JOHN KELLY DROPS 70 FEET TO DEATH

Attempting to burn through the bars at the top of a window down in the Maryland Penitentiary, John Kelley, thirty-five, sentenced to life for his part in the Sandy Spring murder and bank robbery in 1920, fell to his death on the concrete floor, 70 feet from the top of the window Monday night.

Kelly is the second of the Sandy Spring gang to meet violent death in the Penitentiary. The first was John W. Mitchell, who a few months ago was stabbed to death by a fellow convict.

Four other convicts, life and long-term prisoners, who are believed to have been in the plot with Kelly, scampered down the steel rungs of the window grating and reached their cells before identity was detected.

One of the plotters, to conceal identity, struck down James W. Messick, a guard, knocking him unconscious. Messick's assailant used a steel bar 15 inches long.

Other prisoners believed to have been in the attempt are Clarence Adams, a Sandy Spring bandit, who, like Kelly, was sentenced to life imprisonment, and David Bender, one of the slayers of Patrolman George Sauer.

250 FORDS AN HOUR

People of the United States in 1924 bought Ford cars at the rate of more than 250 an hour, twenty-four hours a day, for the 300 working days of the year.

This remarkable demand, in a year of rather unsettled business conditions, brought to the Ford Motor Company the greatest sales record in its history. The domestic retail deliveries for 1924 totalled 1,873,581 cars and trucks, an increase of 87,736 over the sales of 1923, the company announces.

Retail sales of Ford trucks for the year went over the 200,000 mark for the first time, exceeding those of 1923 by 15,013.

Retail sales of Lincoln cars, produced by a division of the Ford Motor Company, showed an increase of approximately 25 per cent during 1924 over the previous year, it is just announced. The sales for the year totalled 7,501 as compared with 6,018 in 1923. Lincoln car sales abroad also showed an increase.

After a 44½ years' course, under the tutelage of Head Master "Pop Pennsy," James L. Thomas, assistant foreman of carpenters of the Southern General Division of the Pennsylvania railroad, at Wilmington, graduated on December 31, 1924, as an honor student. Jim, as he is better known, reached his seventieth milestone on December 24, 1924, having been born at Chestertown, Md., Dec. 20, 1854. On June 15, 1880, he tied up with "Pop Pennsy" as a carpenter in the Maintenance of Way Department of the Maryland Division and on March 16, 1923, was promoted to an assistant foremenship on the Southern General Division, with headquarters in Wilmington. Jim had the happy faculty of making every acquaintance a friend, and at the time of his graduation the many felicitations were accompanied with a purse containing $100.

Do You Want Permanent Relief?

Read what Chiropractic has done for these people who were once on the sick list.

Mrs. Sam Nickerson, suffered for years with stomach ulcers, (so diagnosed), also a prolapsed stomach. Could eat nothing. Fast losing in weight and general health declining. After 2 months spinal adjustments she is now entirely well.

John Homely, Quaker Neck, suffered with rheumatism for years. So bad he could not work. Also suffered with blood pressure. Reports he is entirely well after 5 weeks adjustments.

Mrs. John Moffett, Galena. Violent headaches for years. Nothing seemed to bring relief until she tried Chiropractic.

Joe, (Shoemaker,) Cross street, Chestertown, suffered with lumbago for years. Attacks every few months. After 14 adjustments he is completely cured.

Mrs. Kate Collins, Lynch, Md. General run-down condition, rheumatic pains in all parts of body. Says she feels like a new woman after taking Chiropractic adjustments.

Wm. Bowen, Church Hill, completely relieved of rheumatism. Prof. Schneider, Washington College, praises Chiropractic for ridding him of Neuritis.

Hundreds of other residents of Kent and Queen Anne's county, who do not wish their names published will be glad to testify to the benefits received from this health-giving method of healing.

TO ALL THE CHILDREN AND GROWN UPS

The Citizens Bank, of Chestertown, wishes each of you a MERRY CHRISTMAS AND HAPPY NEW YEAR. We want you, one and all, TO JOIN OUR CHRISTMAS CLUB. We want every child in Kent County to be a part owner in this Bank and we have for every boy and girl a CHRISTMAS GIFT. You can join this club any day in the year. If you have nothing with which to join now, still you can each become a member. THE CITIZENS BANK will give to each boy and girl everywhere a shining new quarter for a first deposit in the bank book which you can get at the Bank. Then add your pennies, dimes and quarters throughout the year and see how much it will amount to by the 10th of next December when you can withdraw it. The smallest, the largest, the youngest, the oldest will all be treated alike. We shall be as proud of your savings and earnings as will you and as OLD KRIS will be as he watches you throughout the year. This is the Bank of GOOD CHEER and we want the young people in this county to begin to be thrifty, saving and looking ahead. SAVE WITH AN OBJECT. If you wish pocket money for next CHRISTMAS this is the way to have it. If you wish to buy a calf, or chickens, ducks and turkeys or if you want a special sum for a special purpose this is the way to get it.

Get your bank book from Mr. Connelly or Miss Shinn. Get the NEW QUARTER, put it in yourself. Then watch it grow.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION

Catherine Bailey Shelton versus Benjamin F. Shelton

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, In Equity, No. 2325.

The object of the Bill filed in the above entitled case is to procure a decree for divorce a vinculo matrimonii for the Plaintiff, a resident of Kent County, Maryland, from the Defendant, a non-resident of the State of Maryland.

The Bill states:

1. That on the 26th day of November, 1908, Catherine Bailey Shelton was married to her husband, Benjamin F. Shelton, at Smyrna, Delaware, by a minister of the Gospel. The certificate of marriage is herewith filed as Complainant's Exhibit No. 1.

2. That after their marriage they lived together at Golt's Station, Kent County, Maryland, for a period of about five years.

3. That your Complainant, Catherine Bailey Shelton, is now, and has always been a resident of Kent County, State of Maryland. That at the present time her husband, Benjamin F. Shelton, is a resident of Newcastle, Delaware.

4. That although the conduct of your Oratrix towards her husband the Said Benjamin F. Shelton, has always been kind and affectionate and above reproach, the said Benjamin F. Shelton has, without any just cause or reason, abandoned and deserted her and has declared his intention to live with her no longer, and that such abandonment has continued uninterruptedly for a period of more than three years, is deliberate and final, and the separation of the parties beyond any reasonable expectation of reconciliation.

5. That there has been one child born to them as a result of said marriage but said child died when six months old.

6. That ever since the abandonment of your Oratrix by her husband, the said Benjamin F. Shelton, he has never provided for her support and maintenance.

It is thereupon this 7th day of January A. D. 1925, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent County, in Equity, that the Plaintiff, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said Kent County, once in each of four successive weeks before the 9th day of February next; giving notice to the said Benjamin F. Shelton, non-resident defendant, warning him to appear in this Court in person, or by Solicitor, on or before the 23rd day of February next, to show cause, if any he has, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.
