The county road force are at work this week putting the road from Chestertown via Pomona to Cliff City in good condition.

The Texas oil tank, driven by Dumont Lambert, collided with Vernon M. Barnett's Essex Sedan on Chester bridge Thursday about noon. Mr. Barnett's car was badly wrecked. Misses Mildred Corson and Katherine Hargett, of Baltimore, were in the car and escaped with a few slight bruises, as did Mr. Barnett.

An unusual fire occurred in the third floor of the home of Harry C. Coleman on High street at 2 a. m. Tuesday. An electric iron on which the current was left had set fire to the ironing board and a box on which the board rested. Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Allen, next door, discovered the fire and gave the alarm. The Fire Co. was on the spot quickly and soon had the condition under control. Smoke enveloped the third story and baffled the firemen for awhile. Quite a large crowd turned out. The loss was small as no water was turned on.

Under the annual readjustment of postmasters' salaries, effective July 1, numerous changes are effected in the classes of postoffices throughout Maryland. The only Kent county office affected is at Galena, which is reduced from a third-class to a fourth-class office. The announcement was made Monday by the Postoffice Department.

An automobile driven by a man from Princess Anne collided with an electric light pole on Corner of Washington avenue and Kent street about 6.30 o'clock Sunday morning, throwing the man and his companion, a small colored boy, to the ground. Each sustained cuts and bruises but were not seriously injured. The car was badly damaged. The man repaired the car and proceeded on his way.

Dr. Paul Emerson Titsworth delivered a fine address in Christ M. P. Church Sunday evening his theme being "Americanism." He defined "Liberty" as being something to use for the benefit of our fellows, as food is used to make the physical man so liberty is given us so that we may become of service. This service may be rendered more efficient in becoming more educated, in showing our good-will to man and in being religious. Rev. N. O. Gibson presided at the meeting.

The home of Miss Lucy Frazier on High street has been repainted and looks quite neat.

The Kent Building & Loan Company retired its 35th series of installment shares on June 30, at $100 and opened the 48th series Monday night. The company now has assets of nearly $150,000 as is shown by the semi-annual statement published elsewhere in this issue.

The convention news by radio was received in Chestertown. At the Lyceum, L. B. Russell kept open house. Prof. Louis Thibodeau sat at the switch and rendered excellent service. A. S. Turner & Sons, S. W. Granbery, Eliason Motors Co., H. R. Graham, Howard Strong, Clarke Davis, Simon Westcott, Roy Barnett and others caught the news and gave it out to friends.

One of the worst rain storms of the year visited the upper section of Kent county Tuesday afternoon, the down pour near Church Hill amounting to a cloudburst. The road at the foot of a hill on the outskirts of Church Hill was flooded with water several feet deep and a horse and carriage carrying three small children taking refuge on a tree having to be rescued by several men. Corn and tomato fields were inundated with water six inches deep in places. Chestertown had only a light shower.

W. F. Russell, Jr., Esq., reports a member of the Ku Klux Klan on his premises Tuesday night. Mr. Russell noticed a man with a handkerchief over his face peering through a window. He secured his revolver, and saw the man crawling along the fence in the rear of the property and fired a shot, but the man disappeared. He notified the sheriff and he and his deputy made a thorough search of the premises, but could find no trace of the man.

Special clinic in the Kent County Health Center, which is in the Eliason Building. This clinic will be held July 14th, at 9 o'clock, Monday morning. Dr. John M. Nicholas will be in charge. He will examine any lung, chest or throat cases (or if one suspect that may have been in contact with any one suffersing with any such troubles) it is a precaution to be examined. Your state affords you this privilege. take advantage of it, protect yourself, protect others in your family and your community. For us all "The Ounce of Prevention is Worth a Pound of Cure." Be interested in keeping well rather than being made well. Have a thorough examination and give a copy of the result to your family doctor for reference.

The Lyceum Theatre will be open Friday and Saturday evenings with the usual program of fine pictures.

A terrific rain storm visited the upper section of Kent county and parts of Queen Anne's county, early Tuesday morning.

R. Woodie White, of Townsend, Del., has been appointed section foreman of the local Pennsylvania Railroad Co., to succeed F. Benjamin Rust, who reached the retirement age this week. Mr. White has entered upon his duties.

A meeting of the creditors of Wilson L. Hedwell, recently adjudged bankrupt, was held at the office of Sidney P. Townshend, Esq., Tuesday morning at which time L. Bates Russell was named trustee. Wm. G. Smyth, Chas. M. Lloyd and George W. Rash were appointed to appraise the estate.

Sometime ago the County Commissioners gave notice of closing the road leading over the old Parson's mill dam, owing to the dangerous condition of the tumble dam. Residents of the neighborhood made a vigorous protest against this and about the same time, Clinton E. Woods, the new owner of the old mill property, proposed to bear a part of the expense of putting in a culvert in place of the tumble dam. The cost was estimated at about $500 and the work is about two-thirds completed. Mr. Woods this week forwarded his check for $250, his share of the improvement.

A LONG TRIP ON MOTOR CYCLE

Philip N. Gooding, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gooding, formerly of Betterton, now living in Baltimore, is on a trip to the Pacific Coast and elsewhere on his motor cycle. He left Baltimore May 30, arrived in Wheeling, W. Va., June 5th, Indianapolis next day and struck bad roads only making 130 miles in 14 hours. He passed through 60 miles of wheat in Missiuri and Kansas. He visited Yosemite Park where he rode over a road 16 feet wide and 4 miles long with a drop of 3,000 feet on his right. He camped out two nights where he met 36 other campers from 14 different states. He had to break ice in the lake in which to wash his face while in Kent the mercury was 92 degrees. When last heard from he was traveling in Montana, Oregon and down the coast to San Francisco. He has passed thru 23 states and up Pike's Peak 14½ miles where he struck a snow bank which prevented his going further.

MEMORIES OF FATHER

Mrs. L. J. C. B. Creighton

The old songs are the best songs child,
The Memories that burn
As father singing melodies
To boys and girls at home
Oh, father tender feet you watched
As little child at play
On through the years of older days
Your boys and girls did stray,
But father we are housed at last
Safe in your precious arms
For memories to burn and burn
Until we reach God's throne.

EDITOR INDICTED FOR SENDING UNPAID PAPERS

The time was when some editors used to mail their papers to persons hoping to collect unpaid bills from their estates, but apparently "them days is gone forever." An Illinois editor has just been indicted for making false circulation statements. It appears that many of his subscriptions were more than a year due so that the postal department on checking up finds he owes the government $6500 additional postage, due to change in classification when subscriptions are unpaid, to say nothing of criminal charges.

Subscibers to the News who are annoyed when their papers are cut out after going unpaid will thus see we have real cause for taking such drastic steps. Uncle Sam's inspectors are on the job and so must we be.
