This Bank Pays 4 Per Cent. Interest On All Savings Deposits

If you deposit it on the 12th day of the month you get 18 days interest if you draw it out on the 30th day of the same month. If you deposit your Savings Account on the 18th day of the month it draws interest from the 18th of the same month and does not lie idle for 12 days and then for another calendar month before interest begins. Nor does it have to remain four calendar months in bank before interest is allowed.

Your interest is accumulating all the time, and is compounded semi-annually, while your money lies in the bank. On the first days of June and December, we pay you interest and add it to your account or you draw it in cash. You thus get compounded interest semi-annually on your Savings Deposits.

WE ENCOURAGE SAVING SMALL AMOUNTS. If you deposit $1 it draws interest. It is not too difficult for us to calculate interest on small sums. WHEN INTEREST AMOUNTS TO ONE CENT YOU GET IT. Does any other bank offer you these inducements?

C. E. Convention At Wesley.

Kent County Christion Endeavor Union held its annual convention at Wesley Chapel Tuesday, October 24, with delegates present from the various societies in the county. Carroll Wright, Field Secretary for Maryland and Delaware, was the afternoon speaker, while Frank Mitchell, of the Wilmington Y. M. C. A. thrilled the large congregation at night. Each society had a special musical number. Miss Mattie German, of Hebron, Md., and Mr. Mitchell rendered several pleasing solos. The ladies of Wesley served an oyster and poultry supper to the delegates. The following officers were elected for next year: President, Owen C. Smith; vice president, Ralph Usilton; secretary and treasurer, John Wooden; superintendent of Jr. work, Mrs. R N. Huey.

CLIFTON SPRY IN TROUBLE

Clifton Spry, a former well-known citizen of upper Kent, was arrested in Delaware on Thursday by Federal prohibition agents. He, with another man, a still, an automobile, and a large quantity of supposed intoxicating liquors were seized, and about 400 gallons of mash were destroyed. The dry agents, with lightning like rapidity, raided two suspect moonshiners in Wilmington and lower New Castle county and took Clifton Spry and Stanley Lewandrouski to police headquarters at Wilmington and being unable to furnish bail they were locked up for a hearing on Nov. 9th.

The first raid was made in Blackbird Forest, located between Townsend and Blackbird, on a moonshine plant, believed, by the Federal officers, to be operated by Spry. Closing in on the place about 4 o'clock Thursday morning, the agents say they found the still, a twenty-gallon affair, operating in full blast. Spry, who is charged with manufacturing intoxicating liquor, was taken by surprise, the agents declare, and placed under arrest.

Although he made no opposition, the extent of his plans evidently made to protect the moonshine plant is indicated by the revolvers and rifles, together with a generous supply of ammunition, which the officers say they found secreted at points of vantage about the plant.

Spry, who lives at West street address, Wilmington, the officers say, follows the business of a huckster by day.

IT'S WORTH SEEING

Chestertown Merchants Show Their Skill In Decorating Windows For Hallowe'en— Bargains Everywhere Shoppers Cordially Invited.

Decorative art as exemplified in Chestertown's store windows show that we have business houses that are successfully competing in their window decorations and adornments with the larger city stores that have experts for these stores.

A casual stroll down Main street will convince the observer that decorative art with the idea of utility paramount is not conspicuous by its absence in these shops. The first principles of crafty interior displays are much in vogue.

The whole scheme of this particular kind of advertising is soundly based on the assumption that people like to look at things beautiful, which if found serviceable, are very apt to be purchased. Guided by this modern parable, the merchant undertakes then to display to advantage that which he has to offer for sale.

The young maiden seeking the witch for her fortune is shown by Mr. Jefferson. Then at A. L. Sparks' comes the things that richly endow my lady's person, silks and satins. Bordley & Son have the Hallowe'en picture to perfection even to the real ghost and smoking pot. A. S. Turner's window is filled with the "Harvest" from Addington's Goose Hill farm. Bartley's windows have the practical things for home. J. S. Kreeger's silver display is up to the minute while Rote's windows show the handiwork of some skillful artist. Sterling, Toulson and Stam present a varied assortment of dressing sure to cure all ills. The butcher shops, W. P. Newnam, Candy Kitchen, Vansant & Newsome, Gill's Ice Cream Parlor, Sachs' Shoe Store, Bonnett & Dahne, E. D. Jones', Schreiber's, A. Robinson, all up-town stores each showed the decorative spirit. Even the postoffice force got busy and presented beauty. Noland-Bennett and Russell, and C. A. Goodwin were among those also in list while the hardware stores contented themselves with showing their wares in attractive form. Dr. Julian Power's little man furnished amusement for many while G. E. Noland's display attracted considerable attention. Ever store with but few exceptions entered into the occasion and the News extends its congratulations.

Come in and look at the sights. Prizes will be awarded next week.
