Locals

The flocking of black birds is one sign of an early Fall.

There were 203 excursionists from Chestertown to Atlantic City on Wednesday.

The price of wheat and corn have been nearer together during the past month than for many years. Both quoted at about $1.25.

Peaches are plentiful in lower Delaware. Chestertown autoists went to Wyoming this week and brought home splendid fruit at 20 cents per basket. Hucksters are asking 75 cents and $1.00 in town.

Herman Steinke, of Millington, has purchased a lot on High street from George H. Cannan, and is erecting for himself a bungalow. He will remove his family to Chestertown.

In another column will be found the sale of J. T. Moffett's fine lot of personalty. He will quit farming and sell on the Fowle farm, near Melitota, on Thursday, Sept. 11th, the articles noted.

Mr. Lecates, from Bethel Cannery, Caroline County, has been hauling tomatoes from Kent farmers who did not contract and paying 40 cents cash for same.

Mrs. Frank Baxter, one of Kent's most successful turkey raisers, met with a big loss last Friday. Two hens, a gobbler and 45 young turkeys were killed by some animal in the woods near the house.

The alarm of fire Wednesday morning was caused by a fire in Jones & Satterfield's shop. It was soon extinguished. A false alarm was sounded Tuesday by a little colored girl pushing the electric button.

Saturday night in Chestertown was as usual, a busy time. Hundreds of cars were parked on either side of the street and the visitors to town were well entertained. The band which usually plays in the bandstand gave up the "Square" to a medicine show and the "Holy Rollers."

Elmer A. Cole, residing at Bridgetown, is harvesting 19 acres of string beans this season, hauling them to Crumpton, 22 miles from his home. Mr. Cole is the pioneer bean grower in his section, and says the crop is a paying one if a fair yield is realized At present he has engaged 75 pickers, who average from $2.50 to $4.50 per day. The beans sell for $50 per ton delivered, and the estimated yield from the 19 acres is placed at from 65 to 80 tons.

Gill Bros. have caught the fan fever. They are giving away numbered fans each week. The "lucky" number gets a half gallon of their ice cream. Earle Pinder with 401 drew the prize last week. No. 366 is the lucky number this week.

A Chevrolet sedan driven and owned by George W. Baldwin took fire near Urieville hill at noon Friday and was completely destroyed. Mr. Baldwin had an insurance policy for $200 which would have expired Aug. 28th.

John K. Flick, a contractor, of Sudlersville, was robbed of a handbag and two certified checks for $500 each while in Baltimore on Monday. Mr. Flick had parked his car at Mosher and Fremont street while he attended to some business. The bag was left in the car and when he returned it was gone. Baltimore police were immediately notified and started a search for the missing articles. On Tuesday afternoon the bag and the two checks, payable to the State Roads Commission, were found by a policeman in a doorway near the streets where the car was parked. They were immediately identified by Mr. Flick as his property.

Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Mabrey, of Jersey City, N. J., and C. E. DeLasier, of Butler, N. J., spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. J. Walter Biggers, of Worton. They motored to Ocean City on Sunday and will return with Mr. and Mrs. Mabrey to New York City for a week.

Miss Adelaide Lambert, representing the New York Swimming Club won the 50-yard open swim for girls in the swimming meet at Patterson Park, Baltimore, last Saturday. Miss Catherine Lambert, a sister of the winner finished in third.

James Thomas, colored, had his upper lip severely cut by being thrown into a wire fence, at Lankford, on Monday, when the team of horses which he was driving became frightened at flying canvas used to protect the load of fertilizer, which he was hauling for Capt. Howard Hadaway. Thomas was rushed to Fairlee where Dr. Frank W. Smith rendered medical aid.

A deal involving a desirably located waterfront farm was perfected Wednesday, when Andrew W. Wilson, of Georgetown, sold his Knight's Island farm, situated on the Sassafras and Elk rivers, to a company of sportsmen from Baltimore, who will convert the place into a game preserve. The farm contains between 500 and 600 acres of land and is regarded as one of the best locations near the Chesapeake Bay for ducking purposes. The place will be greatly improved and a club house erected for the pleasure of the sportsmen.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Maul have returned from a great trip to Boston and other places of interest.

—Over fifteen hundred horses and four thousand people take part in "The Dancer of the Nile" which will be shown Friday and Saturday at the Lyceum. The production is said to be one of the biggest ever made at Hollywood and used an entire valley to build its gigantic sets. The story is based on the romance of the younger days of King "Tut" and was directed and produced by William P. S. Earle. Carmel Myers, Malcolm McGregor and June Elvidge are its featured players with an ideal supporting cast.

William G. Smythe, secretary of the County Farm Bureau, has sold his motor boat to John Forman, of near Fairlee, at private sale.

Rumsey Anthony has a fine display of Cannas on his front field near Chester bridge.

Charles Embert and family will remove to the Taylor house on Cannon street. We regret to state that Mr. Taylor will remove his family to Pennsylvania.

Mr. and Mrs. Tobe Joiner have rented the Embert house on Cross street and will remove there next month.

A splendid rain visited this county Monday and did lots of good.

Capt. W. C. A. Thompson's Edna Hal won the 2.22 pace at Salisbury, best time 2.16¼. She is some stepper.

Simon Evans has sold his house on Scott's Point to Charles Anderson for $700.

Frank Toth who has been out on bail has been surrendered by his bondsmen and is now in jail awaiting trial for shooting boy in Quaker Neck.

Henry Eierman at Reese' Corner has 8 acres of tomatoes not contracted for. He is selling them to The Phillips Packing Co. at 40 cents per basket.

The Election Supervisors expect to discontinue the appointment of some officials, including door or rail keepers.

The Election Supervisors are looking for a voting place in Chestertown inasmuch as the Orphans' Court room has recently been repainted and fixed up in splendid condition.

Time, tide and Chautauqua tickets wait for no man. After Chautauqua opens it's too late to buy a season ticket. Get yours and see all the sessions. Chautauqua will be held on the same lot as last year—entrance opposite Grammar School.

The owners of the steamer "General Lincoln" contemplate running its steamer "General Lincoln" on a daily service from points on the Chester river, including Chestertown Queenstown and Rock Hall to Baltimore. The steamer "General Lincoln" has been running between Baltimore and Bay Shore and was licensed to carry seven hundred passengers, she can carry about 100 tons of freight. She would be thrice welcome.

A BIRTHDAY PARTY

Mrs. Julia Ammel, of Fairlee, was given a surprise on her 73rd birthday by her children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Stauffer, at Fairlee. The table was set on the lawn and beautifully decorated with cut flowers and ferns and loaded with fruits, cake, ice cream and punch and lighted with lanterns. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. John E. Ammel, Eugene Ammel, A. Stauffer, Len Stauffer, Ray Bew, Lee Barnes, J. Toulson, Ollie Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Peter A. Stokes, Mrs. Stauffer, Miss Miriam Stauffer. Those from Baltimore were Mr. and Mrs. John L. Hayman, Harrison Hayman, Miss Emma Hayman, Charles Ammel, Mrs. Frances Bell, Miss Robertta Bell.

Public Sale of Personal Property

By virtue of an order of sale passed by the District Court of the United States for the District of Maryland in the matter of Robert D. Hoopes Bankrupt, No. 4302, the undersigned as Trustee will offer at public sale to the highest bidder on the terms hereinafter set forth, at the "Great Oak Manor" or "Deputy Farm," where the said Robert D. Hoopes now resides, located in Sixth Election District on public road, leading through the village of Melitota to Chesapeake Bay, and adjoining the lands of Rufus F. Parks and others on beginning at 10.30 o'clock in the morning, all of the following personal porperty:

Friday, Sept. 12, 1924

13 Cows & Heifers

ONE JERSEY BULL

Pair Mules & 1 Horse

One manure spreader, 1 sleigh, 1 4-horse wagon and 1 2-horse wagon corn cutter, mower, 2 3-horse plows 1 tractor, harness, 1 drill, 1 binder, 1 corn planter, 2 sets wagon springs, set dearborn rack, 1 feed mill, 1 tomato rigging, 6 milk cans, 1 hay fork, 1 automobile, 1 engine and pump, 1 vise, 5 coops, 2 wood and 3 iron; 1 wheelbarrow seeder, 2 tons of hay in loft, 12 tons hay, mixed, in ricks in fields, 1 hay loader, 1 side delivery rake and tedder, 2 riding cultivators, 1 tractor, 1 20 International, 1 double plow for tractor, 1 double disc harrow for tractor, etc.

TERMS OF SALE:—All sums of $25.00 and under, cash on day of sale, all sums over $25.00 a credit of six months from day of sale will be given, or all cash at the option of the purchaser. Credit payments to bear interest from day of sale and to be secured by the promissory note of the purchaser with security to be approved by the Trustee. No goods allowed to be removed from premises until final settlement.

HERBERT E. PERKINS,
Trustee.

To the Creditors of Robert D. Hoopes, Bankrupt; Take notice that the property mentoned in the aforegoing advertisement, this day inserted in the Kent News, will be offered for sale at the time, place and upon the terms therein stated.

SIDNEY P. TOWNSHEND,
Referee.

Dated this 29 day of August, 1924
Chestertown, Md.
H. Stockton Start, Auct.

NOTICE

Will buy all junk and pay highest market prices for same. Pay cash. je21-1yr.

DEATHS

Mrs. Percy G. Skirven died at her home in Baltimore Saturday night after an operation at the Hospital a few weeks previous. She was before marriage Miss Mamie Gemmill, one of Kent's handsome women. She leaves a husband, two married daughters and one single. The interment took place at St. Paul's Cemetery on Tuesday, Dr. S. S. Hepbron, a longtime friend, officiating.

Dr. Joseph Elliott Gilpin, aged 58, professor of chemistry at John Hopkins University, died on Monday at Chestertown, at the home of Capt. Edward W. Emory, on Chester river. Dr. Gilpin, with his wife, was visiting Mrs. Gilpin's cousins, the Misses Emory, on Chester river, near Chestertown. Shirtly after supper Monday night he was taken ill and died a few hours later. Until then he was apparently in the best of health.

Besides his wife, Dr. Gilpin is survived by a daughter.

The funeral was held in Baltimore Wednesday, interment in Loudon Park Cemetery. The pall-bearers were

Dr. E. Emmet Ried, Dr. John C. French, Dr. J. C. W. Frazier, of Hopkins, T. R. Ball, former registrar of Hopkins; Charles Baldwin, lawyer, and Harry A. Lane, chief engineer of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company.

Mrs. Ruth Rasin, wife of McCall Rasin, of Frankford, Del., died at the hospital in Milford, Del., on Sunday last of intestinal trouble, aged 23 years. She leaves besides her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Messick, of Frankford, Del., a husband also an infant daughter, nine days old. The deceased lived in Chestertown for two years and while here endeared herself to everyone. Funeral service was held from her late home in Frankford, Del., Tuesday. A large delegation of friends from Chestertown M. E. Church, of which she was an active member, attended.

James Hickey, formerly of Rock Hall, died Saturday morning, August 23rd, 1924, at the home of his son, James, at Hamilton, Md., at the age of about 85 years. The remains were brought to Rock Hall Sunday via ferry and interred in St. Paul's cemetery, the funeral service being read by the Rev. W. H. Revelle, of Rock Hall M. E. Church, where Mr. Hickey was at one time a member. He leaves a wife and four sons, John William, Walter and James, all of whom live in Baltimore and vicinity except Walter who is a resident of Florida. All were present at the burial of their aged father. Mrs. Hickey will go to Florida with her son until the spring.

The Cecilton Carnival was a great success. The Improvement Company headed by John Anderson, Julian Robinson, George Padley, Alvah Price and Wayne Stradley, state that more than $750 was taken in. Sudler Gorman, of near Middletown, won the 1925 Durant touring car. William Boulden, of Cecilton, carried away the refrigerator. William H. Jones of Cecilton, is the possessor of the cedar chest from Miller Brothers, of Wilmington. Miss Henrietta Oldham, of Washington, D. C., won the blue and white breakfast suite. Lewis Rhodes, of near Earleville, drove away the pony.

Personal And Social Notes.

Wm. B. Usilton, junior editor of Kent News, is enjoying a few days respite from business at Atlantic City.

Mrs. Jennie Gorsuch and son, James, of Baltimore, are visiting Col. Lloyd and sister on High St.

Zay T. Davis, of Wilmington, Del., is the guest of his parents on the Avenue.

Mrs. W. F. Russell returned Saturday from a five-weeks visit to her daughter in New Jersey.

Mrs. W. F. Russell, Jr., and two children, are visiting the former's mother and sisters at Birmingham, Alabama.

Mrs. Howard Strong and son are spending the week at the home of parents in Georgetown, Md.

James Brown, one of Queen Anne's county's most respected and influential citizens reached his eighty-sixth birthday Friday, August 22nd. Mr. Brown has the unique distinction of having been born and lived all of his life at Ridgely, the Brown ancestral home, which has been in the Brown family for several generations and where his father and grandfather lived before him. Mr. Brown has been actively engaged in farming all of his life and has taken a leading part in public and political affairs. Mr. Brown married Miss Minnie S. Page at Waverly, N. Y., in 1862. They had four children, Arthur N. Brown who died several years ago, James P. Brown who is President of the Church Hill Bank and a member of the School Board for Queen Anne's county, Ernest Bonsal Brown and Mrs. Helen E. Bordley, who is the wife of Madison B. Bordley. Mr. Brown attended Washington College and after leaving there started looking after the real estate which he inherited from his father.

While swimming in the surf at Rehoboth Senator Dudley G. Roe, of Sudlersville, was painfully injured when he was thrown upon the beach by a huge breaker. A ligament in his right foot was twisted, and Mr. Roe has suffered considerable pain ever since.

Sailing from San Francisco last week for Bagino, Philippine Islands. Preston B. Heck, who was graduated from Washington College, Chestertown, in June, has accepted a position in the government schools in the Philippines.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. McKee have received word of the safe arrival of their daughter, Roselmer, at Panama. She is a trained nurse and expects to be in the U. S. Hospital two years.

Miss Violet Aldrich, of Boston, Mass., and Miss Primrose, of Wilmington, are guests of Mrs. Ella Clough, on Queen street.

Mrs. Mary Hayes and Miss Leona Carson, of Philadelphia, have returned home after a pleasant visit with her cousin, Mrs. S. T. Wiltbank.

Mrs. Milda Bennett and little daughter, Frances, are spending a few days with her aunt, Mrs. Carrie Register, of Crumpton.

Wilson Hatcherson, of Baltimore, was the week-end guest of his grandmother, Mrs. C. J. Hatcherson.

Miss Cora Moffett, of Baltimore, has been visiting relatives here the past week.

Mrs. Edgar Clark and daughter, Christine, spent several days last week in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Whittier C. Copper left last Saturday for Washington, D. C., making the trip around by water on the steamer Dorchester, as guests of their son, Calvin Copper, who is assistant purser on the steamer.

Mrs. Gladys Wickes and Mrs. C. V. Mason have returned from a delightful visit to ancestral home scenes in Virginia.

Mrs. J. W. Kirby, Associate State Councilor of the Daughters of America, visited Capitol Council of Annapolis on Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Kent Lambert injured her hand Monday in a washing machine. Dr. Whaland rendered medical attention.

Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Copper, of Chesare the guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Newsome.

Mr. and Mrs. Moses Meekins, of near Chestertown, entertained the following guests Sunday: Mrs. J. H. Copper, Walter C. Copper and three children, of Newark, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Watson and little son, Mrs. Adam Meekins and five children, of Worton, John Beck, of Lankford, and Miss Carrie Walters, of Chestertown.

Mrs. Ruth Cahall hopes to return from Easton Hospital today.

R. F. Parks is convalescing nicely from his broken hip and his friends hope to see him out again soon.

Miss Maud Duyer is visiting Miss Emma Ward in Salisbury.

Miss Bertha Reich, of Cumberland, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Ellsworth Newcomb.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wise and two daughters, of Norfolk, Va., are the guests of the latter's mother, Mrs. T. B. Elliott.

Miss Belle Duyer and nephew, Billie Duyer, of Baltimore, are the guests of the former's brother, Mr. Laurence Duyer.

Mrs. Albert Dugan and daughter, Miss Ruby, of Baltimore, spent last week the guest of Mrs. Horace Reed.

Mrs. Hiram Dugan and two sons, Franklin, and Joseph, of Baltimore, spent last week the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Woodland.

Rev. Edw. K. Copper and son, Kennard, of Evanstown, Illinois, were week-end guests of the former's sister, Mrs. M. E. Newsome.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hicks and son, of Carney's Point, N. J., were week-end guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William T. Hicks.

Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Tolar and two children, of Fayetteville, N. C., are the guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. T. Hicks, Mr. Tolar made the trip by auto.

Hyland Jewell, of New York, is spending a few days with his father, H. Theodore Jewell.

Miss Marion Brown, of Baltimore, is a guest at the home of her aunt, Mrs. J. Raymond Bowers.

Mrs. Fred S. Russell and daughter, Margaret, are spending two weeks with friends in Philadelphia and Ocean City, N. J.

Mrs. Wm. H. Lewis, of Baltimore, was the week-end guest of Mrs. T. G. Elliott.

Master Edward Lewis, of Baltimore, is spending two weeks the guest of his grandmother, Mrs. T. B. Elliott.

Little Miriam Sewell entertained a few of her little friends at a birthday party on Saturday afternoon at the home of her parents on High street in honor of her fourth birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cohee and four children, of Frederica, Del., were week-end guests of the latter's father Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Pleasanton.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rouse and little daughter, of Havre de Grace, are the guests of his mother, Mrs. Geo. R. Rouse.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Numbers, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Numbers, Sr., spent a couple days last week with the latter's brother, James S. Godwin, of Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Numbers, Jr. left last Thursday for Flint, Mich. after spending two months with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Numbers.

Misses Helen Connelly, Harriett S. Welch, Jack Stenger and friend are enjoying an auto trip to Canada and other northern points of interest.

Mrs. Norman Deitz and daughter, of Baltimore, are visiting her grandmother, Mrs. F. H. Greenwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Voss, of Brooklyn, N. Y., are visiting relatives in Kent and Cecil counties

George S. Biddle, of Rock Hall, was called to Wilmington Saturday to attend the funeral of his sister, Miss Ann Jane Biddle, who died there Wednesday, aged 82.

CHINA

THAT YOU ARE PROUD TO SET BEFORE YOUR FRIENDS

OF ALL OCCASIONS, the family gathering about the table is the most intimate Here are strengthened the ties of affection that hold the family close together, no matter how their paths diverge through life. Here are planted the memories that never fade. Hence the importance of a perfect setting of harmony—GOOD SILVER AND GOOD CHINA.

We carry five complete open stock patterns of imported china for your selection.

We take pleasure in showing our china. Give us a call.

H. B. ROTE, Jeweler.

Phone 98M. Chestertown, Maryland.

Auction Sale!

AT HURLOCK'S STORE STILL POND, MD.

Starting Wednesday, 3, 4, 5 & 6

We will have a legitimate Public Auction on the mentioned evenings and SATURDAY Afternoon, as we must vacate at once.

Come and buy Merchandise at your own price.

Store Will Positively Close on the 6th, Saturday Night

FIXTURES FOR SALE.

We will sell you Staple Merchandise way below cost.

CASH ONLY.

Max Wilson

WESTERN MARYLAND COLLEGE

WESTMINSTER, MD.

ALBERT NORMAN WARD, D. D., LL. D., President

For Young Men and Young Women in Separate Departments

Fifty-eighth Year Begins September 15, 1924

ADMISSION. Graduates from approved four-year High Schools admitted without conditions. Fifteen units required.

MODERN CURRICULUM. Eight courses leading to the A. B. degree are offered. Grouped about one of the following subjects as majors: English, History and Political Science, Mathematics and Physics, Chemistry and Biology, Modern Languages, Latin and Greek, Education, Home Economics. Special courses in Speech, Voice, and Piano. Unit of Reserve Officers' Training Corps is maintained by the Government.

LOCATION UNEXCELLED. 1000 feet above the sea in the highlands of Maryland. Pure air, pure water, charming scenery. One hour's run from Baltimore, two from Washington.

EQUIPMENT complete. Thirty acre campus; sixty acre college farm; modern buildings; comfortable living accommodations; laboraories; library of 15,000 volumes; gymnasium; power and heating plant. New athletic field, costing $50,000 now in use.

BOARD and TUITION $400.00.

New dormitory, costing $150,000 recently completed.

Prospectus for 1924-25 on application

CULP CULP

LUMBER

Everything to Build Anything

Working plans Free at our office

Full Stock Building Materials.

W.S & A. M. CULP

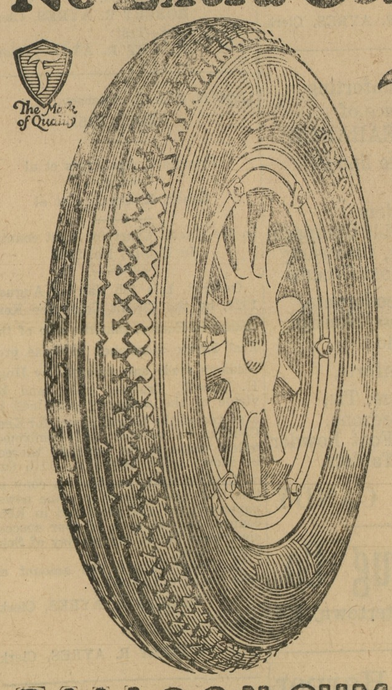
Chestertown, Maryland

No Extra Cost for Wheels

If You Buy a Set of

Firestone

Full-Size Balloons



WITH every set of Firestone Balloon Gum-Dipped Cord Tires, we give you a complete set of Firestone Changeover Wheels. A liberal allowance will be made for your old tires.

This is a special inducement for immediately equipping your car with Balloon Gum-Dipped Cords and getting the added comfort, safety and economy these wonderful tires give.

You will get the advantage of increased tire mileage—decreased gasoline consumption—and lower car upkeep, proved by 5,300,000 miles of carefully checked service tests and the actual experience of over 100,000 car owners.

Balloon Gum-Dipped Cords allow you to drive at higher speeds over the rough stretches without danger or discomfort. They expand the usefulness of your car day by day and add many months to its life.

Motorists everywhere are getting Balloons NOW—as a short cut to lower car operation and increased service. Bring in your car today—we will make changeover promptly at surprisingly low cost.

BALLOON GUM-DIPPED CORDS

THE ORIGINAL LOW-PRESSURE TIRES

Clark & Co., Rock Hall, Md.
The Davis Co, Galena, Md.
J. B. Anderson, Millington, Md.
E. S. Valliant & Son, Church Hill Md.
Noland-Bennett-Russell Co., Chestertown, Md.
The Tire Shop, Chestertown, Md.
Eliason Motors, Inc., Chestertown, Md.

KENT NEWS $1.50 A YEAR

AMERICA SHOULD PRODUCE ITS OWN RUBBER. Firestone

©Maryland State Archives, msa_sc6000_20_1-0296