THE KENT NEWS.

KENT NEWS

CHESTER TOWN, Md.

SATURDAY MORNING, SEPT. 22, 1855.

AMERICAN TICKET.

FOR COMPTROLLER OF THE TREASURY,
WILLIAM H. PURNELL, of Worcester county.

FOR LOTTERY COMMISSIONER,
DANIEL H. McPHAIL, of Baltimore city.

FOR CONGRESS—SECOND DISTRICT,
JAMES B. RICAUD, of Kent county.

☞The American Party will nominate their ticket for Kent county, on Tuesday the 2nd day of October, in Chester Town.

FIRE.—We regret to learn that the dwelling house of Mr. Samuel W. Thomas, in Wye Neck, Qneen Ann's county, was consumed by fire on Sunday night last. Loss $5,000.

LATER FROM EUROPE.—The steamship Baltic, from Liverpool, arrived at New York, on Wednesday night—her advices are a week later. There is nothing of importance from the seat of war.

Breadstuffs unchanged.

AID FOR NORFOLK AND PORTSMOUTH.—Revs. Messrs. Quigley and Stokes, during the past week, collected and forwarded from this place $236. to Norfolk and Portsmouth, to aid the sufferers in those cities.

The amount collected in Baltimore up to Wednesday evening was $40,034.17, besides immense quantities of clothing provisions, &c.

QUEEN ANN'S.—We learn that the American Party in Queen Ann's county have made the following nominations:—House of Delegates, Dr. Robt. Goldsborough, John Rolph; Orphans' Court, Col. James Roe, Chas. McColister, Samuel T. Earle; County Commissioners, Col. Jas. Merrick, Samuel Robinson, Thomas H. Kemp; for Sheriff, Alfred Duhamil; Surveyor, James W. Thompson.

OUR PAPER.—Owing to the indisposition of one of the hands in the office and the press of work, we are compelled to present our readers to-day with only a small portion of reading matter. This shall not occur again. Several article which we intended to publish are necessarily left over.

Our carrier being sick some may not receive their papers—they will please send to the office for them.

☞The "fusionists" met at the Court House in this place, on Tuesday last for the purpose of nominating a county ticket. They continued in session until about four o'clock, and we were informed by some of the delegates they adjourned to the 2nd October, without making any nominations. We were told by several others that they did nominate and the ticket shown us. How is this gentlemen? doctors must not differ! The ticket we saw, we should say was a good one—whether they will all serve or not, remains to be seen.

FOR CONGRESS.—We are pleased to learn that Col. James B. Ricaud, of this town, has been nominated by the American Party a candidate for Congress, to represent this district. Of Col. R. it is useless for us to speak—he is well and favorably known throughout the State and his election may be looked upon as a fixed fact.

J. Morrison Harris, Esq., has been nominated in the 3d Congressional District—his opponent is Hon. Joshua Vansant.

CIRCUS.—The recent exhibition of the circus here was a failure and a humbug. Knowing that they could not merit a large attendance, they managed to have a large handbill set up under a different name, stating a balloon would ascend on the same day and a man in the car: This was to attract a large crowd—they succeeded in their object, but of course no balloon made its appearance. It is time that these strolling deceivers should be exposed and the people refuse longer to be duped by them!

☞The Know-Nothings should they come into power, intend to set apart one day in each week to go a-gunning after Irishmen.—Exchange.

Speak again! What next?

STAMPEDE.—A regular stampede of negroes was made from this neighborhood on Saturday night last, They were ten in number—two belonged to estate of the late Edward Ringgold; two women and two children to Col. Ricaud; two men to Jos. Ringgold, one to John S. Constable and one to Henry A. Porter. They took with them three horses and a double carriage belonging to Ed. Ringgold's estate and a carriage belonging to John Greenwood. They were all valuable negroes, and it to be hoped will be recovered—up to the present time however, nothing has been heard of them.

DESPERATE ASSAULT.—The negro Jim Browne, confined inour jail, charged with being an accessory to the murder of his brother, made a desperate assault upon Mr. Thomas Lusby, the jailor, on Tuesdoy evening last. Mr. L. it seems, about ten o'clock at night, went up to examine the prisoners to see if all was right, as he entered Brown's room, the negro struck at him with a chair, with all his strength—fortunately for Mr. L., he saw the chair in time to jump back and ward off the blow. With the assistance of several persons the negro was soon overpowered and secured—he gives no reasons for this rash act.

Bush-Meetings.

The attention of our readers is called to a communication on our first page.—These out-door meetings being unlawful, or so much of them as secures attendance out-side the house, it becomes the duty of all officers to disperse those who are not regularly attendant in the house.—We learn that recently fighting and disorders have been committed at some of those meetings, not of course by the members, or those who attend for religious worship, but by those "outsiders" who are attracted by the crowd, some of whom supply themselves with liquor. The public road is also said to be so occupied with vehicles and horses, as to be almost impassable to the ordinary traveller. Connecting these assemblages with recent developments, the motives to prevent such large gatherings, becomes stronger, and the necessity for greater vigilance by owners and employers, becomes much greater. The colored population have houses of worship in almost every neighborhood and the temples of the whites have seats prepared for them. They can always in their immediate neighborhoods be well provided with facilities for religious worship, without such travel and fatigue to find them.

GOV. ZELL OF ARKANSAS.—This gentleman was the very head and front of the late Democratic party, in the State of Arkansas The nondescript faction which still clings to that time-honored name, after it had forfeited all claim to bear it, endeavored to enlist him in their service in their next campaign, and accordingly the Camden Democratic Committee addressed him a letter, plentifully besprinkled with flattery, in which they expressed a desire to see him once more in the field. But they "waked up the wrong passenger," with a vengence that time. Gov. Zell was not to be cajoled into the support of a cause which his heart and judgment alike condemned. In his reply, after stating that the two old parties are no longer in existence, the questions upon which they were at issue having been settled, he speaks as follows:

"There is but one question now in existence, that has heretofore been discussed by the two named parties; and upon this they never were at issue. I mean the Slavery question. The only dispute on this subject, between them, was as to which party had the best national platform, and which most favoured the Southern interest. This question is now fully settled, or superceded, by the American party having adopted, and placed before the country, a far better platform than either. or than was ever presented to the people of the United States before. The Slavery question being the great question of the times, and the American platform being the best upon that subject, I shall always be found advocating the principles therein set forth.

"The Democratic platform, on this subject, was the best we ever had previous to the adoption of the American platform. I, therefore stood upon that until I saw the latter. He is, now, the best Democrat who stands upon the best platform for the Union of the States. That, in my opinion is the great American platform.

"When new parties are formed, the party in power, by that ascendancy, holds the popular name; but the bare name will not answer their purposes long, when the people find they have no principles to sustain the name.

"For some time past there has been two kinds of Democracy in this State—the True Democracy and the Pure Democracy. The True Democracy are true to Conway, true to Johnson, and true to Office. The Pure Democracy are for principles, without regard to men or office. These latter will all be found, soon or late, upon the American Platform."

These remarks are the justest and most pertinent we have seen on the subject of the name under which the Foreign party is fighting. The party here designated as the "True Democracy," that is, who hold to the name, while they have abandoned the thing, cannot long deceive the public. The "Pure Democracy," sustained by principle, must overshadow it. We wonder how this committee felt when it received Governor Zell's letter.—Am. Democrat.

SHOOTING AFFRAY.—A serious shooting affair occurred in Sassafras Neck a few days ago. The facts, as we learn them are that a man named John Thomas in company with his wife went to a house, one end of it occupied by George Comegys and the other end by some other party. Thomas' visit it appears, was to that other party, who being absent, he was about to go into Comegys' when the latter who was sick in bed, forbade him. Thomas swore he would go in and got a gun and proceeded to enter; Comegy's child called out the man was coming with a gun. C. reached out and got a fowling piece standing near his bed, and as Thomas entered shot him, the load going in his cheek out of the back of his head. Thomas is said to be in a critical condition.—Cecil Whig.

For the News.

MR. EDITOR—Can you inform me at what time and place the Pierce-ocracy or Fusionists in the Middle District, appointed their delegates to the county nominating convention? How many were present? I see a notice in your paper calling a meeting at McDaniel's Hotel on Saturday; Did they meet there or where did they meet? or did they meet in secret conclave like the much abuse Know-Nothings?

DEATHS.

At his residence in Quaker Neck, on Wednesday last, after a brief illness, Mr. WM. J. WILKINS.

In Baltimore, on Tuesday, of consumption, MRS. MARY C. consort of Joseph O. Dugan.

Departed this life at his residence in Kent Co., a few miles above Millington, on the 11th inst., the Rev. John A. Asay, of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Mr. Asay was the Bible Agent or Colporteur for Kent county, employed by the Bible Society of said county, and for two years and upwards had been actively and efficiently employed in his vocation. We had no knowledge of Mr. Asay till his connection with the society, and believe he emigrated from New Jersey several years since. But from correspondence and intercourse with him, we formed a high opinion of his sterling piety and moral worth. We do not think we ever became acquainted with a man of a more gentle, meek, and patient spirit. His manner of expression, voice, appearance, and subject matter of his conversation, clearly indicated the holy man. To our mind he was nearest the Model of a Christian in spirit and temper, and humility, and we doubt not he exhibited to others the same graces which so won upon us.

A letter before us says, "He died in great peace, with the best assurance that he was going from labor to reward." Who could doubt, that so good a man should, in the hour of death, possess great peace, for doubtless he exhibited in life "the fruits of the spirit—love, joy, peace, long suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance." How could the end of such a man be other than peaceful, serence, resigned, happy? Kings and Princess might envy the death of such a one—while they often die without hope, he, who was humble and devout here, who expended his life in doing good to his fellow men, and by a bright example, shew them the way to Heaven, will in that better country, be a King or a Priest unto God, for it is declared in Holy Writ, "Thou shalt also be a crown of glory in the hand of the Lord, and a royal diadem in the hand of thy God." "And they shall be mine, saith the Lord of hosts, in that day when I make up my jewels." "Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father."
