KENT NEWS.

CHESTER TOWN, Md.

SATURDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 23, 1856.

☞ We call the attention of our agricultural readers to the advertisement of Messrs. J. J. & F. Turner, in another column.

THE PRESIDENCY.—The American National Convention, to nominate a Presidential ticket, assembled at Philadelphia yesterday. The nomination was, no doubt, postponed, until a future day.

☞ The entertainment Wednesday evening, for the benefit of the poor, passed off very pleasantly. The amount realized from both Concerts, after deducting expenses, was $68 69, which has been properly distributed.

SERIOUS CHARGE.—A young man named Edward D. Worrell, formerly of this place, was arrested at Dover, Del., on Thursday last, charged with the murder of Basil H. Gordon, Esq., in Missouri, some three weeks since. Two gentlemen from the latter State, arrived here on Monday in search of the murderer, expecting to find him in this county—hearing of his whereabouts they proceeded to Dover, where he was arrested. The prisoner was taken back to Missouri, to answer the charge. The gentlemen who arrested Worrell, stated while here, that they had positive proof that he was the murderer—his accomplice had been arrested before they left Missouri. We clip the following account of this horrible tragedy from the St. Louis Daily Intelligencer:

"About two weeks ago, Mr. Gordon, Assistant Engineer on the North Missouri Railroad, mysteriously disappeared, and no little interest was manifested by his friends and the community in general as to his fate. A few days previously, Major Walker, Mr. Sturgeon and himself had proceeded in company to the northern part of the State to collect the subscriptions made by the counties in that region to the stock in said road.

After this object had been accomplished the party separated at Mexico, the two former proceeding to Jefferson city, and the latter starting for St. Louis, where it was expected that he would arrive about three days before his companions. On their arrival here, they could hear no tidings of him, and day before yesterday they started off in search of him. The first information they got of Mr. G. was at Warrenton, about thirty-three miles from this city, where they learned that he had been seen in company with two other persons, apparently farmers, travelling towards St. Louis, all three on horseback. Following up this clue, they found a small house about three miles this side of Warrenton, where the party had stopped all night, continuing their journey in the morning. No other information could be learned from the landlady, who mentioned however, incidentally, that some of her family had found a saddle in the woods, the day after they left. On being shown the saddle Mr. S. immediately recognized it as the one on which Mr. Gordon had been riding. They then set out on a search through the woods, but discovering nothing returned to Warrenton for additional force to continue the search. They procured the assistance of a large number of railroad attaches, and a fine hunting dog, which proved in the end a valuable acquisition. They had renewed the search but a little while, when the dog struck a trail of blood under the snow which being followed up, led to the corpse of Mr. Gordon, at the head of a small ravine, not far distant from the place where the saddle had been found. On examination, it was found that he had been killed by a bullet passing through the back of his head in a slanting direction, showing that he had been shot from behind, and by a person at the left side of him. His pockets were turned inside out, and rifled of everything they contained.

There is no doubt that the murderers of Mr. G. supposed that he was bringing to this city, the money collected for the railroad subscriptions above mentioned, but such was not the fact; nor did the deceased have anything about him of any considerable value.

The murderers have not yet been discovered, but the two persons who left Warrenton with Mr. Gordon, and spent the night with him at the house above mentioned, were seen to enter Warrenton the next day, leading his horse. A person who recognized the horse stopped them and asked if they traded for it, to which they replied in the affirmative.

The deceased was an unmarried man, about thirty five years of age, and his connections reside in Maryland and Virginia. He was well known in this community, and generally respected as a man of high honor and integrity.

DEAD.—The Cecil Whig announces the death of James H. Jamar, Esq. Register of Wills for Cecil county.

☞ J. B. Gough, the temperance advocate, is now lecturing in Baltimore.

Arrival of the Canada!

One week later from Europe—No tidings of the Steamer Pacific—Peace prospects encouraging—Queen Victoria's Speech—Large decline in Breadstuffs.

Halifax, Feb. 17, P. M.—The steamer Canada arrived here this forenoon, with Liverpool dates to Saturday, the 9th inst., being one week later than previous advices.

She brings no tidings of the missing steamer Pacific.

The steamer Atlantic arrived out on the 31st ult.

The steamer Belgique was still at Southampton. Her cargo had been discharged, but was not much injured.

All accounts of the present condition of the negotiations speak favorably for peace.

The Peace Congress meets at Paris about the 18th. It was doubtful if Prussia would be admitted to participate in the deliberations.

The speech of Queen Victoria in the meeting of Parliament is quite a meagre document. It does not mention American affairs.

The London Morning Advertiser says: Mr. Buchanan and Lord Palmerston had an interview at the Foreign office on Tuesday, when very angry words passed touching the Central American question.

Despatches received at Vienna from Russia confirm the telegraphic announcement of the unconditional acceptance of peace propositions by the Czar. A memorendum embodying the propositions had been signed at Vienna and sent to London and Paris.

It is reported that the Peace Congress will meet at Paris on the 17th of February, and that the affair will be concluded by the 25th. The signing of the preliminaries prior to the opening of the Congress only awaits the arrival of the Turkish plenipotentiary.

It is reported that Prussia refuses to agree to the conditions exacted by the allies, preliminary to her admission into the Peace Conference; and that consequently, she will be excluded. Baron Crunow and Court Orloff are the Russian Plenipotentiaries. Lord Clarendon represents England; the Marquis Dazeglio, Sardina; Count Buol Austria; M. Malewski, France, and Dervish Pacha, Turkey.

THE BALTIC.

Letters received to the 30th ult., speak of mild weather—and the resumption of navigation more or less at Pillau, Memel and Cuxhaven. The ice was breaking up.

THE CRIMEA.

The correspondence from the English camps to January 15th reports the army healthy. The Russians continue to fire from the North Forts. Prince Gortschakoff had handed over the command to General Luiders and issued another valedictory to the commanders in the Crimea.

THE LATEST.

London, Saturday.—The peace protocol memorandum was signed yesterday at Vienna by the Ministers of the five powers, and a short armistice will next be agreed upon.

Breadstuffs have greatly declined.

[Correspondenc of the Baltimore Sun.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20, 1856.

Defeat of the Republican Party on the Kansas Question—Mr. Whitfield likely to Retain His Seat—The Confirmation of Gov. Shannon's Appointment and Senator Wilson's Attack on Him—The Clayton Bulwer Treaty, &c.

The Republican party sustained a signal defeat in the House to day upon the Kansas question. The resolution reported from the committee an elections authorising the committee to send for persons and papers in relation to the Kansas contested election was recommitted by a majority of nine votes. This is the second defeat of the party upon legislative questions, and it is significant of the rupture of that organizaation which stood so firmly during the contest for the choice of a Speaker. There are not supposed to be more than fifty Republicans in the House after taking from their nominal strength those whose affinities are with the American rather than the Republican party.

The prospect now is that Gen. Whitfield will retain his seat. A few weeks ago, his friends were so certain of defeat, that they were disposed to agree to a proposition for sending the election back to the people of Kansas, accompanied by a new election law, but there is no longer any necessity for a concession of that sort, on their side.

Governor Shannon's nomination, as Governor of Kansas, was confirmed yestdrday by the Senate, with only twelve dissenting votes, immediately after, though not wholly in consequence of, the attack upon him, which had just been made in the open session. Senator Wilson did not, however, suffer the nomination to pass in silence, but renewed his protest against it. The Senator when he made in the open session, the remarks which were apparantly prepared for the secret session, frankly announced that he regretted Gov. Shannon's absence, and would be responsible to him there or elsewhere for what he said.

In fact there was no necessity for the Governor to sit for the portrait drawn of him, for it is not probable that in the hands of this senatorial artist it would, under any circumstances, have been of a flattering kind.

Important disclosures and explanations were made in the Senate to-day in regard to the negotiation of the Clayton-Bulwer Treaty, all going to confirm the opinion that the distinguished negotiator (Mr. Clayton) had made the treaty in good faith with England and towards his own government—that he had covered up nothing and left no gaps through which England could retreat. The explanations confirms the general impression that our interpretation of the treaty is correct. ION.

Maryland Legislature.

ANNAPOLIS, Feb. 16, 1856.

SENATE.

Mr. Hoffman reported a bill to incorporate the Sassafras River Railroad Company.

The House of Delegates was not in session to-day, having at six o'clock last evening adjourned over till Mouday.

The following proceedings occurred yesterday after I closed my letter:

Bills Reported.—By Mr. Hall, for relief of the sureties on the bond of J. W. Baker of Montgomery Co. Also, to incorporate the Manufacturers Fire Insurance Company of Maryland.

The election of State Treasurer was then proceeded with, with the following result: Dr. Dennis Claude, 48 votes; Dennis A. Claude, 2 votes; Dick Simpson, 1 vote, and there were 12 blanks. The Speaker pro tem. (Mr. Frazier) declared Dr. Dennis Claude duly elected. [The opposition to Dr. Claude, I understand, was because of a letter of his to the Central Committee of Anne Arundel county, and it being rumored that he did not belong to the order.]

The election of Bank Directors followed with the following result:—For the Mechanics Bank of Baltimore, Truman Belt, 53 votes: J. Bond Chaplin, 54 votes.—For the Easton Bank, J. B. Thomas had 54 votes; J. H. Harris, 50 votes; and J. B. Harris, 3 votes. For the Hagerstown Bank, Mathew S. Barber and Frederick D. Herbert, 55 votes each.

The following, I learn, was the ballot in caucus, for Keeper of Chancery Records:

First ballot—Jones, 17; Harris, 20; Turner 4; Booth 10. Second Ballot—Jones, 31; Harris 20.

The committee of ways and means reported unfavorably upon the bill of Mr. Lester to restrict the granting of license for the sale of intoxicating liquors. Mr. Lester spoke earnestly and at some length in opposition to the adoption of the unfavorable report, after which the subject was postponed to Tuesday next.

The bill for the erection of a State fire proof record office was rejected by a vote of ayes 22, nays 29. [This bill was defeated, professedly by some of the Eastern Shore advocates of the appropriation of the balance of $1,000,000 claimed to be due it, who decline to vote any appropriations until they exact what they consider a measure of justice to them.]

SENATE.

Petition Presented.—By Mr. Wilkins from the Chestertown Masonic Hall Company.

At the night session, yesterday, the House was engaged in reading bills the second time.

I understand that yesterday the Governor sent to the Senate his biennial nominations. They have not yet been made public. There are few changes in the appointments made two years ago.

National American Convention—The Sessions made Public—The Reporters Admitted.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 20.—The National American Convention re-assembled today at Franklin Hall, President Bartlett in the chair.

The resolution for the admission of the reporters was passed, and the deliberations were thus made public.

The subject under debate for nearly the entire day, has been the rescinding of the 12th section of the platform.

Mr. Ford, of Ohio, made a strong anti-slavery speech, increasing the dissatisfaction of the Southern members and inducing some of them to move to adjourn sine die, which was laid on the table.

A proposition to vote by States, each being entitled to vote according to its proper number of representatives, was debated and withdrawn.

The rescinding resolution was then debated till 8 o'clock, when an amendment was offered appointing a committee of one from each State to substitute for the 12th section a declaration of rights, which was carried by a vote of 104 to 65.

A scene of confusion ensued, ending in adjournment, pending the vote on the resolution as amended.

It is believed that the whole Southern delegation will withdraw in a body if the resolution is adopted.

Dinner to Hon. Henry M. Fuller.

Wilkesbarre, Pa. Feb. 19.—The friends and neighbors of the Hon. Henry M. Fuller M. C. from this district, gave him a public dinner yesterday which was participated in by Whigs Know-Nothings and Democrats. Mr. Fuller being called out made a speech of some length, vindicating the course of himself and friends during the struggle for the Speakership, and arguing that his position on the slavery question as sound, National and conservative. He deprecated the agitation of the question in and out of Congress, as calculated to inflame the public and sectional divisions. He desired that the men of the North and the men of the South should live and act as brethren. He also showed that the Hon. Chester Butler, former Whig Representative from this district advocated in Congress the doctrine that States should be admitted recongizing or excluding slavery as the people might determine. He thought the people of the territories should be left to act, unmolested, for themselves, and that attempts to coerce their action were improper and to be discountenanced. His remarks were received with manifestations of great pleasure, eliciting much applause. He returns to Washington, with an assurance of good will and support of all who have met him on this visit.

LOSS OF THE LOUIS NAPOLEON.—The Baltimore ship Louis Napoleon, under the command of Capt. Judas Chase, has been lost at sea—the officers and crew saved. The Sun says: This magnificent specimen of marine architecture was one of the most beautiful vessels ever constructed at this port, and was visited by admiring crowds during the time she remained at this port receiving cargo, and getting ready for her first voyage. She cleared at the Baltimore custom-house, on the 15th December, by Messrs. S. Fenby & Bro., with the following cargo: 8,842 barrels flour; 22,681 bushels wheat; 131 bales cotton; 100 tierces beef; 100 boxes sugar; 565 barrels oil cake and 30 barrels grape fruit, constituting one of the largest and most valuable cargoes ever shipped from this port. Her tonnage was estimated at 1,870 tons burthen.

She was valued at $100,000; her cargo was valued at $125,000—making the entire loss in vessel and cargo $225,000.

ATTENTION FARMERS!

Guano excelled by 'De Burg.'

The great advantage De Burgs Super Phosphate has over Guano, is attributed to the large amont of fertilizing matter, Phosphates and Ammonia, which it contains.

It is a settled point with all chemist and scientific farmers that Peruvian Guano only supplies about one half of the phosphates that is required to grow wheat, rye, oats, corn, vegetables, &c., and that is the reason that land becomes exhausted and impoverished by its continued application. Whereas De Burgs Super Phosphate supplies more than is required, by the crops, and is quite as effective in its action of inducing early maturity as guano, much more durable and fertilizing to the soil and less volatile.

It is adapted for all crops and all soils, as a proof, we have testimonials from Maland to Georgia, and from every county in this State, from every variety of soil, and from gentlemen well known as intelligent farmers—some of whom have tried it for two years on fall and spring crops with pleasing results, in every instance. We name Hon. J. A. Pearce, G. W. T. Perkins, L. M. Strong, J. Uric, W. W. Shepherd, Wm. Emory, T. D. C. Ruth, Esqs., and many others.

Francis Cann, Esq. says: "I never had so fine a field of corn as I have at present. The corn and potatoes grown by "De Burg" were much superior in quality and quantity to those grown by No. 1, Peruvian Guano, at the same rate per acre. I think it the best fertilizer I ever tried and cheaper than guano."

Josiah Ringgold, Kent co. says: "I applied De Burg and Peruvian Guano separately, each at the rate of 200 lbs. per acre, on same quality of land in corn, oats and vegetables, and I think where DeBurg was used that my crops were much the best."

Wm. T. Skirven, Esq., Kent co., says: "There was a manifest difference in the growth of the corn where I applied "De Burg" over that which was guanoed.—My wheat sown with "De Burg" looks better than my guanoed wheat."

☞ Every lot we receive is inspected and analyzed by the Chemist to the Md. Agricultural Society, who draws samples himself from entire cargo, and rejects all that does not come up to the fixed standard, thereby guaranteeing to the farmer a uniformity not to be found in any guano or other manure.

The best proof of the value of this fertilizer as entertained by the agricultural community is the greatly increased demand for it, which is beyond precedent in any other manure. In consequence of which many imitations have been put upon the market. Farmers should be particular and buy none but "De Burgs Supher Phosphate" and to secure the genuine article, order it direct from us.

Price $43 per 2000 pounds, in 8 bbls.

Philadelphia, Feb. 21.—Edward D. Worrell, charged with the murder of Mr. Gordon, was arrested at Dover, Del., by the officers who tracked him hither.—He goes west with them voluntarily without waiting for a requisition. While at Smyrna, awaiting a train Worrell confessed to being present at the murder, but denied its commission, asserting that a persoe with whom he was in company, but whose nome he did not mention, had murdered him. He stated that they were all riding in company. he being a little ahead and his companion with the murdered man, and that upon hearing a pistol fired he turned and saw Gordon fall from his horse, which started to run; that he pursued and caught the horse, returning with which he found his companion had rifled the pockets of the murdered man, which contained about $24, which he kept, Worrell taking the watch and saddle bags as his portion of the booty.
