LOCAL NOTES

The Bacchus home on High street is being improved with a coat of paint given by M. E. Baker and Geo. Burke.

The Bolin farm in Morgnec was offered at public sale Tuesday and purchased by Wm. S. Collins, the mortgagee.

Wilmer Stoops, of Chestertown, was arrested in Centreville Sunday afternoon by Constable John P. Williamson, and charged with driving an automobile with no license tags, etc. He was given a hearing before Magistrate Robert Coursey and fined $120 and costs. He took an appeal to Court.

Beginning Tuesday, October 3rd, the Chestertown Public Library will be open from two until five o'clock every Tuesday and Saturday afternoon, and from 6.30 to 8 o'clock on Saturday evening.

All grangers are urged to be ready with a largenumber of members to take the Fifth Degree. When it is given to Kent county members by the Fifth Degree team of the Pomona Grange. Notice will be given of the time it will be given. Let us begin to take in new members.

One of the colored men in jail was given a hearing last week on a charge of misbehavior at Davis' Hill He was misbehavior at Davis' Hill. He was asked by a fellow prisoner if he was going to take an appeal to Court. Said, he; "No, sir. My brother was sentenced by a justice to six months in Cut. He took an appeal and the Judge gave him two years. No siree, not me! I don't 'peal nothin. I even eats an apple without pealing it!"

While en-route from Salisbury to Galena, Kent County, Sunday night about 11 o'clock, Raymond Eicholtz, of the State Motor Cycle Police Force, narrowly escaped death when his motor cycle skidded on the road near Ingleside, and threw him several feet causing serious cuts and bruises. He was removed to the office of Dr. Norman S. Dudley, in Church Hill, who found that he was suffering with hemorrage of the nose, a badly lacerated face, and a cut in his knee that required four stitches. He remained at Dr. Dudley's in Church Hill until Tuesday morning when he was removed to his home in Salisbury.

The delegates to Portland Convention are expected home next Thursday.

Dogs invaded Mrs. J. W. Solloway's turkeys Monday and killed nine and on Tuesday returned and killed two more. One of the number was a Big Tom which cost over $10 last year.

Next Tuesday is the first day of Registration. If you need a transfer get it Tuesday. Don't put off this important matter.

Negroes own and direct 113 newspapers and 14 magazines in the U. S. Nearly 1,300 employes, of whom 61 are white workers, manage the publications. The papers include 96 secular, 23 religious and 8 fraternal papers.

In making a sharp turn near Urieville mill, on the State road Sunday morning one of the big trucks belonging to the State Road Commission ran into a deep ditch and was badly damaged. It required the greater part of the day to pull the truck out.

The coal situation in Chestertown is improved. Local dealers are receiving hard and soft coal The electric plant has a month's supply of soft coal. The gas plant has a carload of coke while the schools and churches have been promised enough fuel to keep them open.

"The Old Nest," the Rupert Hughes photoplay produced by Goldwyn, in which the camera has caught the very souls of an average American family and transferred them to the screen without a single false note is coming to the Lyceum, Friday and Saturday of next week. A photoplay that is making screen history and will live as long as there are human hearts.

Developments indicate that within the next two months Queenstown will be established as the second terminus of the Eastern Shore Ferry Line, Inc., and that ferry boats will be operated between Queenstown and Bay Shore, and Rock Hall and Bay Shore. It is expected that plans will be perfected as soon as officials of the Eastern Shore Ferry Line, Inc., and the Peninsula Ferry Company can reach an agreement, whereby the operators of the Bay Shore-Rock Hall line may take over the franchise of the route between Queenstown and Baltimore.

A. Cohen's store will be closed next Monday and Tuesday until noon. Watch out for his new adv. next week.

An automobile club of Philadelphia, as the guests of C. A. Goodwin, partook of a sumptuous banquet at the Voshell House Saturday night.

On account of various causes the Chestertown band did not give their concert in the park last night, but hope to do so next Friday night.

A terrific explosion of old powder at Aberdeen was plainly felt in Chestertown. A large plate glass window in Bringman's store was broken, also several in court house. The News Building and other large houses were severely shaken.

The Star car, sold by J. E. Spiecher, Jr., created considerable interest on Thursday among autoists. It sells for same price as Fords. Its certainly hard to excel Henry, eh, Curtis?

The stacks of wheat on Percy V. Hendrickson's farm across the river from Chestertown were burned Sunday. The loss was partially covered by insurance of $1100 with J. G. Beck's agency.

Morris Clothier's fine stables near Philadelphia were burned Tuesday. The loss amounted to $10,000. His splendid show horses were saved after a hard struggle.

The Chautauqua Guarantors met at the Kent County Savings Bank Thursday evening. There were 33 of the 114 present. Resolutions of thanks to all concerned for the success of the 1922 Chautauqua were passed and the following officers for 1923 elected: Chairman, Allan A. Harris; vice-chairman, W. Irving Walker; secretary, M. Wilbur Thomas; treasurer, Raymond Wilkins; chairman ticket selling committee, W. R. Huey; superintendent of juniors, Miss Cynthia Clendaniel.

Among contemplated removals in Chestertown are these: John H. Clendaniel and family will remove to the house on High street, next to W. S. Granberry's office; John H. Clendaniel, Jr., and family will tenant the Vickers residence on Water street and E. A. Culver will occupy the Reed house vacated by Mr. C. Dr. A. Sager Hall and wife will remove to the Stuart house next to Mrs. C. L. Jarrell and Mrs. Fitch with her interesting family will go to the Philadelphia to live.

C. Bernard Shortall, a popular young farmer of near Wye Mills, has purchased the interest of J. Wilbur Walls in the firm of Walls Brothers, dealers in general merchandise at Church Hill, and is now associated in business with Thomas E. Walls, of the old firm. The new business will be conducted under the firm name of Walls & Shortall. Mr. Shortall recently disposed of his farm property to Samuel Erskine, formerly of near Church Hill.

Personal Tidings

Thomas Hoyle, of Fairlee, broke his right arm Saturday while cranking his car.

Mrs. Alfred I. Dugan, fo Baltimore, visited friends here over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. A. Thompson were the recipients of a shower of postals Tuesday in recognition or their 50th wedding anniversary. May they live to enjoy many more such occasions.

Wm. Wingate, civil engineer of the Pennsylvania Railroad, visited Chestertown this week. Mrs. W. formerly lived in the Bacchus house on High street and found many decided improvements here since his last visit. He reports his sisters as well and living in Philadelphia.

Mrs. H. E. Perkins is home from an extended stay in New York very much improved in health.

Arthur Brown, of near Elkton, is visiting his son near town.

Wm. R. Maul and bride have returned from their honeymoon after a six weeks visit to various places in New Jersey and New York.

Stephen R. Collins has sold his real estate Strout Agency business in Chestertown to Wm. G. Smyth. Mr. Collins will enter the University Law School in Baltimore.

Mrs. Mary M. Rawleigh, who resides with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rawleigh, fell down stairs and badly injured herself about the face by the fall.

Dr. Frank B. Hines has been selected by Frank Jarman Post, American Legion, to attend the National Convention of the American Legion at New Orleans, La., October 13-20. William Goss was selected as alternate.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Anderson have removed from the Kent House to an apartment in the Parks home in Queen Anne's.

Robert Blackway celebrated his 66th birthday by giving a big dinner at his home on Cannon street. Mr. and Mrs. Coleman, bride and groom, and several other guests were present. All enjoyed a good dinner and had a good time. Flowers were numerous.

John Frank Usilton, of Parsons' Island, is visiting friends in Kent. He says he had a fine crop of peaches and sold nearly all on the Island for $1 and $1.25 per basket. Apples by the ton are on the ground and trees. Mr. U. says he never saw so many crabs. His children catch soft and hard crabs by the basket full. He says his chickens and 75 hogs have been feasting on soft crabs while rock and tailor are so abundant that they also are relished by the swine.

John F. Mitten and wife of Westminster, spent the week with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Loane, near Rock Hall. Mr. Mitten is editor of the Times, of Westminster, and one of the oldest newspaper men in Maryland. He was a welcome caller at the News office on Tuesday. Mr. Mitten is enthusiastic over Western Maryland College and its fine body of 500 students. He says their conduct on all occasions is splendid.

Milbourn Jones, Pryor Armstrong, Marvel Seney and French Skirven left Monday for University of Maryland at College Park, where they will study for the coming year.

Herbert Strong last week visited friends in Wilmington.

Miss Grace Bennett has accepted a position as book-keeper for Turner & Sons at Betterton.

Robert Pippin is home after spending the summer traveling in Maryland and Delaware selling books.

Mrs. Walter T. Bramble led the song service at the Chestertown M. E. Church last Sunday evening.

Mrs. James Kirby and son, Vernon, were week-end guests of relatives in Baltimore.

Mrs. Jessie Blakeney is visiting relatives in Chester.

Mrs. John Matthews spent last week the guest of her son in Baltimore.

Mrs. Eli Elliott was the guest of Baltimore relatives last week.

Harry Lindsay, of Media, Pa., was week-end guest of friends in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Craig, Philadelphia, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Davis.

Walter Bast and four sons, and Mr. John Berger, of Schuylkill Haven Pa., were guests several days last week of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Brown.

Harry W. Brice and family, of Philadelphia, are visiting in town.

Burger Schrieber is able to be out again after a weeks sickness of fever.

Mrs. W. W. Price, of Baltimore county, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Bringman.

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Chapman, Jr., and children, of Baltimore, were week-end guests of Mrs. Samuel Vannort.

Miss Olive Jackson, of Wilmington, was the guest of Mrs. Earle Barnes the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. R. Coleman, of Baltimore, have been the guests of the latter's son, Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Newcomb the past week.

Ella Mae Cannon, age 12 years, daughter of Patrolman Edward Mae Cannon, of 707 N. Payson street, Baltimore, fell and broke her arm.

Mrs. Thomas H. Tucker is visiting her sister, Mrs. C. H. Meredith, of Philadelphia.

Miss Cynthia Clendaniel will conduct a private kindergarten in Chestertown, opening the same in the near future.

While playing football at the college on Monday afternoon, Emerson Russell fell and broke a bone in his left hand.

Henry Gray, one of Galena's best known citizens, was suddenly taken ill on Sunday afternoon. Mr. Chrisfield, who was alone with him at the time managed to get him in the house and summoned Dr. Jones. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer S. Jarman, who were spending the day with relatives in Delaware were summoned home as soon as possible as were also the other children of the family. Report has it today that Mr. Gray's condition is slightly improved.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Meredith and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Skerrett, of Philadelphia, motored down and spent the week-end with the former's sister, Mrs. Thomas H. Tucker.

J. Frank Davis, a former Chestertown boy, has been nominated as a candidate for State Senator by the Democrats of Wilmington, Del. As a young man Mr. Davis was employed for several years in the News office. He removed to Wilmington about 20 years ago and has "made good." He is morally clean, intelligent and trustworthy in every respect.

Darcey Flowers, the star short stop of the Washington College baseball team, has signed for a tryout with Ben Egan's Jersey City team of the International League. He played his first game against Baltimore Friday and convinced Manager Egan that he "has the goods." Flowers is one of the fastest men and one of the hardest hitters turned out by the college in recent years.

Joseph N. Wheatley, of Chestertown, who officiated so well at several of the Washington College football games last year, has been recognized by the Central Board and placed on their reserve list. He will probably officiate in the home games for the college this year.

Frank Baker, of the New York Yankees, was in town on Monday.

Dick Mason, well-known in local athletic circles, is playing a halfback position on the Charlotte Hall team which will be Washington's opponent on Saturday.

ANNUAL AUTO TRIP

Of The Eastern Shore Society Of Baltimore City.

The annual automobile trip of the Eastern Shore Society of Baltimore City started Friday, September 29th, and will continue until Sunday evening, October 1st. The parties left Mount Royal and North Avenues, Baltimore, at 7 a. m. yesterday and came to Chestertown by way of Conawingo bridge, where they had dinner at 1.30 p. m. They went through Centreville about 4 o'clock and reached Easton about 5 p. m., where they were guests for supper at the Rotary Club. Saturday they will take dinner at Easton, and will have supper at Cambridge, and after supper will be entertained by the Chamber of Commerce. Sunday they will motor to Denton, where they will have dinner, and will then return by way of Rock Hall, reaching Baltimore at 6 p. m.

See Mae Murray in the "Gilded Lily" at the Lyceum.

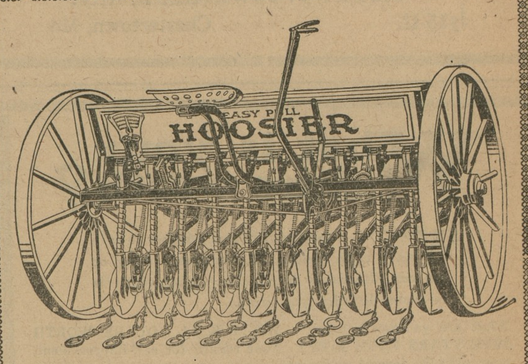
"The Isle of Trouble," a musical comedy, with Mrs. Lee Costin Price, nee Miss Lourene Smith, of Chestertown, in the leading role, as Princess Zara, was staged by local talent at the Centreville Opera House Thursday night for the benefit of the Queen Anne's County Health Nurse Association.

Children Cry
FOR FLETCHER'S
CASTORIA

Mrs. Carrie Wooley Dead.

Mrs. Carrie Clements Wooley, widow of the late Col. A. S. Wooley, and stepmother of Judge Victor B. Wooley, of Wilmington, died at her home on Tuesday following an illness of several months. She was a native of Ingleside, Queen Anne's county, Md., and was a daughter of the late Rev. Joel and Margaret Ann Clements. She was married to Col. A. S. Wooley, founder of the Wooley Fertilizer Co. of Seaford, Del., where she was then residing. Mrs. Wooley spent the summer in Seaford, and the winter in Florida, where her husband owned large orange groves. She is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Charles M. Chase, Miss P. E. Clements and Mrs. M. I. Hopkins, all of Wilmington.

KENT NEWS $1.50 PER YEAR



WE are ready at this time with a full line of Seasonable Merchandise for the Fall season. If in need of anything in our lines come in and get our prices and see our machines before buying We carry standard lines and don't forget the equally important thing, we have the repairs.

ENGINES
GRAIN DRILLS
ENSILAGE CUTTERS
CORN SHELLERS
DISC HARROWS
PLOWS
CULTI-PACKERS
MANURE SPREADERS

Several used Spreaders and Drills for sale cheap.

JONES & SATTERFIELD

PHONE 51. CHESTERTOWN, MD.

BORDLEY & SON
THE MEN'S STORE

The Big Three
In Our FALL HATS

It is more important that you know all about your hatter than that you know anything about Hats. You cannot buy any Fall Hat here that hasn't (1) Elegance in Style, (2) Ease in Fit, (3) Endurance in wear.

Soft Hats	$3.00 to $5.00
Cloth Hats	$1.50
Caps	$1.00 to $2.00

BORDLEY & SON
THE MEN'S STORE
Chestertown, - - - Maryland

ADLER-ROCHESTER-CLOTHES

ATLAS
PORTLAND CEMENT

SIDEWALKS or highways, on foot or in a car, the path requirements are identical—open in all weathers, good traction, permanence.

One material, by satisfying these essentials, has come into universal use—concrete.

One cement in the last quarter century has come to be called "the Standard by which all other makes are measured"—Atlas Portland Cement.

Ask your building material dealer for help and advice, on that walk around your home, or the roadway round your plant. He knows what is best and will tell you.

The Atlas Portland Cement Co.
Sales Offices: New York—Boston—Phila.
Mills:—Northampton, Pa.
Hudson, N. Y.—Leeds, Ala.

"The Standard by which all other Makes are measured"

G. E. NOLAND
Chestertown, - - Maryland

Headquarters for Paint

WE never have to worry about a painting job if Certain-teed paint is used. The quality is in the paint, and it shows up every time. It has so much good material in it that it spreads better than most any paint you can buy. And how it does last.

Certain-teed paint is made by the makers of Certain-teed Roofing. That is guarantee enough for anybody. It is made on a cost plus basis, which explains our low prices.

See us before painting—it will pay you.

Our Certain-teed Prices

House Paint	Per Gal.
Outside White (No. 448)	$3.40
Bungalow Brown (No. 435)	2.90

No.		Per Pint	Per Quart	Per Gal.
900	Universal Varnish	$0.75	$1.20	$3.60
33	Dark Oak Varnish Stain	.50	.80
13	Ivory Interior Enamel		1.20
461	Barn, Bridge and Roof Paint			1.70

Certain-teed
PAINT · VARNISH · ROOFING · LINOLEUM · OIL CLOTH & RELATED PRODUCTS

©Maryland State Archives, msa_sc6000_19_1-0773