☞ Kent county Court commences its session on Monday next.

☞ The large number of new advertisements has crowded out nearly all the reading matter we had prepared for the "News", this week.

☞ The special election in Baltimore on Thursday last, for a member of the city council, in place of Wm. G. Baker, dem., who died on the day of election, resulted in the success of Mr. Garrison, the American candidate, by 76 majority. Mr. Baker's majority was 63, thus showing a gain of 139 votes for the American party in the short space of one week.

☞ Maj. McPhail, the American candidate for Lottery Commissioner, delivered an able and interesting speech at the Court House, on last Wednesday evening, which drew together a large number of our citizens, considering the very short notice which had been given. Drawing his arguments from incontrovertible facts, and embodying them in chast expressions, he entertained and delighted his audience for about two houss, and elucidated the great principles of his party with such marked ability as to fasten conviction upon the minds of his hearers, and call forth their cheers and applause. All who heard him, expressed themselves well pleased with his speech, and we doubt not that the Major made many friends by his visit here, and old Kent will speak well for him on the 7th of November. The crowded state of our columns prevents a further notice of the Major's speech.

CORN.—We cut the following from the Balt. Sun of the 17th inst:

"A GREATER ONE STILL.—The ear of corn which we mentioned some days since from the farm of Mr. Willlams, at Long Green, Baltimore county, and which was 15 inches long and contained 537 grains, is excelled by one which has been presented us from the farm of Gen. Cadwallader at Maxwell's Point, on the Gunpowder. This ear is 16½ inches in length, and has on it about 700 grains in ten rows. It is of the yellow kind, and taken from a field of 40 acres in extent, producing about 12 barrels to the acre, whereas some ten years ago the product of the same land was about 5 barrels. This renovation of the soil was by means of guano, clover, and lime, applied under the direction of Mr. James Moir; the judicious farmer of the lands."

George Vickers, Esq., has shown us a ear of white corn, of beautiful appearance, 11 inches long, containing 18 rows. with 50 grains in a row, making 900 grains. This excels, "Long Green," and "Maxwell's Point." Mr. V's corn was taken from one of his Lots near Chester Town, which it is supposed will yield about 18 barrels to the acre.

For the Kent News.

To "THE PILE OF SAND:"

I do not feel complimented by the notice you took of me in the Kent News of last week. You advise that I should be burnt! What harm have I done you? You acknowledge that you are a nuisance and have caused annoyance to many? It is not half so bad to be ducked in a large pond near the P. E. G. as to be burned, and you need not think of diverting public attention from yourself, or the Town authorities, who neglect to move you, by pointing to me? The fact is that I am as much under the protection of the authorities as you are? I was put in my present position by the corporation. The Town extends down Princess street 22 perches or 121 yards from the west corner near the pump, where Cannon and Princess Street intersect. I feel confident that I am not such a distance from that point.—I am also aware that the Act of 1845 makes the supervisor responsible by Indictment by the Grand Jury for all neglect of Streets, Bridges, &c., and as the jury will soon be in session, we shall soon see whether I am any more of a nuisance than you are. I acknowledge that I am dangerous and need improvement, but while I can be mended, you must be removed. As we seem to be entirely neglected by the corporation, we shall have to await the action of the Grand Jury.

DEATHS.

In this place, on Sunday morning last, Mrs. HORNEY, consort of Mr. Woolford Horney.

Departed this life October 11th, Bartus Trew Wilkins, aged two years and nine months, son of James F. and Mary T. Wilkins. Baltimore Sun and Centreville Times please copy.

Died in this town, on Friday morning last, Georgiana Gleaves, eldest daughter of Samuel and Emeline E. Frazier, in the 17th year of her age.

Alas! for the fleeting hopes of earth,
The hopes that we fondest cherish,
When the fairest flowers, and the one's loved most
Are the first from our sight to perish.

But a heavenly voice I hear which says
Ah! why are your hearts repining
For the flower you loved too sweet for earth
In the fields above is shining.

Ah! yes to the fields of light above
We feel that our flower is trrasplanted,
Yet we must still weep for so loved a one
And our hearts with sad thoughts be haunted.

For we miss a joy on our daily path
A bloom that our soul's delighted,
And it seems by the frost, by which she fell
That our hearts too had been blighted.

And the flowers will come again with spring
With a beauty as bright as ever,
But the rose that we cherished so fondly awhile
Will bloom on our earth again never. F.

Mr. Editor:—The political parties of Kent county having presented their nominees for the suffrages of the people at the ensuing election, it is proper and necessary that the views and intentions of each should be thoroughly known and canvassed. A "Union Ticket" having been formed composed of candidates, without regard to former political opinions; it is difficult to ascertain and define the exact position and purposes of some: Edward A. Moore, Esq., candidate for State's Attorney, rumor says, intends voting a portion of the American Ticket, (disdaining to be recognised as a Union Democrat or by any other appellation than "an old Clay Whig.)—To remove all doubts, I would like Mr. Moore, to give plain out and out answers, to the following questions propounded by one representing the wishes of a large number of both parties:

1st Does he intend to vote for the American candidate for Congress? 2d Does he intend to vote for the American candidate for Comptroller? 3d Does he intend to vote for any American candidate, either County or State, who endorses the "Philadelphia Platform."

Oct 20, 1855. A VOTER.

"EVERLASTING,"

It is very conveniently situated with respect to market for all kinds of produce, having

TWO LANDINGS

upon it and being within thirty miles of Baltimore.

THE BUILDINGS on the premises are in good order ($1000 having been expended upon them the past season) and well adapted to uses for which designed, viz:—Granary, Stabling, Shedding, Loft Room, &c.

For school, church and mill facilities, this property cannot be surpassed, there being a well conducted grist and saw mill adjoining; four churches within five miles, a school within one and a half miles.

There is a pump of excellent water convenient to house and barn. Also a young and flourishing in full bearing, of choice and very early fruit, and many other advantages generally considered minor, but which in reality are a farmer's comfort and his pleasure. There is a plenty of WOOD AND TIMBER for farm use, and some young thriving chesnut and locust. A fine meadow can be made with very little cost; in fact, the incipient step towards it has already been taken. All persons wishing to buy land in this county would do well to come and survey this property.

This farm is offered at private sale until the 25th day of November next, and if not sold by that time it will be for rent the ensuing year.

TERMS OF SALE:

$4000 cash will be required on the 1st of January next. A credit of 8 years will be given for the balance.
