THE KENT NEWS.

as I never expect to be in Boston again, and as during the Revolution when in Boston, I worshipped sitting by the side of his Excellency, General Washington, and as I see that the church and the pews are the same, except as they are decorated with paint, I wish to occupy the same seat in that church on the Sabbath. He took it in great dudgeon, that I did not attend his church. But I could not help that, I follow my inclination. Now, my friend, I must tell you, that I was brought up in France a Roman Catholic, and believed that the Roman Catholic Church was the only true and Mother Church, till I came to this country, where I saw his Excellency General Washington, and the officers of the American army of different religion, worshipping in different churches.

"My eyes were opened. I see men can be of different religion, and worship in different churches and yet be good Christians, then saying, It is my opininion that, if ever the liberties of this country—the United States of America—are destroyed it will be by the subtlety of the Roman Catholic Jesuit Priests, for they are the most crafty, dangerous enemies to civil and religious liberty. They have instigated most of the wars in Europe.' He further said, 'I wish my country, France, had such government and national liberty as you have in this country.' To which I replied, as my opinion, that neither France nor any other county could have national liberty without the free circulation and knowledge of the Bible. To which he gave ready and cordial assent.

"With sincere respect and esteem,
Your obedient servant,
"P. J. VANPELT.

Prof. S. F. B. MORSE, Pokeepsie, N. .Y"

You have now, sir, what you so loudly called for, to wit: the concurrent testimony of one American to the uttering of the sentiments of the motto by Lafayette, and nearly ipsissimis verbis. The character of the witness, sir, is unimpeached and unimpeachable. Through your overzealous haste to destroy the influence of the warning of this motto upon the American mind, you have been unwittingly the instrument of establishing its paternity in Lafayette beyond dispute. You have drawn out evidence, too, of its intrinsic truth; for the very measures by which you have attempted to throw discredit upon the genuineness of this motto, furnish a glaring example of the inherent corruption and dangerous character of your corporation; and they have also demonstrated most emphatically the necessity for such a warning, and the foresight and deep sagacity of the public's wise and consistent and benevolent friend.

The result of the controversy bears a lesson both to the American people and to you. The American people it will teach to ponder with less of incredulity and with a deeper concern the pregnant warnings of the fathers of the republic.

To you, sir, it administers a marked rebuke. That a foreign priest, trained by the necessities of his birth in the dark scholasticism of his ancestors, should, at the bidding of his ghostly master, bear with him to this land of Bible light and Christian civilization the debasing maxims the disgusting superstitions, and diabolical doctrines of his education, that he should think to practice undiscovered in this land of intellectual and moral light, the arts of deception, with which example and habit have made him familiar at home, excites less our wonder than our pity and disgust; but that an American, that one who, with the first moral breath inhaled the purified air of a Bible Christianity; that one whose infancy was nurtured amid the sound heads and honest hearts of a Kentucky community, should voluntary shrink away from the day-light that surrounded him and deliberately prefer to grope for enlightenment in the foreign dens of a decaying and festering superstition, is a puzzle beyond my poor comprehension to solve on any ordinary principles of moral science. Scripture, indeed, speaks of a class who "love darkness rather than light," and Scripture supplies the ready solution of the moral enigma.

You have ventured, in your denunciations of the French Catholic Priest, a convert from Popery, to speak of Arnold and of Judas. I thank you for the suggestion. They are proper name that respectively and significantly impersonate political and religious treason.

I sincerely hope it is not reserved for America to give another proper noun to the vocabulary that shall more conveniently impersonate the double treason in a single name.

Respectfully, your ob't servant,
SAMUEL F. B. MORSE.

LITTLE GIANT.

THE subscribers having secured the right from Lyman Scott to manufacture and sell the Corn and Cob Mill known as the Little Giant, are now prepared to execute promptly, in a thorough workmanlike manner, all orders, wholesale and retail, of said Mills. The reputation won by these Mills for the past year throughout the United States, is a sufficient guarantee of its utility and established character. It has cost a large amount of money and labor to bring it to its present state of perfection, and is now offered to Planters, Stock Feeders and others as a complete article of mechanism, simple and practical in use and durable in construction. It is pronounced by every body to be the most important article of the kind in use, not only well adapted for grinding cob meal for stock, but grist or fine hominy for the table, &c. The Little Giant received the First premium at the late Agricultural Fairs of Missouri, Kentucky, Maryland and other States, and that in the most complimentary manner. These Mills are guaranteed in every respect, and No. 2 Mill warranted to grind ten bushels of feed per hour with one horse, and offered at the low price of $44, all complete, ready for attaching the horse. No. 3 Mill at $55 grinds fifteen bushels per hour, and No. 4, a $66, grinds twenty bushels per hour, with two horses.

The Attention of Farmers

IS requested to a new Fertilizer, prepared from the night soil collected from the sinks and privies of New York City, by the Lidi Manufacturing Co., and manufactured without any adulteration whatever, into an inodorous and powerful manure, something like Guano, but less caustic, and less exhausting to the soil.

It is called "Tafeu," from the Chinese word signifying prepared night soil, and is the only article of the kind ever manufactured in this country. It is waranted to be 95 per cent pure night soil; and from its ease of transportation and application, and the small quantity required to produce the same results as heavier manures, it is the cheapest manure ever offered for sale.—For Grass in the fall. Winter Grain, or for Garden Vegetables, it has no equals. From 300 to 600 lbs. per acre is all the dressing required for the poorest soils. A fair trial in competition with other manures is respectfully asked. Packed in barrels of 240 lbs. or bags of 125 lbs.—Price $35 per ton, or 1¾ cts. per lb.,—delivered free of cartage on board of Vessels or Railroads in the City of New York.

PUMPS! PUMPS!

THE subscriber would respectfully inform the public in general, that he has taken the agency and is prepared to supply persons with LIFT and FORCE PUMPS that will, with sufficient quantity of Hose, carry water to any distance, water gardens, wash windows carriages, &c., put out fires at a distance of 100 feet, and as far as the hose will reach, but with 3 feet of hose pipe will throw a constant stream 50 feet perpendicularly and 75 feet horizontally. I have one in use at my house. Persons wishing can call and see for themselves. There is no humbug in it—perfectly simple. Persons wishing them, by sending the depts of well, can have them furnished at short notice. Price of pump and three feet of hose at my house, $25. Pipe and hose extra. Any quantity of hose can be ordered to the distance required to carry the water.
