The Citizens Bank
OF CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND.

TO THE PUBLIC:

On December 31st, 1923, and on November 7th, 1923, the National Government called for a statement from all National Banks. On the same date the State of Maryland called for statements from all State Banks.

On Nov. 7, 1923, The Citizens Bank Showed Total Assets $219,746.18

On Dec. 31, 1923, The Citizens Bank Showed Total Assets $225,724.23

An examination of all the statements of State and National Banks in Kent County will show that the Citizens Bank of Chestertown is the only Bank which showed larger assets on December 31st, 1923, than on November 7th, 1923.

There was no money borrowed by this Bank in either statement which would have swollen its total assets. Examine the statements of all the Banks and then bear same in mind.

WE WANT YOU TO WATCH THIS BANK GROW

We are proud of the fact that we have so organized and placed this Bank in such a position that its roots are deep and the Bank has grown from nothing, on September 4th, 1922, to total assets of $225,724.23 on December 31st, 1923. We invite your deposits. In spite of criticism and profits of evil omen, our capital stock and surplus represent CASH MONEY. If we have any bad debts we do not know it. In three years we expect to be the largest Bank in Kent County.

We invite you to become a depositor. Remember that this is the ONLY BANK WHICH PAYS 4½% INTEREST ON SAVINGS DEPOSITS. There is a reason for our growth and in the future there will be more reasons. THEREFORE, WATCH US GROW.

RUBEN JAMAR CLAIMS "JOE" TO BE HIS DOG

Interesting Trial Was Held At Town Hall In Church Hill Last Week—Takes Appeal To Court—Dog Disappears In The Year Of 1922.

A trial that attracted much interest took place in the Town Hall at Church Hill last week. The case was Jamar vs. Pugh. Ruben Jamar accused Harry Pugh of stealing his black and tan fox hound. And it was decidedly more than merely a neighborhood squabble over the ownership of the hound-dog. From Kent came a clan headed by Reuben F. Jamar, claiming to be the sole, original and only owner of Joe, the black and tan canine. From up Sudlersville way came Harry Pugh and a vanguard to declare with equal vehemence that Joe is a Queen Anne's county product.

Hostilities in the dog war were launched last November when it is stated Pugh took Joe, the black and tan hound, believing him to be the dog which had previously disappeared from his home. Jamar, as soon as he learned that Pugh had a dog which resembled the animal he had lost, went to the Pugh home and demanded the animal's release. Both men claimed the dog, and finally Jamar went before Justice Anderson and obtained a writ of replevin. The dog was taken in custody and the case was originally set for trial on January 2. Later it was postponed until last Saturday.

Witnesses for the rivals over Joe's ownership were lined-up as follows:

For Jamar	Fo Pugh
Harvey Brice	Walter Teat
James Williams	A. F. Roberts
Mrs. Jas. Williams	Albert Sheppard
Wm. Brinsfield	Wm. B. Seward
Melvin Crew	Frank Wallace
Thomas Griffin	Dawson Booker
Ben Williams	Jack Nickerson
Charles Quigley	Leonard Everett
James Jones	Earle Teat
Lewis Vane	Thomas Glanding
Merritt Meekins	Amby Ware
Robert Moffett	Roy Marvel
Austin F. Roberts	Clarence Marvel
	Samuel Nickerson
	Jennings Smith
	Frank Huggins

Jamar was the first witness and from the moment of the opening testimony were few instants that did not hold spice for the spectators. Jamar testified that he had bred for the dog, raised him, and bought licenses for him each year. Witnesses for Jamar told how they would know "Joe's hide in a tan-yard" and described certain peculiarities which confirmed their knowledge that he was Jamar's dog.

Later Pugh, in detail, told of his ownership of the dog and described why he was positive that Joe was his dog. Witnesses backed his statement with descriptions of how even their dogs had recognized Joe's cry on the trail and had harked to him in the woods.

Pugh won the case and established the ownership of the dog. But Jamar promptly took an appeal, and the case will be tried before the May term of the Circuit Court for Queen Anne's county. In the meantime Joe will remain in the custody of Jamar, at least until he appears as Exhibit A in the next battle in the county court house.

$590 IN RABBIT BOUNTIES

The State Game Department has paid out $590 in rabbit bounties to trappers in the various counties who trapped the animals in the open season for release at the close of the open season.

More rabbits were trapped in Garret county than in any other. There were 178 claims paid off in that county. Carroll county trappers claimed bounties on 104 rabbits. Dorchester county trapped 31. There were only 10 caught in Kent. The game department paid $1 apiece on all rabbits trapped in the gunning season and released after the close of the season.

Game Warden E. Joseph Watson received 96 rabbits from the West and 58 were dead upon arrival. Warden Robert Johnson at Golt also received 96.

more Ford cars and trucks were produced last year than the previous year, an increase of over 50 per cent.

In spite of this tremendous increase in production, it was impossible to meet delivery requirements during the spring and summer months when orders for 350,000 Ford Cars and Trucks could not be filled.

This year winter buying for immediate delivery has been more active than ever before—and in addition 200,000 orders have already been booked through the Ford Weekly Purchase Plan for spring delivery.

These facts clearly indicate that the demand during this spring and summer will be far greater than ever, and that orders should be placed immediately with Ford Dealers as a means of protection against delay in securing your Ford Car or Truck or Fordson Tractor.
