WEDDING NOTES

The marriage Albert D. Mackey, an Elkton lawyer, and Miss Dorothy Ross, a former demonstration agent, for Cecil County, took place Saturday afternoon at the home of the bride's mother at Silver Springs, Md.

Miss Florence C. Coleman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry G. Coleman, of Wilmington, formerly of Chestertown, and George P. Martin were married last Saturday by Rev. J. W. R. Sumwalt, pastor of Grace M. E. Church. The bride, who was unattended, wore a costume of navy blue Canton crepe and a hat to match, trimmed with grey. After a wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Martin will reside in Wilmington.

A pretty wedding was solemnized on Tuesday evening, June 20th, at six o'clock at St. Peters Church, at Pleasant Ville, N. J., was one of the most brilliant affairs of the season. The bride was Miss Rose May Scull, daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Scull, of Worton, Md. The groom was Raymond Conover, of Northfield, N. J.

The bride was most charming in a gown of white satin and trimmed with georgette. Her veil which was of fine net trimmed with lace was caught at the side and bottom with orange blossoms. She carried a bouquette of sweet peas.

Her sister, Miss Hattie Scull, was brides maid, she wore a gown of white organdie and hat to match and carried a bouquet of pink sweet peas. While George Barett, cousin of Mr. Conover, was best man. Miss Dorothy Ingersoll, of English Creek, N. J., was matron of honor, wore a gown of blue crepe de chine and large black hat.

Many present were received by the happy couple. For the present they are making their home at the groom's home at Northfield, N. J.

After the wedding ceremony a small reception was held at the home of the bride's uncle, Mr. Elwell at the Country Club, of Atlantic City, at Northfield, N. J. The table was decorated for the reception and in the middle was a large wedding cake made by the bride herself and in the cake was a wedding ring and thimble, Miss Anna Joyce, cousin of the bride, had the luck to get both the ring and the thimble. She will be the next married and have to sew for her living.

Among those present at the reception were Mr. and Mrs. Elwell Scull, Mrs. Alice Conover, Mrs. Rejoise Barett, Mrs. John Joyce, Miss Margaret Joyce, Miss Anna Joyce, Mrs. Mary Cressy, Mrs. Marie Cressy, Miss Dorothy Ingersoll, Miss Hattie Scull, George Barrett, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Conover, George and Elstin Cressy, John Cressy, Thomas Cressy, Miss Laura Cressy, Miss Jennie C. Dooley, of Frankford, Pa.

A pretty wedding took place Saturday when John Frank Usilton and Miss Myrtle Moore were married at the bride's home, at Price's Station, by Rev. W. W. McIntire, of the M. E. Church, South, Ingleside. Miss Ethel Peach Moore, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and Louis Usilton, brother of the groom, was best man. Music was rendered by Mrs. Elijah Smith, of Greensboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. P. Burris, Sr., of near Centreville, this week announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Grace Burris, to W. Layton Holton, Jr., of Centreville. The wedding will take place in the fall. Miss Burris has been a member of the teaching staff of Centreville Grammar school for several years. Mr. Holton is a son of Mrs. Henrietta McK. Holton, and is assistant teller in the Centreville National Bank, where he has proven a popular and efficient official.

Two In Family Report Big Gain

Mother And Daughter Gains Twenty Pounds Each And Father Also Restored To Fine Health.

"Not since my wonderful experience with Tanlac, three years ago, we have ever been without it in the house. Not only myself, but my husband and my son and daughter all take it when we begin to feel rundown and it never fails to give us the desired results. My daughter, for instance, gained twenty pounds by the use of Tanlac."

The above statement was made, recently, by Mrs. Samuel Pearce, residing at 419 North Pulaski street, Baltimore.

"As for what Tanlac has done for me," said Mrs. Pearce, "I had suffered constantly for years and had been confined to my bed for months, hardly able to move a muscle. I had such bad pains in my shoulders from neuritis that I could scarcely use my arms and I also suffered agony from backache.

I had no appetite and suffered terribly from what little I did eat. In fact, food gave me misery instead of pleasure, and I got so nervous I did not know what to do. I finally got better of the neuritis, but otherwise I never improved a bit until after I began taking Tanlac. After my first two or three bottles of Tanlac I picked up so fast it surprised me.

"Well, it only took Tanlac a few weeks to restore my health and build me up twenty pounds, and since that time I have felt like a new woman altogether. I eat ravenously, digest everything, my nerves are calm, I sleep fine and never have a pain about me. We would not think of getting out of Tanlac, for, as I said, it never disappoints us."

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists.—Advertisement.

IN MEMORIAM

In remembrance of our sister Katie Anderson.

No one knows how much we miss you,
No one knows the tears we shed;
But in Heaven we hope to meet you
Where no farewell words are said.

No one knows the silent heartaches,
Only those who have lost can tell
Of the grief that is for us in silence
Of the one we loved so well.

Brother Edward Fowler and Wife.

In remembrance of my daughter, Katie Anderson, who departed this life three years ago July 10th.

I stood beside your bedside
And saw your life depart,
And when I saw that you were dead
It nearly broke my heart.

May you rest in peace, dear daughter,
Three years have passed away;
If you only knew the changes
That have happened since that day.

Loving Mother, Emma Fowler.
