Mr.and Mrs. Nathaniel Ashley, and Roland Bedwell, of Chesapeake City, were married Wednesday evening, November 1st, by the Rev. Frank L. Hicks at his home near Rock Hall. Mr. Bedwell is an engineer on the Ericsson Line of steamers plying between Baltimore and Philadelphia. The happy couple will reside with the bride's parents until spring when they will move to Philadelphia.

Harry Brice, of Philadelphia, is visiting relatives in Kent.

Miss Anne Van Sant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence R. Van Sant, of Galena, and Terry Mitchell, son of Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Chiles Mitchell, were married at noon Saturday in the M. E. Church at Galena. The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. S. Sterling. Miss Mary Hyland, a cousin of the bride, played the wedding music.

Mr. Van Sant gave his daughter in marriage. Miss Helen Van Sant, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Miss Mary Mitchell, of Richmond, Va., sister of the groom, and Miss Katherine Stevens, of Seaford, Del., room mate of the bride at the Woman's College. Broadus Mitchell, brother of the groom, was best man. Mr. Mitchell is professor of economics at Johns Hopkins University. The ushers were George Mitchell, of Richmond, Va., and George Clifford, of Evansville, Indiana.

The bride wore a dress of white satin and Chantilly lace and a veil trimmed with duchess lace and orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of roses and lillies of the valley. The maid of honor wore a dress of orchid chiffon and a large black hat and carried yellow chrysanthemums. The bridesmaids wore blue chiffon figured with pink and orchid roses and large black hats. They carried rose colored chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Van Sant, brother of the bride, wore a black Canton crepe afternoon dress. Mrs. Mitchell, mother of the groom, wore black georgette crepe.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was held at the home of the bride's parents. About 200 guests were present at the wedding, from Wilmington, Newark, Richmond, Indiana, Georgia, Chestertown and Kent county. The members of the class of 1921 at the Woman's College, University of Delaware, classmates of the bride, served the guests. Mrs. Knowles R. Bowen poured the coffee.

After a wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell will be at home at 236 West Second street, Waynesboro, Pa.,where Mr. Mitchell is refrigeration engineer with the Frick Co. Both the bride and groom are graduates of the University of Delaware. Dr. Mitchell, the groom's father, was formerly of Delaware.
