GLADSKY WILL CASE SETTLED

With a big array of counsel and a large number of witnesses present, the contested will case of William Gladsky, removed from the Circuit Court for Kent county, came to a sudden termination just after it was called for trial in the Circuit Court at Elkton on Monday. Counsel announced that an agreement had been reached and asked that the suit be dismissed. Under the will of the late William Gladsky, of Kent county, he bequeathed to his two daughters, each the sum of $200, and the balance of his estate, valued at $12,000, he left equally to his five sons. Mrs. Margaret Selling, of Baltimore, a married daughter of the deceased, instituted suit contesting the will. S. Scott Beck represented Mrs. Seiling, while H. H. Barroll & Sons represented the sons.

Unique and Interesting Service

The special service at Asbury M E. Church last Sunday evening was unique, well-attended and very interesting and helpful. The service was built around that declaration of the Apostles Creed, which says: I believe in the Holy Catholic Church, the Communion of Saints, and was designed to establish the thought that no one branch of the Christian Church is large enough to warrant taking unto itself the exclusive use of the label: "The Holy Catholic Church." Happily, no one of them does so name itself, officially. For God, in planning man's salvation, had to plan with all shades of mental capacity in mind, and make a plan the humblest of us could subscribe to.

This he did when, according to the Great Masters and Saviour, he made the personal acceptance of his Son, Jesus Christ, to be our lone hope for grace and power in both worlds, the one simple, all-sufficient condition. "For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son that whosoever believeth on him might not perish but have ever lasting life." And the Lord's own "Him that cometh unto me, I will in no wise cast out."

Multitudes of sin-burdened souls have met that simple condition and found it althogether satisfying and sufficient, who never heard of the divisive doctrines of what may right properly be called churchianity, papal infallibility, apostolic succession, modes of baptism, forms of church government, etc., etc. Appeal was made to the hymnal to prove that when the question of one's salvation was up and the soul turned to Jesus Christ, he was always found to be all that was needed, or desired, and more, regardless of the theology of that seeker.

The following hymns were used to make perfectly clear the fact that Christians of all denominations think, speak and sing exactly alike about Jesus: No. 463, Jesus, Lover of My Soul," read by Miss Anna Jones for the Methodist Episcopalians; Miss Helen Tyler, far the Protestant Episcopalians, read No. 143, "In the Cross of Christ I Glory;" For the Roman Catholics, Miss Bessie Selz read No. 536, "Jesus Thou Joy of Loving Hearts;" Mrs. J. E. Hurlock for the Presbyterian Church, read No. 132, "Jesus wept! Those tears are over;" Miss Betty Felton for the Southern Methodist Church, read No. 347, "Lord, Thous Hast Promised Grace for Grace," and Mrs. Susie Hurley, Secretary, Md., was present to represent the Baptist Church, by reading No. 556, "Blest Be the Tie That Binds."

Rev. H. A. Wilson, pastor of Trinity M. E. Church, South, offered a fervent and lifting prayer, and pronounced the benediction upon a type of service that should be frequently held all over the Christian world.

COPPAGE—MASSEY

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Bruce Massey, in Sudlersville, on Thursday morning, when their daughter, Miss Mary Massey, became the bride of John Coppage, son of Enoch Coppage, of Church Hill. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. L. I. Insley.

Miss Mildred Valliant, of Centreville, was the Maid of Honor, and wore a dress of powder blue crepe de chene and a black hat. The bridal dress was of canton crepe of dark blue with black hat. She carried astors and ferns. Hiram Coppage, brother of the groom, was best man.

After the ceremony the bride and groom motored to Wilmington and from there they went to Atlantic City for their honeymoon. After the wedding trip they will reside in Baltimore, where the groom is employed in the State Insurance Office.

Next Tuesday is Registration Day. If you have moved, get a transfer. If you are not on the books, go and be registered. Ladies, you do not have to tell your age.

TO OPERATE BOAT HERE

The Public Service Commission was asked Monday by the Bay Shore-Brighton Excursion Company, owners of the steamer General Lincoln, for permission to operate a steamer as a freight and passenger boat between Baltimore and Chestertown, Rock Hall and points on the Chester river.

The petition, which was filed by Charles Jackson, attorney, cites that the steamer is 125 tons capacity and able to carry 507 passengers. The commission is faced with a fight on the petition, in that there already are three lines operating to Baltimore from these points. The plan is to leave the Chestertown Electric Light Co.'s Wharf at 7 a. m. and Baltimore at 3 p. m. daily.

BIG WEEK FOR YELLOW FRUIT

Chestertown has furnished farmers who did not contract a fine market for tomatoes. The price started at 35 and reached 55 cents. Phillips Bros., Cambridge, represented by Frank Price, of near Chester bridge, and Campbell Soup Co., represented by S. G. Caldwell, have been the principal buyers. Night watchmen are employed to take in the "Moonshine" crop and in one night about 3,000 baskets were received. Mr. Price has bought 31,000 baskets at the Chester river wharf and S. G. Caldwell and Mr. Coleman have bought at Deep Landing, Crumpton and Chestertown over 27,000 baskets.

W. H. McKee at Buckingham has bought about 10,000 baskets for Phillips Bros.

Kibler & Sons at the Electric Light Co.'s and at Rolph's wharves have carred contract tomatoes. Their total shipments are about 60,000 baskets. In 1923 the total was 168,000 baskets, Capt. Jack Nickerson carries 4,000 on the steamer "Chester."

The Baldwin Cannery at Chestertown has received over 50,000 baskets and there are few, if any, of his patrons selling tomatoes on the market.

William Scoone at Quaker Neck Wharf agent for W. W. Boyer & Co. has received 15,000 baskets of contract tomatoes. Ray Bowers at Riverside agent for Schall & Co. has taken in 40,000. The farmers about Riverside will ship as many tomatoes off 100 acres as Quaker Neck growers will ship off of 200 acres. Last year there were 64,000 baskets shipped from Riverside Wharf.

JEWISH NEW YEAR SEPT. 28

The two days' observance of the Jewish New Year will begin at sundown on Sunday, September 28, when all Jews will assemble in the Baltimore, Wilmington and Philadelphia temples and usher in the year 5685 on the Hebraic calendar. Services, with special sermons and music, will be held in all the temples. The temples and synagogues in Wilmington and Philadelphia have already made tentative plans.

The Kesley Chapel supper this week in Broad Neck was a big success. About $175 was taken in. The light was furnished by E. Scott Thompson, of Chestertown.
