The good people of the Shrewsbury Church, to show their interest and good will, have decided to dispense with their regular afternoon services and come with their pastor to our afternoon session. We deeply appreciate the warm fellowship spirit thus shown by these sister churches.

Our little choir will be reinforced by singers from other communities. Among them, a quartette of male voices from the Young Men's Bible Class of Chestertown M. E. Church, which class has for its teacher, Postmaster John N. Bennett. We hope and pray for a good day.

Why are joy riders always in such a hurry? The morgue is open all night.
