GOSPEL ACCORDING TO YOU

You are writing a Gospel,
A chapter each day.
By deeds that you do,
By words that you say.
Men read what you write,
Whether faithful or true.
What is the Gospel
According to you?

The Baltimore American comes out opposed to Senator France for re-election. Why not make Mr. Bruce's election unanimous.

Col. Amos W. W. Woodcock, of Salisbury, was on Monday appointed United States District Attorney for Maryland. The appointment was confirmed by the Senate on Wednesday. Colonel Woodcock is at present an Assistant Attorney-General of the State.

The 85,000 employees of the Ford Motor Company have been notified that violation of the Prohibition law by them will cost them their positions with the Company.

In discussing his order against drinking, Mr. Ford said "The 18th Amendment to the Constitution is a part of the fundamental law of this country. It was meant to be enforced. Politics has interferred in the enforcement of this law, but so far as our organization is concerned it is going to be enforced to the letter.

Have the commissioners made their survey of Chestertown? If not, why not?

Have the health rules been enforced by Dr. Franklin, the representative of the State Board? If not, why not?

The prevalence of dirt expresses the morale of the community. There is no encouragement for a man to keep his place looking nicely, if the street ni front is littered with waste paper. Ditches stopped up with debris, etc.

The expense of such cleaning is greatly increased, when people throw trash into the streets, as so many do. The people of Chestertown should try to keep the town clean. When you throw trash into the street, ask yourself the question, "Who is going to clean it up?" The garbage system is doing a great work but it is up to the people to co-operate in other respects. Let's make our town the cleanest and healthiest town in Maryland. This is something worth while. Its up to you, reader.

TO PARENTS AND ADULTS

Only a short time ago Rally Day was regarded as a time to get the children started into the Sunday School after the dissipations of the summer were over. It still means that, but because of the enlarged interest in Sunday School work, and the increased and growing interest in Bible study, it appeals to us with a larger and decidedly more important meaning.

This enlarged interest in Bible study reaches out after the adult in the community, as well as the children. Because of this, Rally Day should have a keen interest for the grown folks. The call for a diligent and united study of the Bible by men and women is one of the most important appeals that can be made to them. We all want to see our children with strong and useful characters. Nothing will contribute to this more than to become acquainted with the teachings of the Bible. It is well-known that a certain age in the life of the boy or girl leads him to feel that he is too big to go to the Sunday School. To fortify himself he uses the older folks as examples. How much better it would be if that example were such as to encourage and inspire our young people to attend the Sunday School!

It is not very inspiring to the boy to be sent to Sunday School when father enjoys himself with the Sunday newspaper or some other amusement. But it helps more than we can measure when the father takes the boy with him to the Sunday School. We have constant need to remember that the character of our child is more largely formed by our example than by any other one thing.

Another reason why the adult should attend the Sunday School is that the teachings of the Bible are the most important things he can learn. The examples given us in the Bible both instruct and warn us. The principles taught in the Bible are not simply religious, but a knowledge of them is necessary to our success in any department of life, whether social, business or political.

Then as we approach Rally Day let us determine that every Sunday will find us in the Sunday School as an example to the young and a means of instruction to ourselves. In doing this we will help the rising generation to a larger usefulness, as well as make ourselves stronger and happier.

The reading public are warned against buying every book that is recommended by man or woman with a ready speech. A good plan for parents is to ask your pastor before buying. A bad book might ruin your child's life for this world and the world to come. Beware of wolves in sheeps clothing may be applied to books as well as to persons.

REPUBLICANS NAME CHARLES J. BUTLER

The Republican State Central Committee of nine counties of the Eastern Shore, comprising the First Congressional district of Maryland, met at Hotel Norris, Easton, Tuesday to nominate a candidate for Congress in opposition to the Democratic nominee T. Alan Goldsborough. Lawrence A. Powers, of Denton, presided over the meeting, with Arthur F. Grace, of Easton, secretary. The meeting was harmonious on every point and unanimously nominated State's Attorney Charles J. Butler, of Easton. His term does not expire until January, 1924, and he says he will not resign until his election which he confidently expects.

Mr. Butler is about 44 years of age, is a native of Caroline county and moved to Talbot county about 32 years ago. He was graduated from Easton High School and read law with Col. James C. Mullikin, of Easton. He subsequently attended the University of Maryland Law School, from which he was graduated. He declares he is opposed to the Volstead act and will vote to repeal it.

John N. Bennett and Robert R. Hill attended the meeting.

WEDDING NOTES

A pretty wedding was solemnized on Wednesday evening, September 20, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norman B. Nelson, Chester, Pa., when Miss Bessie L. Nelson, formerly of Chestertown, became the bride of Nathan H. Berry, of Chester, Pa. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Wm. Holden Pickap, of Germantown, Pa., with Miss Nellie Nelson, sister of the bride as bridesmaid, and Wm. Berry, brother of the groom, as best man. The happy couple spent their honeymoon in Chestertown as the guests of Mrs. Thos. Holdson, grandmother of the bride.

The wedding of Miss Mabel D., the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. V. Hatcherson, to William B. Taylor, Jr., of Wilmington, Del., is announced to take place Saturday, October 14th, 1922, in Wilmington.

Wedding At Middletown.

Miss Lydia Flintham Redgrave, who resides near Middletown, and Harlan Milford Fisher, of Wilmington, were married in St. Anne's Church Saturday afternoon. Rev. Percy L. Donaghay officiated, and Rev. Charles Clash, of Wilmington, assisted. Miss Margaret Pleasanton played the wedding march. Norman White, of Wilmington, sang "O Promise Me." The bride was given in marriage by her father, John W. Redgrave. Miss Pauline Frazier, of Wilmington, was maid of honor. Bartlett Fisher, of Wilmington, was best man, and Maurice Fisher and Leland Money were ushers.

The bride's gown was white georgette, trimmed with filet lace, the tulle veil caught with orange blossoms. Her bouquet was a shower of bride roses and lillies of the valley.

The maid of honor wore a gown of cocoa color canton crepe, with slippers to match, and wore panne velvet hat, and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Three hundred guests attended a reception at Wheatland farm, the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Fisher will spend their honeymoon in Boston. On their return they will reside at No. 1800 West street, Wilmington.
