WEDDING NOTES

The wedding of William L. Fowler, of Chestertown, and Mrs. Mae G. Scott, of Baltimore, took place in Baltimore at the home of the bride Thursday, Rev. N. O. Gibson officating. Only the immediate family of the couple were present.

Percy T. McFeely, formerly of Chestertown, and Mrs. Gertrude Charter, of Chicago, were married in that city Saturday, Dec. 22, 1923, by Rev. Timothy Stone, pastor.

William Bottomley and Miss Katie Hess, of Millington, were married at the rectory of St. Paul's P. E. Church, Tuesday, at 8 p. m., by Rev. Ellis B. Dean. After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Bottomley will be at home near Millington, where Mr. Bottomley is engaged in farming.

The wedding of John W. Powell, of near Chestertown, and Miss Matilda Valentine, of Philadelphia, took place Tuesday.

John Vintigue, of Delaware, and Miss Lucy Nigro, of Chestertown, obtained a mirrage license here on Wednesday.

On Saturday, January 5th, at high noon, one of the prettiest weddings of the season was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. Hicks Tucker, near Chestertown, when their eldest daughter, Hilda Valeria, was married to F. Curtis Seward, son of Sheriff and Mrs. T. Frank Seward, of Centreville. The bridal party entered the parlor to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by Mrs. R. Woodall Robinson, and stood beneath an arch of pine and holly from which was suspended a wedding bell. Rev. J. A. Buckson officiated and used the beautiful and impressive ring ceremony. The bride was charmingly gowned in beige satin crepe with accesories to match and carried a shower of bouquet of bride's roses. Her sister, Miss Dorothy Tucker was maid of honor and wore midnight blue satin crepe. The groom's best man was Holton Sparks, of Centreville. The bride was a graduate of Chestertown High School in 1920 and was the efficient secretary at the Chestertown Electric Light Plant for the past three years. The bride's going away costume was a tailored suit of dark blue poiret twill. Immediately after the ceremony a luncheon was served after which the bride and groom amid showers of rice and hearty felicitations left by automobile for Wilmington where they boarded the train for points farther north. Upon their return they will reside in Centreville where the groom has been in the employ of the Sunset Pharmacy for several years.

A quiet wedding of interest took place at the parsonage, Galena, Saturday afternoon, January 5th, when Miss Helen W. Gale, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Walter Gale, became the bride of Samuel W. Caldwell. The ceremony was performed in the presence of only the immediate families by Rev. G. E. Sterling, pastor of Galena M. E. Church. The bride was attired in blue velvet and carried pink brides roses. Their attendants were Miss Martha Caldwell, a sister of the groom, and Granville Ward. Immediately following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell left mid showers of rice by train for points north. The bride's traveling dress was of gray poiret twill, with shoes, gloves and hat to match. The bride has been assistant cahsier in The Galena Bank for the past two years. The young couple have the best wishes of their many friends.

A wedding of interest which took place on January 1, 1924, was that of Miss Violet Bowers, daughter of J. Ray Bowers, of Chestertown, and Allan Urie, the newly appointed postmaster of Rock Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Urie. The ceremony was performed at the parsonage of the M. P. Church at Brooklyn, Md., by the Rev. H. B. Jester, formerly of St. James M. P. Church, Worton.

The bride was attended by her cousin, Miss Stein Edwards. Among those present at the marriage was Mrs. Walter Taylor, Miss Willie Edwards, Mrs. H. B. Jester, Walter L. Brooke and John Loessel.

After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Loessel, 4731 Park Heights avenue, Baltimore. The bride wore a dark blue suit of tricotine with a squirrel scarf, a hat, veil, and gloves of grey. Her corsage bouquet was of ophelia roses and lillies of the valley.

The young couple will make their home in Rock Hall where they will be at home after January 15, 1924.

The marriage of Miss Ida May Kendall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Kendall, of Skinner's Neck, and David Ashley, son of Mr. and Mrs. David C. Ashley, of Piney Neck, took place at seven o'clock the evening of December 26th, 1923, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. Charles H. Reed, pastor of Wesley Chapel P. M. Church, at the parsonage. A large reception followed at the home of the bride's parents where the young people are residing.

Duckers Get A Cold Bath Saturday Evening In Creek

Messrs. Hill Beaston and son, Albert, Merritt Willis and Urie Jones, well-known residents of near Locust Grove, had a thrilling experience late Saturday afternoon while returning from a ducking trip. They had killed 62 fine ducks and had them in small scow together with a dozen live decoys and had started to cross Turner's Creek for Charles Miller's shore when the heavy wind struck them and caused the scow to sink! There was nothing to do but get to shore as best they could and all jumped into water up to their waist and waded ashore leaving all except their guns in the boat. Charles Miller's home was reached safely but oh, what a cold and wet company! The next day search was made and all the game found frozen in the ice while the decoys were also recovered. The men have felt no ill effects of the cold bath.
