.

John W. Barnes has been confined to his home for several days suffering with a deep cold.

Contractor Walter T. Pippin has been confined to his bed this week by sickness.

The Wicomico Countian advocates a lady for the School Board in that county and suggests a former Kent countian thus, "One estimable lady whose name suggests itself to our minds is Mrs. John M. Toulson, a lady whom we feel possesses all the fundamental prerequisites. A former teacher in the Wicomico High School, a college graduate, and indefatigable worker for the party and a business woman whose qualifications in business circles are unquestioned."

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Sterling have been quite sick for ten days. Mrs. Sterling is able to be up and is looking after business.

Alvin McCauley is having a fine garage erected at the Galena town limits on way to Georgetown.

Mr. and Mrs. James Jarrell, of Middletown, have been spending a week with Mrs. Jarrell's father, Joseph Dixon.

L. R. Vansant and family have moved into temporary quarters in several rooms of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hadley's home at Galena. We are glad to report both Mr. and Mrs. Vansant very much better. Misses Anna and Helen have returned to their school duties, Miss Anna teaching and Miss Helen a student at Dover. It is reported that Mr. Vansant will rebuild in the spring.

George C. McFeely, one of Chestertown's "boys" is now employed in the well-known A. J. Reach Sporting Co.'s plant in Chicopee, Mass. A personal letter from him will no doubt be of interest to his many friends. "I am still much interested in "home" though there have been a great many changes during the 24 and a half years I have been absent. Many new names I note in the News and I doubt I shall recognize half the younger folks who are now grown up and some married. I am going to give it a test sometime, soon I hope, and visit the old home and see what great changes have taken place. The "fire district" of course will be all new to me though I still picture it in my mind as it used to be. As I remember the town it was a fine old place to live and if business opportunities permitted I don't know but what I would drift back there again. The climate here is very changeable and the winters rather severe. The usual temperature in winter is around 10 to 15 degrees and our cold mornings often reach 10 or more below. Several times I have seen it go down to 20 below and at one time 32 below. Of course these extremes are rare and occur probably not more than once or twice during the whole winter. Last year we had a mild pleasant winter (that is for this section) with very little snow and we were just beginning to think this winter was going to be the same, but we are now burried deep in snow. Business seems to be reviving a little here in certain lines, but it is still far from normal. Our own factory is working full time in certain departments and we look forward to more nearly normal conditions in the spring. In our golf club, golf ball and tennis departments we run full time the year round, while our skate and other departments have their busy and slack seasons."

Mrs. Mary Cloak and two children, of Florence, N. J., are visiting her sister, Mrs. Martin Dill.

Hurlock Estate In Court.

The Circuit Court for Queen Anne's county. Judges Atkins, Wickes and Hopper sitting, heard argument Friday in the matter of the S. R. Hurlock Trust Estate.

A petition has been filed asking the court to continue the trust as created under the will of S. R. Hurlock, and to direct distribution of the estate.

Public Service Commissioner J. Frank Harper and Arthur W. Machen of the law firm of Hershey, Machen Donaldson & Williams, of Baltimore, were heard by the court, and decision was reserved.

WEDDING NOTES

A very pretty wedding was solemnized last Wednesday evening, January 18, when Miss Julia Mabel Dewberry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Dewberry, of near Crumpton, became the bride of Irving Ford Smith, son of John C. and the late Mary E. Smith, of Chestertown. At 7 o'clock the bride entered the parlor on the arm of the groom to the strains of Hearts and Flowers, the wedding march which was rendered by Miss Mildred L. Smith, of Sudlersville, a cousin of the bride. The ceremony was performed at the home of the groom near Millington, by Rev. J T. Rowlenson, pastor of the M.E.Church, Crumpton. After the ceremony a reception was served to about 75 guests after which they took their departure leaving their best wishes with the happy couple. They will reside near Millington, where the groom is engaged in farming.

Miss Viola V. Crew, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Crew, and granddaughter of the late Capt. Crew, of Kent county, and Walter Groff, son of Mrs. Groff, near Millington, were quietly married Tuesday, January 17, at Chestertown. The bride was attired in Harding blue messaline, with hat and gloves to match. The happy couple left on the afternoon train for their home, in Chester, Pa., where the groom is engaged in business with his brother-in-law.

Cards have been received by friends of the contracting parties announcing the approaching marriage of Miss Katherine Marie Blunt, daughter of Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Simon Blinn Blunt, of Massachussetts, to Edmund Spedden Graves, of Chestertown, The ceremony will take place February 11th, at the home of the bride's parents, at Ashmont, Mass.
