Kent County Is Loyal To Washington College !

Endowment Campaign Goes "Over the Top" With Total of $26,159 Subscribed !

Great was the rejoicing on the part of the large number of workers who met at Reid Hall, Washington College, Thursday evening for the fourth and final report on the Kent county end of the campaign for the Washington College Endowment Fund. The Team Workers were looking forward to reaching the goal of $25,000 with the certainty that this would be made possible, but their enthusiasm was doubled when the reports were called for and the total showed that the county had gone "over the top" by over one thousand dollars, with more to follow.

The committee in charge of the Kent county campaign have arranged to have all names of contributors to the county fund published in the local papers next week, following a careful checking up of all pledges reported and those that may come in previous to the 15th. Many friends were out of town, or had not been seen owing to the condition of the roads in some parts of the county. These will undoubtedly bring the total up to $27,000 or more. In addition to the $26,159 already subscribed in Kent county the Kent county young men and women who are students at the college subscribed $2,635 as part of the $10,205 pledged by the student body. The names of these students from Kent will be published along with the citizens' list which makes up the "Kent County Honor Roll." No amounts will be given in the publishing of this Honor Roll of fine men and women who showed their love and devotion for Washington College by making possible this fund. It is interesting to note that of the nearly five hundred men and women contributing the Kent county quota, this was a larger number than the original group back in 1782 who made possible the founding of the college and came from the entire State of Maryland. Surely the spirits of those great men and women of that earyl day who gave this institution to the generations of young men and young women since their day, must look down with great favor upon the latest group of citizens who have manifested their willingness to extend this service to present and future generations, that our country may be better for our having been here. It is hoped that many additional citizens of Kent county will want to add their names to this newer "Honor Roll" by sending in their contributions within the next few days.

The results by Teams and Districts is as follows: Team No. 5, A. S. Turner, Captain, was given the large silk flag for bringing in the largest amount locally, and H. C. Willis, Chairman of the Fairlee District won the silk flag for bringing in the largest amount of subscriptions from the county districts.

Team or District	Subscribers	Amount
1. W. Robt. Huey, Chairman	32	$1,750
2. Harry F. Jefferson, Captain	33	2,085
3. J. Thos. Kibler, Captain	25	2,600
4. J. S. Kreeger, Captain	30	2,085
5. A. S. Turner, Captain	46	3,580
6. Mrs. Don Falls, Captain	59	3,000
7. Mrs. David B. Ford, Captain	54	2,911
Worton, Mrs. Harry T. Williams, Ch.	6	275
Millington, Leonard Wilson, Ch.	7	390
Fairlee, H. C. Willis, Chairman	37	1,370
Massey, E. Thos. Massey, Chairman	9	685
Galena, R. R. Pennington, Chairman	7	300
Betterton, Howard Turner, Chairman	41	1,275
Kennedyville, B. R. Sutton, Chairman	16	596
Rock Hall, Ellsworth Leary, Chairm	3	725
Faculty and Employees, Dr. J. S. W. Jones, Ch.	12	2,532
Totals	417	$26,159

The workers gave a great deal of the credit for the fine victory to Allan A. Harris, Chairman of the Kent County Committee. For more than four weeks Mr. Harris has been devoting several hours of each day to the work and has proved a fine leader whom it was a pleasure to serve under. The work done by all the county district workers was highly commended. They traveled over many miles of muddy roads and put in a lot of hard work in order to reach their prospects. The sincere thanks of the committee goes to those who have served and to those who have contributed towards this victory.

Dan Warren, a well-known colored resident of Piney Neck, died last week. Allie Ringgold, of Quaker Neck, died Monday.

The baseball season will begin at the college this Saturday afternoon with a game with Walbrook. Another game will be played here Monday with Temple University.

Bordley & Son will tell the News readers next week "why their spring suit varieties are so large." They are ready with new Easter suits, hats, shoes, shirts and neckwear. Call and inspect their line.

The Government is not making a free distribution of seed this year.

RACING AUTOIST SAVES AVIATOR PLUNGED IN BAY

Lieut. C. A. F. Sprague, of the Navy aviation station at Anacostia, D. C., Tuesday night finished by rail a trip he had started by air. He had to swim ashore with the aid of a rope when his plane made a forced descent into the Chesapeake bay late Tuesday at Harris Wharf, three miles below Betterton.

The machine, a new type combat plane known as the Thomas Scout, was damaged, one wing being sprung and a pontoon torn loose.

Paul C. Stokes, of Kent county, noted the false note in the exhaust of the motor and in an automobile sped to the point at which Sprague's plane was descending.

He threw a rope and helped Sprague ashore, where he telephoned to Aberdeen Proving Grounds. Col. W. H. Tschappat, commandant, had a motorboat sent for the aviator, who became the guest of the Army post while his plane was being towed in.
