TUBERCULOSIS CHRISTMAS SEAL SALE STARTS NOV. 27H

The seventeenth annual sale of the Tuberculosis Christmas Seals will open on Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 27, in all the counties of the State as well as in Baltimore City.

Each county organization has perfected its plan for conducting what it is hoped will be the most successful Tuberculosis Seal Sale ever held.

Last summer 155 undernourished children from the counties of Maryland and Baltimore were cared for at the "Miracle House" at Claiborne, Maryland. It is hoped that many more children will have the opportunity to attend next summer.

The Maryland Tuberculosis Association holds clinics throughout the State in co-operation with the health authorities and physicians. These clinics are rendering a distinct service to the people of Maryland who are unable to pay for a consultant's examination. Known cases of tuberculosis, suspects, and contracts are examined when referred by physicians for corroboration of dianosis, resulting in a number of early cases being subsequently recommended for sanatorium treatment. Families are advised as to the proper home care and prophylactic measures in general which result in their protection and that of the public.

The Modern Health Crusade furthers the training of the child in the school in health habits by the correlation of health teaching with other studies.

By informing the public through the press, radio, publication, motion pictures, posters, etc., the association is endeavoring to educate the people of Maryland to prevent the spread of tuberculosis, showing them that it is preventable and curable.

So all are urged to lend their aid in this work of saving human lives by buying as many Tuberculosis Christmas Seals as possible. When you purchase these seals you actually help to eradicate and prevent this scourage.

FOOTBALL BATTLE IN SNOW & RAIN

All the Washington College team played a good game. Eddie Keenan and Jack Carroll were towers of strength to the home team.

The loss of Reigan in the first quarter was a severe blow to Washington although Bankert, who took his place at end, played a remarkable game. The officiating at this game was fine though the Western Maryland team should have been penalized several times for holding when making their end runs.

A wonderful crowd, numbered over 500, was present to witness the game when it is considered what a miserable day it was. If the day had been fair a record crowd would have been present.

Washington College—Reiger l. e., Jarman, l. t., Atkins, l. g., Kelly, c., Keenan, r. g., Smoot, r. t., Carroll, r. e., Cavanaugh, q. b., Dumschott, l. h., Galvin, r. h., Negri, f. b.

Substitutes — Western Maryland, Hall for G. Williams, Gruber for Perry, Young for Holt, Hurley for Sillin; Washington College, Bankert for Reiger. Touchdowns — Negri, Smoot, Sillin 2. Referee—Craig,Penn State. Umpire — Murray, Pennsylvania. Head linesman—Merrill Colby.

Lives Up To Reputation

Washington College lived up to its reputation for being hard to beat at home by scoring two touchdowns in the first seven minutes of play and hanging on doggedly in the face of a devasting Western Maryland attack in the last three periods.

Failure to defeat Washington was a blow to Western Maryland's title aspirations, while Washington's feat assures it of a creditable standing among the college elevens of Maryland.

The terrible condition of the field and ball militated against a display of the forward passing attack expected to be unleashed by each team, particularly Washington. However Washington used a still half-dry ball to forward pass in launching the drive for the first touchdown at the very opening of the game.

A small crowd was present at the Golden Rule Dinner in the interest of Near East Relief, at Washington College, last Friday night. A. A. Harris acted chairman of the affair, which opened with prayer by Rev. Mr. Sheen. W. B. Copper, toastmaster, explained the object of the meeting. The dinner was in charge of Mrs. Ellsworth Newcomb. Moving pictures, showing the pitiful condition of Near East children, were shown by H. F. Pellegrim, State Director. Dr. R. H. Linville, of Baltimore, made an address upon Near East conditions. The worthy movement was presented to the public thoroughly.
