THE KENT NEWS.

KENT NEWS.

THE FOUR BELONGINGS.

Childhood's dawn, I'm thine!
Here I watch the merry hours
Weave their glowing wreaths of flowers;
Birds on every bough are singing,
All the air with music ringing,
While the sunbeams flash and quiver
On the eddies of the river.
Ah, they change! the songs are done;
Clouds flit sadly o'er the sun,
While, with mournful step and slow,
From my childhood's home I go—
Home no longer mine.

Hold me, life! I'm thine,
Far away, a sunny vision
Beckons me to fields elysian.
Though some clouds are drooping low
With bright hues they shine and glow;
When the summer rain is o'er,
Skies are brighter than before.
Ah, 'tis vain! sad heart be still,
There remains one sparkling rill;
Stoop and drink thou weary heart,
Life and I in peace will part—
Life no longer mine.

Clasp me, love! I'm thine.
Though all other light depart
Save this sunshine of the heart.
Yet while sheltered at my side,
I am blest, what'er betide.
Ah, 'tis vain! the shadows flow
O'er my heart—thou, too, must go!
Love, farewell. Life's dream is done!
Mine the shadow, thine the sun;
Till, afar from grief and pain,
In the light we meet again—
So forever mine.

Take me, death! I'm thine,
Only through thy solemn portal
Can we reach the light immortal,
Where the amaranths unfading
Brows of heavenly bloom are shading,
While within thy darkened porch,
With thy dim, inverted torch,
Thou dost chant soft, holy psalms,
Still we wait with folded palms,
Until, time's last triumph won,
Thou shalt find thy labors done—
Take me, death, I'm thine.

AMERICAN PLATFORM,

Adopted by the National Council, at Philadelphia, June 5th, 1855.

I.—The acknowledgement of the Almighty Being who rules over the Universe;—who presides over the councils of nations,—who conducts the affairs of men, and who, in every step by which we have advanced to the character of an independent nation, has distinguished us by some token of Providential agency.

II.—The cultivation and development of a sentiment of profoundly intense American feeling; of passionate attachment to our country, its history and its institutions; of admiration for the purer days of our national existence; of veneration for the heroism that precipitated our Revolution; and of emulation of the virtue, wisdom and patriotism that framed our constitution, and first successfully applied its provisions.

III.—The maintenance of the Union of these United States as the paramount political good; or, to use the language of Washington, "the primary object of patriotic desire." And hence—

1st. Opposition to all attempts to weaken or subvert it.

2nd. Uncompromising antagonism to every principle of policy that endangers it.

3rd. The advocacy of an equitable adjustment of all political differences which threaten its integrity or perpetuity.

4th. The suppression of all tendencies to political division, founded on "geographical discriminations, or on the belief that there is a real difference of interest and views" between the various sections of the Union.

5th. The full recognition of the rights of the several States, as expressed and reserved in the Constitution; and a careful avoidance, by the General Government, of all interference with their rights, by legislative or executive action.

IV.—Obedience to the Constitution of these United States, as the supreme law of the land, sacredly obligatory upon all its party and members; and steadfast resistance to the spirit of innovation upon its principles, however specious the pretexts. Avowing that in all doubtful or disputed points it may only be legally ascertained and expounded by the judicial power of the United States.

And, as a corollory of the above:

1. A habit of reverential obedience to the laws, whether National, State, or Municipal, until they are either repealed or declared unconstitutional by the proper authority.

2. A tender and sacred regard for those acts of statesmenship which are to be contradistinguished from acts of ordinary legislation, by the fact of their being of the nature of compacts and agreements; and so, to be considered a fixed and settled national policy.

V.—A radical revision and modification of the laws regulating immigration, and the settlement of immigrants. Offering to the honest immigrant who from love of liberty or hatred of oppression, seek an asylum in the United States, a friendly reception and protection. But unqualifiedly condemning the transportation to our shores of felons and paupers.

VI.—The essential modification of the Naturalization Laws:

The repeal by the Legislature of the respective States, of all State laws allowing foreigners not naturalized to vote.

The repeal, without retractive operation, of all acts of Congress making grants of land to unnaturalized foreigners, and allowing them to vote in the Territories.

VII.—Hostility to the corrupt means by which the leaders of parties have hitherto forced upon us our rulers and our political creeds.

political subserviency, and of punishments for political independence.

Disgust for the wild hunt after office which characterize the age.

These on the one hand. On the other:

Imitation of the practice of the purer days of the Republic; and admiration of the maxim that "office should seek the man, and not man the office," and of the rule, that the just mode of ascertaining fitness for office is the capability, the faithfulness, and the honesty of the incumbent or candidate.

VIII.—Resistance to the aggressive policy and corrupting tendencies of the Roman Catholic Church in our country, by the advancement to all political stations—executive, legislative, judicial, or diplomatic—of those only who do not hold civil allegiance, directly or indirectly, to any foreign power, whether civil or ecclesiastical, and who are Americans by birth, education, and training—thus fulfilling the maxim: "AMERICANS ONLY SHALL GOVERN AMERICA."

The protection of all citizens in the legal and proper exercise of their civil and religious rights and privileges; the maintenance of the right of every man to the full, unrestrained, and peaceful enjoyment of his own religious opinions and worship, and a jealous resistance of all attempts by any sect, denomination or church, to obtain an ascendency over any other in the State, by means of any special privileges or exemption, by any political combination of its members, or by a division of their civil allegiance with any foreign power, potentate, or ecclesiastic.

IX.—The reformation of the character of our National Legislature, by elevating to that dignified and responsible position men of higher qualifications, purer morals and more unselfiish patriotism.

X—The restriction of executive patronage, especially in the matter of appointments to office, so far as it may be permitted by the Constitution, and consistent with the public good.

XI—The education of the youth of our country in schools provided by the State; which schools shall be common to all, without distinction of creed or party, and free from any influence or direction of a denominational or partisan character.

And, inasmuch as Christianity, by the Constitutions of nearly all the States; by the decisions of the most eminent judicial authorities, and by the consent of the people of America, is considered an element of our political system, and, as the Holy Bible is at once the source of Christianity, and the depository and fountain of all civil and religious freedom, we oppose every attempt to exclude it from the Schools thus established in the States.

XII—The American Party, having arisen upon the ruins and in despite of the opposition of the Whig and Democratic parties, cannot be in any manner responsible for the obnoxious acts or violated pledges of either. And the systematic agitation of the slavery question by those parties, having elevated sectional hostility into a positive element of political power, and brought our institutions into peril, it has, therefore, become the imperative duty of the American party to interpose for the purpose of giving peace to the country and perpetuity to the Union. And as experience has shown it impossible to reconcile opinions so extreme as those which separate the disputants; and, as there can be no dishonor in submitting to the laws, the National Council has deemed it the best guarantee of common justice and of future peace, to abide by and maintain the existing laws on the subject of slavery, as a final and conclusive settlement of that subject in spirit and in substance.

And regarding it the highest duty to avow their opinions, upon a subject so important, in distinct and unequivocal terms, it is hereby declared as the sense of this National Council, that Congress possesses no power, under the Constitution to legislate upon the subject of slavery in the States, where it does or may exist, or to exclude any State from admission into the Union because its constitution does or does not recognise the institution of slavery as a part of its social system; and expressly pretermitting any expression of opinion upon the power of Congress to establish or prohibit slavery in any Territory, it is the sense of the National Council that Congress ought not to legislate upon the subject of slavery within the Territories of the United States and that any interference by Congress with slavery as it exists in the District of Columbia, would be a violation of the spirit and intention of the compact by which the State of Maryland ceded the District to the United States, and a breach of the national faith.

XIII—The policy of the Government of the United States, in its relations with foreign governments, is to exact justice from the strongest, and do justice to the weakest; restraining by all the power of the government, all its citizens from interference with the internal concerns of nations with whom we are at peace.

XIV—This National Council declares that all the principles of the Order shall be henceforward every where openly avowed; and that each member shall be at liberty to make known the existence of the Order, and the fact that he himself is a member, and it recommends that there be no concealment of the place of meeting of subordinate councils.

E. B. BARTLETT, of Kentucky,
President of National Council.
C. D. DESHLER, of New Jersey,
Corresponding Secretary.
JAS. M. STEPHENS, of Maryland,
Recording Secretary.

REMOVAL.

TINWARE CHEAP AS EVER!!

THE subscribers respectfully inform the public that they have moved up town, to the new store house lately occupied by John Russell, where they are always prepared to manufacture to order in the best manner, every description of TINWARE, and to do all Roofing and Spouting at the shortest notice. All who wish to save 25 per cent., can do so by patronising the subscribers.

FARMER'S FOUNDRY.

THE subscribers respectfully announce to their friends and the public in general that having taken the "Farmers' Foundry" in Chestertown, they how have on hand a large quantity of materials which they will manufacture to order in the best manner, and at the shortest notice.

They also keep constantly on hand a good supply of Plough Castings, which cannot be surpassed in neatness and durability by any manufactured in the State. CARTS, WAGONS, PLOUGHS, &c., made to order at the shortest notice and low rates. All kind of machine work done in the neatest manner and at short notice on accommodating terms for cash. Blacksmithing will be done in a workmanlike manner and of the best materials. They would particularly call the attention of the Merchants and Farmers of Kent and the adjoining counties to their castings—they will be sold as cheap as can be purchased elsewhere. ☞ All descriptions of old iron will be taken in exchange for work at the highest prices.

The Attention of Farmers

IS requested to a new Fertilizer, prepared from the night soil collected from the sinks and privies of New York City, by the Lidi Manufacturing Co., and manufactured without any adulteration whatever, into an inodorous and powerful manure, something like Guano, but less caustic, and less exhausting to the soil.

It is called "Tafeu," from the Chinese word signifying prepared night soil, and is the only article of the kind ever manufactured in this country. It is warranted to be 95 per cent pure night soil; and from its ease of transportation and application, and the small quantity required to produce the same results as heavier manures, it is the cheapest manure ever offered for sale.—For Grass in the fall. Winter Grain, or for Garden Vegetables, it has no equals. From 300 to 600 lbs. per acre is all the dressing required for the poorest soils. A fair trial in competition with other manures is respectfully asked. Packed in barrels of 240 lbs. or bags of 125 lbs.—Price $35 per ton, or 1¾ cts. per lb.,—delivered free of cartage on board of Vessels or Railroads in the City of New York.

VALUABLE FARM FOR SALE.

THE undersigned as agent will offer at public sale, on Tuesday,

THE 9th DAY OF OCTOBER, 1855, at 2 o'clock, P. M., at the Hotel of Mr. John McDaniel, in Chestertown, all that

Farm or Plantation

known as the "Frazier Farm," and now owned by Mr. John Judefind; which lies in the First Election District of Kent Co, Maryland, adjoining the lands of Mr. J. B. Fennimore and others. This Farm contains about 35 Acres of which are in WOOD AND TIMBER, the larger portion being stave timber; it lies on Fairlee Creek; is within 4 miles of the Steamboat landing at Green Point, and not over 7 miles from Chester Town. It is divided into fields and under good substantial fencing. The soil is good and improved; a large portion of the arable land has had two dressings of lime.

209¾ ACRES

The improvements are a two story FRAME DWELLING with a brick Kitchen attached, and out-buildings amply sufficient for the farm, all in good order.

THE TERMS OF SALE

are as follows:—one-half of the purchase money to be paid on the day of sale or on the first day of January ensuing; the balance in three equal instalments, of 1, 2, and 3 years from that day; to be secured by the bond of the purchaser bearing interest from 1st January 1856 (when possession will be given) with security approved by the subscriber.

RICHARD HYNSON,
Ag't for John Judefind.
