KENT NEWS.

CHESTER TOWN, Md.

SATURDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 9, 1856.

☞ The weather has moderate very much the last two days—Thursday we had a gentle rain, and the snow has been fast disappearing since.

ANOTHER BREAK DOWN.—The Elkton stage returning to this place Thursday evening broke down and upset near Urieville—there were six passengers in the stage at the time, but fortunately none were injured.

THANKS.—Hon. J. A. Pearce, will accept our thanks for a valuable public document.

We are indebted to E. Sudler, H. P. Jordon, and Thos. H. Kent, Esqs., for copies of the Comptroller's Report and proceedings of the Legislature.

U. S. SENATOR.—We notice that both Houses of the Legislature of this State have agreed to go into an election for U. S. Senator on Thursday, the 14th inst. Mr. Pratt's term in the Senate expires on the 4th of March 1857, and as there is no session of the Legislature, before that period, it is necessary that his successor be chosen during this session.

Who will be the Senator? is a question we have often heard asked. There seems to be but one choice in Kent, and that is John P. Kennedy.

☞ In pursuance of the notice in our last issue, an unexpected and rare musical treat was served up to our citizens, on Wednesday evening last.

The charitable object of the concert, and the mystery attending its character, and the performers, called together at the appointed hour, a large and brilliant assemblage from the town and country.—Amidst the buzz of suppressed voices and the surging and swelling of contending curiosity, our well beloved Postmaster stepped from behind the scenes and in a few appropriate remarks introduced to the audience an amateur troop of Ethiopian serenaders.

Their grotesque appearance was received with deafening shouts of applause, after which they enlived the evening with some of our popular melodies—the whole troupe, eight in number, accompanying themselves with instrumental music.

The amusement was diversified with dancing and original witicisms. The whole performance was admirably cast and reflects high credit upon the musical taste of our incog entertainers.

The performers were several times encored, and amidst the outbursting delight of the audience, our above mentioned esteemed citizen announced the "close of the services" in a well turned and complimentary speech for the attention of the assemblage and the unprecedented good behaviour of the juveniles.

We learn the amount placed in the hands of the committee, after deducting the necessary expenses, was $38.36.

It will be seen, by referring to our advertising column, that the troupe have consented to give another concert for the same object.

Speaker Elected.

The agony is over, and N P. Banks, of Massachusetts, elected Speaker. On Saturday morning, Mr. Smith, of Tenn., offered a resolution to the effect that if no election should be had by a majority on the next three ballots, then on the fourth, the candidate having the highest vote shall be declared the Speaker. This proposition was adopted by a vote of 113 yeas to 104 nays. Mr. Orr, the Democratic nominee, peremtorily withdrew his name, and refused to allow its further use. After some remarks, including a motion to adjourn, which was voted down the House proceeded to votes. The first three votes were had without any one receiving a majority. The fourth vote resulted decisively as follows: Banks 103; Aiken 100, Fuller 6; Campbell 4; Wells 1. (Messrs. Broom, Clark, Cullen, Davis, of Md., Millward and Whitney, voting for Fuller.—Messrs. Dunn, Harrison, Moore and Scott, for Campbell, and Hickman for Wells.) N. P. Banks, having received a plurality of three votes was declared duly elected. The announcement was received with the most enthusiastic and tumultuous manifestations of joy by his political friends.

He was conducted to the chair, the oath of office was administered to him by Mr. Giddings, he being the oldest member of the House. Mr. Banks then addressed the House:

Gentlemen of the House of Representatives: Before I proceed to complete the acceptance of the office which you have conferred upon me, I avail myself of your indulgence to express my obligation for the honor conferred.

It would afford far greater pleasure were it accompanied even by the slightest assurance that I could bring to the discharge of the arduous and delicate duties (always difficult, bnt now environed with unusuat difficulties) any capacity commensurate with their responsibility and dignity. I can only say I shall bear myself, so far as I am able, with fidelity to the interest and institutions of the country and government, and with impartiality, so far as regards the rights of members of this House.

I have no personal objects to accomplish. I am animated by the single desire of contributing, in some little degree, to the maintenance of the well-established principles of our Government, in their original American signification, and in developing that portion of the continent which we occupy, so far as we may do so within the scope of the legitimate power conferred upon us—enlarging and swelling the capacity for benificent influences both at home and abroad, and maintaining intact, and perpetual, the inestimable privileges transmitted to us.

I am aware that neither myself, nor any other man is equal to the perfect accomplishment of those duties. I am, therefore, as a man must be in such a presence, a suppliant for your indulgence and assistance; and I again return my thanks for the honor which you have conferred upon me. (Applause.)

Gen. Cullom, of Tennessee, was elected Clerk, and Mr. Glossbrenner, Sergeant-at Arms.

Mr. Semmes was again in his seat in the Senate to-day which has been vacant for several days owing to his serious indisposition. Te following order was submitted by him, which he asked might be laid over till Monday.
