THE KENT NEWS.

KENT NEWS.

CHESTER TOWN, Md.

SATURDAY MORNING, AUGUST 18, 1855.

JUDGE CONSTABLE.—It is stated that the death of Judge Constable is momentarily expected. He is surrounded by his family at Camden, N. J., under the care of Dr. Jackson, of Philadelphia. The most eminent medical skill can do nothing for his relief, and have announced to the family that there is not the shadow of a hope for his recovery.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE—We regret to learn that a fire broke out in the large sash factory of Wiley & Co., at Port Deposit, which building, with several others, and a large quantity of lumber upon the wharf, was entirely consumed. The total loss is estimated at $60.000, of which Messrs. Wiley & Co.'s loss is $20.000—on which there was an insurance of $5.-000 in one of the Baltimore offices.

☞ The crop of wheat, raised by Jno. Gale, Esq., upon two acres, and noticed by us some three weeks ago, was not so large as we stated. This was caused from the fact, that the wheat had been only once through the fan and the lot had not been surveyed. Mr. G. has since run out the lot which contained 2⅛ acres, and 151¼ square yards—from which was reaped and sold (the wheat weighing 59 lbs. but counting 60 lbs. to the bushel) one hundred and one bushels and one peck—being 46 bushels, 2 pecks and 5 quarts, to the acre.

DEMOCRATIC STATE NOMINATION.—The Democratic State Convention mst in Baltimore on Thursday last, which succeeded in nominating Col. W. W. W, Bowie, of Prince Georges, for Comptroller of the Treasury, and George Gale, Esq., of this county, for Lottery Commissioner. A batch of resolutions was adopted denouncing the American party, and calling upon the Whigs to co-operate with them, in preserving "our free institutions" (Locofocoism, they mean) from relentless proscription and ruthless fanaticism" (!) "Oh! give us some drink, Titania!" These pitious cries to their old enemies, the Whigs, whom they have heretofore denounced in the most bitter terms, to aid them in this their time of need, forcibly remind us of a very pretty little song, commencing—

"Will you walk into my parlor?" said a spider to a fly.

THE YELLOW FEVER AT PORTSMOUTH, VA.—This dreadful pestilence is still raging at Portsmouth; the number of deaths being upwards of 80. A general panic has dispersed the bulk of the population; the naval rendezvous is removed, stores closed and business operations for the most part, suspended. Among the victims of the disease is the wife of Commodore Samuel Barron, U. S. N., while himself and two daughters are among the infected. The receiving ship "Pennsylvania," 120 guns, has slipped her mooring and dropped down to Hampton Roads.

AMERICAN NOMINATIONS.—The American party of Caroline county, made the following nominations on Tuesday the 10th inst:—For the State Senate, J. E. Rochester. For the House of Delegates, J. L. Parvis and Wm. A. Willis. For States' Attorney, Geo. M. Russum. For Sheriff, John F. Elliott. For Judges of the Orphans' Court, J. T. Sangston, Gofee Stevens, and Alcade Dawson.—For County Commissioners, James T. Clark, John Williams, and Job D. A. Robinson. For County Surveyor, Solomon Truitt. The ticket is composed of nearly an equal number of Whigs and Democrats—originally such.

☞ In compliance with the request of R. W. Ringgold, Esq., we have published the letter of D. M. Barringer to Vespasian Ellis, which has been going the rounds of the newspapers for some time. A letter, which, as far as we can see, is merely a personal matter between the gentlemen—but Mr. Ringgold makes it the subject of poesy and invective over the shoulders of Hon. Kenneth Rayner, of N. Carolina. Mr. Rayner, we are sure, would not thank us for a defence of this petty attack, and as he may be considered one of the "Goliah's" perhaps Mr. Ringgold would like to gird on his "shield" and "sword" for Mr. Rayner himself. Not that Mr. Ringgold attacks Mr. Rayner, oh no, but that Mr Rayner, "defies the advocates of civil and religious liberty" generally.

Mr. Barringer does not know, whether the Pope's Nuncio was aware that Mr. Campbell would be appointed or not.—But he infers "that being a cause of much interest and satisfaction to the church, especial pains had been taken to communicate the fact to the Catholic Priesthood." We would like to know if the advancement of a member of any other denomination, to a high political office in this country, would cause the same "interest" "satisfaction and especial pains" to that denomination in Europe.

Of course we can know nothing of the Nuncio's information, but think it not at all improbable from the circumstances and Mr. Barringer's inference itself, that he (the Nuncio) had such previous information,

Mr. Ringgold thanks us for our concession; truly this is an ingenious method of handling hot iron. But if in the exuberance of the gentleman's imagination, he, of a truth, supposes we have changed position, we respectfully submit—he lies in error.

The "seasoning" for our "dessert", it appears is postponed for a "jant." Wonder if the object of this "jant" is to consult the Sibylline Books, in the possession of one Beale H. Richardson, in this day of trial and tribulation, to the constitution of the country.

Washington College.

The annual commencement of Washington College, was held in the College Chapel on Tuesday the 14th inst., in the presence of the Board of Visitors and a large audience of ladies and gentlemen. After the opening of the exercises with prayer, by the Rev. Mr. Quigly, orations were delivered by the following students: G. R. Cather, Port Deposite; J. T. Lassell, W. E. Hart, Kent county, and M. Bannon, Ireland. The degree of Bachelor of Arts, was conferred upon the three last named. The degree of Master of Arts, was conferred on Wm. J. Wroth, Baltimore; Wm. J. Stone, Centreville; Samuel Fisher, Jas. M. Vickers, Wm. Armstrong, E. F. Perkins and John W. Hollyday, Kent county, Md., and Wm. H. Lassell, N. Carolina.

The conferring of degrees was succeeded by the declamation of appropriate selections by the younger students.

The exercises were highly creditable to the students, the Principal and the Faculty, who have the management of the institution; and affords abundant proof that this time honored Seminary, should command the patronage of the citizens of the State.

The Louisville Riots.

The Louisville Journal, of Monday, contains a number of certificates proving conclusively that the disgraceful riots which occurred in that city, on the day of the election, was commenced by foreigners. That they shed the first blood and the Americans had given no provocation whatever for their brutal assaults. We regret that we have not room for the remarks of the Journal, as well as the certificates. We make room however for the following:

William Sowders, being sworn, states: About five o'clock on Monday afternoon, August 6, I was sitting with three others on the curbing on Tenth street, in front of Graff & Weyd's, at the corner of Tenth and Main; there were three or four small boys, from ten to twelve years old, sitting upon the curb, about fifteen feet from us, on Tenth street. While sitting thus, three Irishmen came from the north side of Main between Tenth and Eleventh, and, passing us, went about half way between Main and Market, on Tenth, when they turned and came back; as the passed the boys, in coming back, one of the boys made some remark, and the Irishmen immediately drew out revolvers and commenced firing upon the crowd, while we were still quietly sitting on the curb. I sprang up and ran down Main street toward Eleventh. As I approached Chapel street shots were fired from several of the windows of the houses in Quinn's row, on the north side of Main street. I saw a man down on the pavement, whom I afterwards found out was Theodore Rhodes. I turned up Chapel street; as I came to the corner of Chapel and Market, I met two Irishmen, whom I believe to be two of those who had commenced firing at the corner of Tenth and Main; they had pistols in their hands; they ran into the coffee-house at the corner of Chapel and Market streets and fired twice as they went into the door. As I passed they slammed the door and commenced fastening up the house. I ran on until I met some Americans who had been summoned to the spot by the firing; they went toward the house at the corner of Chapel and Market; as they approached the coffee house, several shots were fired at them from the upper windows of the coffee-house. The Irishmen in the house screened themselves with the blinds of the windows, and fired from behind them until the blinds were dashed in by rocks thrown against them. The house was broken open and the two Irishmen were captured. I did not see the proceedings in the house.

WM. SOWDERS.

Sworn to and subscribed before me, this 8th day of August 1855.

L. A. WHITELY, Notary Public.

Michael O'Connell, on oath, says:—I reside on the corner of Chapel and Main streets, Louisville, and kept there a grocery store. On the 6th of August, inst., in the afternoon, Theodore Rhodes and David Dougherty came to my grocery; they were my acquaintainces and friends.—They informed me that there were drunken men going about this part of the city, and I had better close my grocery. I did so at once; as I closed the doors they left and went on the side walk; as they left my door some one fired from the opposite side of the street from the house of Mr. McDonald, a very clever man, and who I believe knew nothing of it. Rhodes fell when the shot was fired, and died soon after. Dougherty was also shot, but I did not see that. Dougherty and Rhodes were both quiet and perfectly sober. They neither did nor said anything to give offence to any one. They were peaceable and clever, well behaved gentlemen.—Rhodes had just shaken hands with my wife at the door before he was shot; about seventeen shots were fired from the same house in quick succession. The shots took effect in my house, and are now to be seen by any one; one of them struck me in the right leg. When these shots were fired I saw no disturbance and heard of none, and there was not the slightest cause for it, that I can imagine, and but for these shots I believe there would have been no difficulty nor disturbance; at any rate they were the beginning, and I am sure the cause of what afterwards occurred. I am an Irishman and a Catholic. MICHAEL O'CONNELL.

Subscribed and sworn to, before me August 8, 1855.

O. H. STATIAN, Notary Public.

I, Joanna O'Connell, wife of Michael O'Connell, on oath, say:—I have heard the above affidavit of my husband read, and know the same is true, and I adopt and make it part of this affidavit.

JOANNA O'CONNELL.

Subscribed and sworn to before me August 8, 1855.

O. H. STRATIAN, N. P.

State of Kentucky, Jefferson County, sct:

This day David Dougherty states on oath before the undersigned, a justice of the peace for said county, that, on the evening of Monday, Aug. 6th, 1855, about 4 or 5 o'clock, Theodore Rhodes and himself went to the house of their friend Mr. M. Connell, an Irish grocer, corner of Main and Chapel sts., in an office of courtesy; having rendered the friendly duty, we stepped out, intending to go home, but almost instantly Rhodes was shot down, mortally wounded, and myself shot in the shoulder, arm, and side, both of us by an Irishman armed with a double-barreled gun, from the opposite side of the street, in the passage way of J. McDonalds house Previous to this there was no mob, no crowd, no difficulty, and but few persons on the street. The shots were as unexpected as an earth quake—it was utterly unprovoked on our part either by word or gesture. There was up to that time nobody shooting or knocking down, up or down the street, so far as I could learn or see.

Whilst talking with Mr. O'Connell I was near the front door, and must have heard and seen any bustle or disturbance on the street in that immediate neighborhood.

DAVID DOUGHERTY.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 8th day of August, 1855.

SAM'L MATLACK, J. P., J. C.

Certificate of T. J. Griffiths, M. D.

I am attending physician on Mr. Dougherty; was present when the above affidavit was taken; ad confident that said Dougherty was in the full possession of his reason and judgment at the time the same was taken.

Arrival of the America.

FIVE DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

Sebastopol Still Holding Out—Extensive Preparations Making for the Last Great Struggle of the Besiegers—Re-Opening of the Bombardment.

HALIFAX, Aug. 15.—The Cunard steamer America arrived here this afternoon, with Liverpool dates to the 4th instant, five days later than the advices per steamer Lebanon.

The steamer North Star arrived out on the 2d inst.

THE WAR.

The latest news from the Crimea is to the 20th of July.

Every thing was prepared for the general action of the sea and laud forces against Sebastopol, which was to come off in 15 days.

The Russians had succeeded in establishing rifle pits in front of the French sappers.

Advices telegraphically from the Crimea to the 20th ult. announce continued preparations for the grand expedition of the allies against Sebastopol. All the vessels of the fleet had assembled at Kamiesch.

A report prevailed in Paris that the French government had received official notification of the bombardment of the Malakoff and Redan batteries, preparatory to the assault.

The Viceroy of Egypt has been negotiating with the Bedouins to serve in the Crimea.

ENGLAND.

The Queen sent a message to parliament asking additional provisions for the war, which resulted in the Chancellor of the Exchequer proposing to issue £7,000,-000 of exchequer bills.

Lord Palmerston, in reply to a question in Parliament touching British enl'stments in the United States, stated that in order to prevent all probability of a difficulty with the American government, the British government had stopped enlisting at Halifax.

Heavy rains had occurred in England, but the accounts from the crops are favorable.

FRANCE.

The offers for the new French loan amount to 3,600,000,000 francs.

SPAIN.

Rumors were in circulation that Spain would send a contingent to the Crimea, but it considered doubtful. It was also reported that, in consideration of this contingent, she would ask for a territorial guarantee, including Cuba.

ITALY.

Our Liverpool correspondent has private advices from Lombardy via Venice, indicating that important events are nearly ripe there, and exciting news may shortly be expected from that quarter.

INDIA.

The East India mail had arrived.

There was no improvement in the affairs of China.

The recently reported reverses of the insurgents had proved but of a temporary character.

The U. S. sloop of war Vandalia sailed from Manilla on June 2d.

MARKETS.

LIVERPOOL, August 3.—Cotton.—The market is a trifle lower. Prices have declined 1-16d a 1-8d, the market closing steady.

Breadstuffs.—The Breadstuffs market is generally unchanged. In some respect prices are easier but not quotably lower. White wheat 11s 9d a 12s; red 10s a 11s. Western Canal Flour 40s a 40s 6d; Ohio Flour 43s a 44s. White Corn 44s; mixed 38s a 38s 6d.

THE LATEST.

A telegraphic despatch from London, dated Saturday noon, says: "The siege of Sebastopol is about to be raised. Also, a communication has been received from Germany by the Western Powers of startling interest."

Accounts from Constantinople say that Schamyl descended mountains threatening a retrograde movement against the Russians,

From the Baltic there is nothing new. The allied squadrons occupied the same positions as formerly.

THE ADMINISTRATION MAKING A CATHOLIC TEST.—The administration of Franklin Pierce stands condemed by a Tennessee witness, of requiring an applicant for a petty mail agency, to PROMISE TO DEFEND THE CATHOLIC CHURCH. And yet, of of such is the party which is crying out against Americans upon the false charge that they are in favor of religious proscription. Read the following statement which has been published in three or four papers in East Tennessee.

"That in a discussion at London, between Messrs. Blackwell, Anderson and Lillard, candidates for Congress, a few weeks ago, Mr. Lillard stated that he visited Washington City in 1853, and made application for the appointment of Mail Agent on the East Tennessee and Georgia Railroad, and that the Post Office Department required of him, before it would give him the appointment, that he MUST promise to defend the Catholic Church!"

The Athens Post says in re-publishing this statement, with a correction we have inserted above:

"What Lieut Lillard has said on the subject, he stands ready to make good at any time. It will hardly be necessary, however, to recur to the subject again, as it has always been the practice of the Catholic party to question the veracity and try to blacken the character of all who refuse to yield a blind and slavish obedience to its behests, or presume to doubt the infallibility of its teachings.—Its assaults are harmless, as the Protestant public know precisely how much importance to attach to them."—Nashvill Whig.
