J. BIBB MILLS GOES TO THE STATE OF ALABAMA

J. Bibb Mills for 14 years connected with the Anti-Saloon League of Maryland, resigned his position with the Maryland League to become effective on August 15th.

Mr. Mills came with the Anti-Saloon League as its attorney under the superintendency of Wm. H. Anderson. He devoted his time largely to the legal and political end of the fight. At every session of the Legislature he was on hand from the opening of the session until its close. Probably no man in Maryland knows so many people by their first name as does J. Bibb Mills. There is scarcely a nook or corner in Maryland that he does not know. In his own church, the Methodist Protestant, Mr. Mills is highly respected by the ministers and laymen. He has been a member of the General Conference of that church at every session since his connection with the Anti-Saloon League.

Mr. Mills was born in Alabama where his father was located as a minister of the Methodist Protestant Church. He goes back to the state of his birth full of enthusiasm for the work after years of experience in this reform movement, and with a consecration to his task that will tell for good in the state that calls him.

REPUBLICANS OF MARYLAND

Your Duty To Your Party Is To SEND

John W. Garrett

to the United States Senate!

Senator France, on March 2, 1922, on the floor of the United States Senate, repudiated the Republican Party.

Here is the Actual Proof!

This is a photographic reproduction of a section of Page 3616 of the Congressional Record of March 2, 1922. Read where Senator France turned his back on the Republican Party:

sid[illegible] and will [illegible]y. If you Democratic Senators stand steadfastly and determinedly for these principles which my party seems to be now repudiating you will meet with your reward at the hands of the American people, and I hope to God that you do [illegible] a part[illegible] calls [illegible] party when [illegible]

Mr. Garrett insists that the Republican Party has NOT departed from its high principles; nor has it become apostate, as Mr. France charged on the floor of the Senate on March 20, 1920.

VOTE FOR

John W. Garrett

And send to the Senate a true Republican, one who will adhere to the principles for which the Republican Party stands.

DR. J. M. CORKRAN DIES IN HOSPITAL

Dr. James M. Corkran, of Centreville, who for nearly thirty-five years was a leading physician in Queen Anne's county, died Friday morning at 3.50 o'clock at Maryland University Hospital, Baltimore, where he had been under treatment for cancer since Wednesday of last week.

Dr. Corkran was born near Hurlock, Maryland, on August 14, 1860, and was a son of Thomas Corkran and Hester Wright Corkran, of Dorchester county.

Dr. Corkran in politics was a Republican.

On June 11, 1890, he was married to Miss Laura S. Emory, daughter of the late Addison Emory, of Centreville, and she survives him, with one daughter, Mrs. C. Marshall Gravitt, of Ashville, N. C. He also leaves one grandson, C. Marshall Gravitt, Jr., and the following brothers and sisters: Rev. L. P. Corkran, Chestertown; Rev. Wilbur F. Corkran, Crisfield; Rev. David H. Corkran, of Fort Edward, N. Y.; Thomas Bond Corkran, Chester, Pa.; Milton C. Corkran, St. Louis, Mo.; Charles W. Corkran, Novelty, Mo.; Mrs. Mary E. Noble, Preston, Md.; and Mrs. Arthur Hitch, Seaford, Del.

KU KLUX KLANSMEN NEAR CENTREVILLE

Citizens of the Invinsible Empire, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Queen Anne's county Domain, held their first public ceremonial in a field on Bloomfield Farm, near Centreville, Thursday night. It is estimated that in the neighborhood of 700 white-robed klansmen marched about the "fiery cross" when more than 100 "aliens" were admitted to citizenship in the Invinsible Empire. And along the state road scores of cars were parked, filled with spectators who watched the weired ceremony from a distance.

Shortly after 9 o'clock Thursday evening, automobiles coming into Centreville brought the news that Klansmen were gathering. Out over the big north field of the Bloomfield farm lights flickering mysteriously and white-robed figures guarded every approach. At frequent intervals a motor-car with occupants, who could furnish the official passwords would whirl into the widening circle of cars within the grounds, until nearly 150 motors were parked about the ceremonial grounds.

On all four sides of the field hooded and gowned klansmen paroled every possible means of approach, and then at 10 o'clock a gigantic cross, which had been obscured by the darkness, flamed into view. For more than an hour this "fiery cross" cast a flickering light over the circle of knights who marched through ceremonials, the significance of which was not disclosed to spectators.

There was no semblence of disorder. The spectators were frankly curious and interested, and the klansmen went about their business quietly and with machine-like precision. Before midnight the white-robed figures had left as quietly and mysteriously as they had gathered.

SANDY BOTTOM DEPARTMENT STORE

The M. Megary & Son Co.

It's the Furniture that makes It HOME!

And if it's good furniture, well made and well designed how it adds to not only the appearance but the real enjoyment we get from our home!

There's a lot of difference in furniture, however.

There's good honest furniture made right and built with service and dependability in it, the kind you'll buy here, moderately and modestly priced.

And there's other furniture that's made solely and simply to sell, masquerading as good furniture and at the price of good furniture.

The purchase of this kind of furniture means disappointment and dissatisfaction.

And that means that the influence that good furniture has on your home and yourself—that feeling of having a comfortable, well-furnished home that you can enjoy and invite your friends to, with pride will be lacking.

We sell here only GOOD furniture.

But we sell more than the furniture.

The salesman who waits on you has been instilled with the Megary ideals. It is a matter of pride and conscience with him to sell you furniture that he is sure of, that he would put in his own home, and furniture that he sends to your home with confidence.

We're having our August Sale now.

There's no bombast or loud hurrahing as to our stock or our prices nor are there any exaggerated statements regarding them.

We have seventy thousand square feet of floor space—and this holds the biggest and most varied stock of good home furnishings in Wilmington.

The prices are lower, much lower than usual this month.

And you can easily prove these statements by looking and comparing.

It is simply the regular Megary August Sale which, however, is different from most others.

And our friends whom we have served for more than fifty years (what homes we've furnished in that time!) are taking advantage of it.

It's the MEGARY August Sale.

And that tells the whole story.
