THE KENT NEWS.

CITIES OF RUSSIA.—In all the vast empire of Russia, not more than three cities contain a population of 60,000 inhabitants —namely, St. Petersburg, 470,202; Moscow, 349,058, and Warsaw, 154,700; the population of Odessa is 60,155; Sebastopol, 41,155. Four cities only have populations exceeding 50,000 inhabitants.—Archangel counts only 9,589. There are only twenty-five cities in the whole empire whose populations vary from 25,000 to 40,000. The respective populations of the other cities, (1,047 in number) is small, varying from 10,000 to a few hundred. The rest of the population is dispersed over the country in the valleys; but of rural population, strictly speaking, there is little or nothing.

HORRIBLE TRAGEDY.—In New Haven, Conn., on Saturday night, Willard Clark, grocer, entered the house of Mr. John Bogart, and found there Mr. and Mrs. Wight, son-in-law and daughter of Mr. Bogart. Clark followed them into the parlor, and advancing to the side of Mr. Wight, presented a pistol to his head and discharged it within a few inches of his ear. The ball entered the head of Mr. W., and wounded him dreadfully, and probably fatally. The whole cause of this terrible tragedy seems to be the jealousy Clark entertained for Mr. Wight, who had married Miss Bogart against the wishes of Clark. For several years past Clark had sought the hand of Miss Bogart in marriage, and had been repulsed by her, and finally dismissed about a year since. Wight has since died.

A FAMINE IN GEORGIA.—It is stated that in Polk county, Ga., there is a scarcity of provisions so much so that many of the families in the neighborhood are almost starving. The same is the case in Floyd county, where a public meeting has been called to adopt measures of relief.—The partial failures of grain crops for a year or two, the increase of the prices of provisions, and the stoppage of many grist mills are noted among the causes of this distress.

Trial of Colonel Kinney.

NEW YORK, May 2.—In the U. S. District court to-day, Col. Kinney applied for the appointment of an early day for his trial and Monday next was fixed by Judge Ingersoll, notwithstanding some opposition from the District Attorney, on the ground of insufficiency of time.

Arrest of Consul Fabens.

WASHINGTON, May 2.—De Angelis, the Deputy Marshall of New York, arrested Consul Fabens to-day, on the charge of being concerned in the alleged unlawful expedition of Col. Kinney against Nicaragua. Mr. Fabens has not resigned his Consulship.

DIED—At his residence in this county, on Saturday last, of pneumonia, Mr. William B. Tilden, an industrious and worthy citizen. May he rest in peace.

In Missouri, several weeks since, JOHN R. son of Oliver P. and Angelina Shaeffer, formerly of this county.

"And is our little Johnny gone,
And has his spirit fled.
And does his little form now sleep
Among the silent dead?

We thee well, we give thee up,
Thou spirit now's at rest;
No more we'll hear thee groan in pain
Nor see thee gasp for breath.

And when we dressed thee in thy shroud,
So lovely e'en in death
Thy infant brother reached his arms
To twine around thy neck.

Our little heart could not conceive
Why thou would'st not return,
Such loving, fond, fond caress
As thou had'st always done.

But oh! his little lips received
No answering touch of love,
For there thy form lay cold in death
Thy spirit soared above.

We thee well our darling boy,
Thou was't our joy and pride;
But we have laid thee in the grave
Close by thy grandpa's side.

Our darling one we give thee up
And lay thy form to rest,
But thy blest spirit now reclines
On the dear Savior's breast.

By Last Night's Mail!

Later from Havana.

New York, May 3.—The steamer Black Warrior, from Havana, with dates to the 28th ult., arrived here this morning. The steamer San Jacinto was still in port, but the Princeton sailed for Key West on the morning of the 28th. The island was in a state of quitude, and no new arrests had been made.

Commodore McCauley and the Captains of two United States vessels in port had been handsomely entered with a banquet by the Captain General.

Sugars continued active and were tending upward. Exchanges were dull.—Sterling exchange held an upward tendency.

Suffering in the British Provinces—Parliament Dissolved.

Boston, May 3.—The Halifax papers states that frightful distress exists along the coasts, between Meramichi and Shippagan. The people are suffering direful privation. They have no seed whatever to sow this spring, and their future prospects are still more gloomy than their present condition.

The Nova Scotia Parliament has been dissolved by proclamation of the Governor, and a new election has been called for the 22d of May.

Philadelphia Election.

PHILA., May 3.—Mr. Hill the American candidate for City Commissioner, is elected According to the official returns he has 197 majority.

A. W. MELVIN, Clerk.
March 24, 1855—4w

By the County Commissioners of Kent county, Maryland, Ordered, That James H. Edes, Esq. late Collector of said county, after twenty days previous notice, at the Court House door, and at the most public places in said county, and also in the "Kent News," (a paper published in said county,) to sell to highest bidder, the foregoing tract or tracts of land, or lot or lots of ground or such part or parcelf thereof as may be sufficient to discharge the taxes and legal charges thereon due, and the same when sold, to transfer by deed or bargain and sale to the purchaser thereof.

A. W. MELVIN,
Clk. to Com. for Kent county.
March 20, 1855.

In pursuance of the above Order, notice is hereby given, That unless the taxes due on the lands aforesaid, shall be paid to me on or before the expiration of the time above mentioned, the said lands or such parts thereof, as may be necessary to raise the sum due thereon, together with the cost of advertising the same, will on the 22nd day of May next, be sold to the highest bidder, at the Market House, in Chester Town, for the payment of the same. The sale to commence at 10 o'clock, A. M.

Tuesday,

JAS. H. EDES,
Late Collector.
