"STANDARD"

ETHYL GAS

GENERAL MOTORS PRODUCT

Possesses these distinct advantages:

1 It eliminates fuel knocks in your engine—and the waste of fuel, the lack of power and the carbonization that these knocks indicate.

2 It reduces gear shifting to a minimum.

3 It prevents all harmful effects of carbon accumulation.

4 It increases the motor's smoothness and power—insures a quicker speeding-up of the motor—and greater economy.

Try it once and you'll use it always!

Washington College Occupies The Stage This Week

Declamation, Debate, Base Ball, Baccalaureate Address And Sermon to Y. M. C. A.—Commencement Exercises Congressman Goldsborough The Orator.

High Schools had their innings last week to be followed this week by the splendid events at Washington College. This was the 142nd year of the venerable institution which is showing renewed spirit and encouraging prospects. The result of declamation contest was noted in last week's News. This was followed Friday evening with the annual debate between members of the Mt. Vernon Literary Society and the Adelphia Literary Society for the Samuel Towner Rogers prizes. The question for debate was : "Resolved, That the United States government should own and operate the railways."

The affirmative was discussed by C. Edward Duffy and W. Ernest Griffith of the Adelphia Society, while the negative was championed by Preston P. Heck and T. H. Owen Knight of the Mt. Vernon Society.

The judges, State Senator W. B. Copper, Rev. A. H. Covey and Rev. N. O. Gibson awarded first prize for debate to the negative and gave T. H. O. Knight first prize for oratory, and C. Edward Duffy second prize for oratory. Excellent music was furnished by Arthur Bacon's orchestra consisting of Earle Nichols, baritone; A. Bacon, cornet; N. Graves, L. Carroll, J. N. Wheatley, violins; D. Stam, clarinet; R. Woodland, piano.

Saturday might be termed "Alumni Day." In the afternoon the Alumni was defeated at baseball by score of 4 to 5 and played an interesting game. At 5.45 p. m., President Paul Emerson Titsworth and wife gave a reception in Reid Hall to the alumni and visitors, and at 7.30 p. m. the annual banquet and reunion of the Alumni Association was held in Reid Hall. Following the dinner the annual meeting and election of officers of the association was held as follows: President, Robert Loran Langsdale, of Baltimore; vice president, T. D. Bowers, of Chestertown; secretary and treasurer, Dr. J. S. Wm. Jones. Speeches were made at the banquet by President Titsworth, James E. Ellegood, James W. Chapman, Jr., Lester Baldwin, John Hessey, E. Rigbie McDorman. Greetings were brought from N. T. Meginniss, of Baltimore., the oldest living graduate. The menu was served in fine style by that expert steward, Mr. Gunning.

Sunday morning all the churches of the town joined in the Baccalaureate services in William Smith Hall. President Titsworth delivered the address to the 12 graduates his theme being from the text "Be ye not conformed to this world but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, etc." Romans 12-2. A choir of 28 voices from the various churches of the town under the direction of Prof. A. Roy Woodland, Miss Louise Russell, pianist, rendered grand music at both services, morning and evening. Solos were sung by Mrs. J. H. Sides and Mr. Stenger.

At 8 p. m., Rev. James A. Leach, pastor of the Union Methodist Episcopal Church, Wilmington, delivered the sermon to the Young Men's Christian Association of the college his theme being "The Mind of Christ."

Commencement Program

Commencement exercises were held Monday morning at 10.30 o'clock in William Smith Hall. Albert E. Goodrich, of Baltimore, delivered the first honor oration and Miss Helen Jones, of Aberdeen, Md., second honor oration. T. Alan Goldsborough, Congressman from the First Maryland district, and an alumnus of the college, delivered the address to the graduates his theme being "The League of Nations or World Court." It was a most interesting address and delivered in an eloquent and impressive manner. President Titsworth delivered the diplomas and awarded the prizes in a most graceful manner.

Following were the graduates: Roger J. Bounds, of Allen; David McMenamin, of Chestertown; C. Edward Duffy, of Salisbury; Katherine B. Barren, of Pennsylvania; Preston P. Heck, of Baltimore; Albert Goodrich, of Baltimore; Dorothy E. Woodall, of Chestertown; Marian Ermyn Jewell, of Chestertown; W. Ernest Griffith, of Denton; Elmer E. Kaiser, of Baltimore; Helen G. Mills, of Salisbury, and Helen B. Jones, of Aberdeen. The following degrees were conferred:

Bachelor of Arts—Roger J. Bounds, David B. McMenamin, Charles Edw. Duffy, Preston P. Heck, Dorothy E. Woodall, Albert E. Goodrich, Marian Ermyn Jewell, Helen G. Mills, Helen B. Jones, Elmer L. Kaiser W. Ernest Griffith and Katherine B. Warren.

Doctor of Divinity—James Albert Leach, of Wilmington.

Doctor of Laws — Judge Lewin Wethered Wickes, of Chestertown.

Doctor of Science — Dr. Eldridge Eliason, of Philadelphia.

Doctor of Pedagogy — Wilmer F. Burns, of Gloucester, N. J.

The following certificates were delivered to those students who have completed the two years' course in Domestic Science: Ada Elizabeth Dale, Lula Lee Messick and Mildred LaRue Nicols.

The following prizes were awarded: Philadelphia Alumni medal for best all-around senior, W. Ernest Griffith; visitors and governors medal for the highest average in junior class, George Francis Bevan; alumni medal for highest average in sophomore class, William H. Wheeler; Simmons medal for highest average in the freshman class, Cora Reed McWhorter; C. C. Gumm medal for highest average in mathematics, Helen B. Jones; Harry P. Porter character medal, Elias W. Nuttle; Simpers medal for declamation, first honor to Naomi B. Baxter, and second to T. H. Owen Knight; Samuel Towner Rogers prizes for debating, first honor to T. H. Owen Knight and second to Chas. Edward Duffy; Adelphia Literary Society medal, David McMenamin; Mt. Vernon Literary Society medal, Preston P. Heck; Varsity Club medal for service in athletics, Chas. E. Duffy.

The dance was held at night. Bohl's Orchestra of Baltimore, furnished music during the day and evening.

FOURTH SET OF TWINS

With the arrival Wednesday morning of two fine, bouncing boys, the fourth set of twins came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Dorrell at Centreville Landing.

The two hale, hearty youngsters, made a total of nineteen childre nborn in the Dorrell home.

The mother of the fourth set of twins is only 38 years old, and ten of the nineteen children are now living. The Dorrell home, probably grown accustomed to the arrival of twins, was not even excited over what would customarily be regarded as an unusual event.

NO STAMP TAX ON NOTES AFTER JULY 2

The banks of Kent county were officially notified that the law requiring a United States Stamp tax on notes, draft, and bills of exchange would be repealed effective July 2nd.

Under the Revenue Act of 1921 United States documentary stamps were required to be fixed to promissary notes, drafts or bills of exchange in the amount of two cents for each hundred dollars or fraction thereof. The Revenue Act of 1924, approved June 2, 1924, and effective July 2nd, 1924, omits the requirements with reference to documentary stamps on promisary notes, drafts, and bills of exchange.

Therefore notes, drafts, and bills of exchange executed and dated on or after July 2, 1924, will not require United States revenue stamps. Kent county people must remember that stamps must be affixed to all notes executed and dated prior to July 2, 1924. Other nuisance taxes are repealed.

Notice To Shippers

The County Commissioners for Kent county, by virtue of an Act of the General Assembly of Maryland, Chapter 487, passed at its session of 1880, hereby give notice that a uniform charge of one-quarter of a cent per basket will be made for each basket of tomatoes shipped from or over the county wharves season of 1924. There will be no charge upon shipments of wheat, corn or other grains this season.

The county wharves have been put in usable condition at considerable expense and the commissioners feel that a small part of the cost should be borne by the traffic.

This is not a tax on the grower but a charge by law laid on owner of boat.

By order of the Commissioners for Kent County.
