A FRIEND IN NEED A FRIEND INDEED

Writes Mrs. Hardee Regarding Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Los Angeles, Calif.—"I must tell you that I am a true friend to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I have taken it off and on for twenty years and it has helped me change from a delicate girl to a stout, healthy woman. When I was married I was sick all the time until I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I was in bed much of my time with pains and had to have the doctor every month. One day I found a little book in my yard in Guthrie, Oklahoma, and I read it through and got the medicine—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—and took eight bottles and used the Sanative Wash. I at once began to get stronger. I have got many women to take it just by telling them what it has done for me. I have a young sister whom it has helped in the same way it helped me. I want you to know that I am a 'friend indeed,' for you were a 'friend in need.'" —Mrs. GEORGE HARDEE, 1043 Byram St., Los Angeles, California.

Let Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound be a "friend indeed" to you.

An Old Maryland Bridge.
HARRY PRINGLE FORD.

[Years ago, when the writer was a student at Washington College, the wooden bridge over the Chester river, connecting the counties of Kent and Queen Anne's at Chestertown, was a favorite meeting place and promenade with the young people of the town and college.]

O Chester bridge! O river fair!
Our hearts grow faint with longing
For joys long fled, for friends long dead,
What thoughts of them come thronging!

O happy days! O starry nights!
The fairest city highway,
However rare, could not compare
With the old bridge byway.

O day of youth! O vanished years!
When life knew naught of sadness;
When faith and love, born from above,
Thrilled our young lives with gladness.

O ancient bridge! O mystic scene!
With girls than Elaine rarer,
We dared to dream King Arthur's dreams
To make our own lives fairer.

O tides that ebb! Oh tides that flow!
O peerless, restless river!
Our lone hearts yearn for the return
Of old days gone forever!

* * * * * *

Still loit'ring love the old bridge seeks;
Still seaward flows the river,
Beyond time's tide old friends abide,
At home, with God, forever!

FORD PRICE REDUCTION

According to a statement just issued by Edsel B. Ford, President of the Ford Motor Company, a general reduction of $50.00 a car has been made in the prices of Ford Model T Cars and the Ford One Ton Truck.

"The revision in prices," said Mr. Ford, "is the result of the increased volume of business which our Company has enjoyed during the present year, and also, to the fact that we now own and operate many of our own sources of raw material, which enables us to continue increasing the quality of our product and at the same time keep the price so low that Ford cars are in reach of everybody.

"Our production for 1922 is already in excess of a million, which has been an important factor in bringing down costs. Our present daily output is averaging better than 5,000 cars and trucks, which means a complete Ford Car or Truck every 5½ seconds of each eight-hour working day. It is in anticipation of this continued demand that price adjustments are again being made in order to keep in effect the policy of selling Ford products at the lowest price consistent with quality.

"Quality as usual," said Mr. Ford "will continue to be a prime consideration in the building of Ford cars. As our business has increased we have constantly increased our equipment and manufacturing facilities, so that this price reduction merely reflects the progressive methods which come as a result of increased volume.

"This reduction, which is the sixth since March 1920, brings the price of the Ford Touring car down from $575 the price in effect early in 1920, to the present extremely low level of $298.00 which is nearly 50 per cent. Corresponding reductions have been made on all other types. The new prices by types follow: Touring $298, Runabout $269, Chassis $235, Coupe $530, Sedan $595, Truck $380 f. o. b., Detroit.

EASTON EMERGENCY HOSPITAL

The News gladly publlish this letter from J. Ramsey Speer:

Emergency Hospital is in the same condition as all other institutions of its character, with increased costs of all kinds it is unable to provide for its proper maintenance. The time has come when outside support must be enlisted, not only to pay about $5,000 for present indebtedness, but to provide this same amount per annum for a period of years. I have been asked to take charge of the work of raising the money.

The records show the care of other than private patients from the several counties as follows:

Year 1916—Talbot, 64 or 57.1 per cent; Caroline, 24 or 21.4 per cent; Queen Anne's, 19 or 17.0 per cent.

Year 1921—Talbot 230 or 54.4 per cent; Caroline, 82 or 19.4 per cent; Queen Anne's, 83 or 19.6 per cent; Kent, 28 or 6.6 per cent.

Increase in number of patients—Talbot, 260 per cent; Caroline, 242 per cent; Queen Anne's, 340 per cent; Kent, 460 per cent.

These figures so clearly indicate that Caroline, Queen Anne's and Kent counties should help raise the money at least in proportion to the services rendered their citizens. I have written letters to some of your prominent citizens who are familiar with the work of the Hospital and also the doctors of your county, asking for their suggestions and co-operation in planning our campaign. I am sure they will help.

The whole problem is one of supporting by medium sized subscriptions, an institution which stands for the best influence at work in any section of our country.
