DOWN ON THE FARM

Among the amusing recitations given at the Lyceum Monday night by the Still Pond Troupe of artists was that about the farmer by Tilden Cooper. He was especially good. His encore selection was not completed so for the benefit of our readers it is here published: "Down on the farm bout half past four, I slip in my pants and sneak out the door. Out to the yard I run like the dickens, to milk the cows and feed the chickens. Clean out the barn, curry Nance and Jiggs, separate the cream and slop all the pigs. Work two hours then eat like a Turk, and, by heck, I'm ready for a full day's work. Then I grease the wagon, and put on the rack, throw a jug of water in an old grain sack; hitch up the horses, hustle down the lane, must put the hay in for it looks like rain; look over yonder, sure as I'm born, cattle's on the rampage, and cows in the corn. Start across the medder, run a mile or two; heaving like I'm windbroke, get wet clean through. Get back to the horses, then for recompense, Nance got straddle the barbed wire fence. Joints all a-aching and muscles in a jerk, I'm fit as a fiddle for a full day's work. Work all summer till winter is night; then figure up the books and heave a big sigh. Worked all year didn't make a thing; Got less cash now than I had last Spring. Now some people say there ain't no hell, but they never farmed, so they can't tell. When Spring rolls round I take another chance, while the fringe grows longer on my old pants. Got a fair price for my sweet potatoes; but gosh, what a stinging on my contracted tomatoes. Give my spenders a hitch, my belt another jerk, and by heck, I'm ready for a full year's work."

WASHINGTON QUINT CONTINUES STRONG

Victory Over Mount St. Mary's Marks the 17th Consecutive Victory Of Season.

By beating Mount St. Mary's, Washington strengthened its hold upon this year's State championship and ran its record to 17 straight wins. Washington had defeated the Saints at Emmitsburg earlier in the season and these victories eliminated Mount St. Mary's from consideration for State honors.

The game at Chestertown Saturday night attracted the largest crowd that ever packed its way into the gymnasium . Every available inch of space was occupied. The fans were treated to one of the best basketball games ever played on the floor.

Mount St. Mary's had come to the Eastern Shore institution with one purpose and that was to beat Washington College. The first half was full of thrill, with Mount St. Mary's fighting to hold down the Flying Pentagon. They succeeded in the first half, which ended in an 8-to-8 score, although Washington missed many easy shots.

The second half told the story. Menton, the referee, tossed the ball up at center and before it could be realized Dumschott had caged a basket after receiving a lightning pass from Carroll.

The Washington team put forth its best efforts in the second half and demonstrated to the spectators the brand of basketball which beat the Navy, University of Maryland, George Washington, Loyola and other leading teams on the schedule.

Washington has two more games to play to complete its schedule. Loyola will be played Saturday night in Baltimore and Western Maryland will close the season at Chestertown March 7.

Villanova College has canceled its scheduled game with Washington at Chestertown. This makes four teams which have canceled games with Washington College this season.

Coach Kibler realizes that Saturday's game with Loyola promises to be the hardest on the schedule. He is priming his men for the battle by having the team going through stiff workouts every day in the gymnasium. The men are in the best of shape, the best that they have been in throughout the entire season. Their work in the second half against Mount St. Mary's proved the caliber of the team when forced to the limit.

Although Loyola held Washington to a 21-to-20 score at Chestertown in the first game between the two teams, the Chestertown boys are playing better basketball now than they were that night. Many easy shots were missed by the Eastern Shoremen, and if half the fouls called were made Washington would have won by a much wider margin.

Shortly after one of the colored teachers had received her salary amounting to $50, Friday morning, she went into the corridor of the school and hung her coat up with the money in an envelope in the coat pocket. When she returned for the coat she found the envelope intact but the money was gone. Investigation resulted in the arrest of several girl scholars and the recovery of $25.47 of the stolen money. They had visited several stores and bought galoshes and other wearing apparel.
