GREAT BOAT RACES OFF CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge, Md., June 20—Under a cloudless sky in perfect sailing weather Capt. Clarence Todd, before a crowd of 20,000 brought his bugeye, the George B. Todd, home to victory here this afternoon in the fifth annual regatta of the Chesapeake Bay Championship Workboat Race Association.

Sailing the course in even better time, the skipjack, Richard Lee, of Wenona, sailed by Capt. Dewey Webster, won the association cup and prize for the fastest boat in the skipjack class. Small craft of many kinds swarmed along the course. At the finish line the steamer Southland, bearing Gov. E. Lee Trinkle, of Virginia, and a delegation from the Washington Merchants and Manufacturer Association, swung idly at anchor.

Close to the Southland was anchored the Maryland State steamer Governor McLane, with Governor Ritchie and his staff aboard. Further up the river the Coast Guard cutter Apache lay on guard.

Honors Divided Evenly

Never in the history of the race-boat association have the honors been divided more evenly. The first prize in the bugeye class goes to Crisfield, second prize to Cambridge and the third prize to Oxford.

In the skipjack class, the first prize goes to Tylerton. the second to Wenona and the third to Smith's Island.

In the motor work boat, Cambridge, Fishing Creek and Wingate all took prizes.

The course was well planned and always in sight of the shores of this city. Hundreds of cars followed the races along the boulevard and many hundreds more parked in the shaded spots along the banks.

The races were directed by a regatta committee composed of Earle W. Orem, L. Barrett, Vernon S. Bradley, Thomas Jones, the retiring president of the Association; Wallace Quinn, J. Cook Webster, newly elected president; Harry St. Clair, Rew Johnson and J. C. Marshall.

The boats sailing in the bugeye class in the order in which they finished were: The Clarence Todd, Captain Todd, Crisfield; The Agnes C. Leonard, Capt. C. S. Leonard, Cambridge; The Mae Summers, Capt. W. R. Brown, Fairbanks; The Little Jennie, Captain Pope, Oxford; The Florence Northam, Capt. Charles O.Chesser, St. Georges Island; J. C. Armiger, Captain Cook, Cambridge; C. Colburn, Capt. Jerry Lewis, Cambridge; Lizzie J. Cox, Capt. Charles O. Kendall, Rock Hall.

In the skipjack class: Richard Lee, Capt. Dewey Webster, Wenona; Rew Brothers, Capt. Julius Webster, Wenona; Della Griffin, Capt. Walter Dunnock, Oxford; Bernice J., Capt. W. D. Smith, Tylerton; A. Phillips, Capt. A. B. Haddaway, Tilghman's Island; Adrainet, Capt. Joseph Cannon, Cambridge; Nellie B., Capt. Edward Brown, St. George's Island; Janette, Capt. T. H. Creighton, Fishing Creek; Robert L. Webster, Capt. Warner Travers, Cambridge.

In the motor boat class: Carrie IV, Captain Scott, Wingate; Ida May, Captain John Willey, Cambridge; Miss Cambridge, Captain Jabe Tyler; Cambridge; America, Captain Andrew Tolley, Fishing Creek; Dixie, Captain Eliot, Cambridge. G. H. E.

OFFERED OFFICER A BRIBE FINED $50 AND SENT TO JAIL

As the result of trying to bribe Officer N. W. Gearhart, of the Automobile Commissioner's Office, Linwood Matthews, a 27-year-old negro, of Greensboro, is in Centreville Jail. He was fined $50 by Justice Robert Coursey and went to jail in default.

Matthews, it is alleged, passed the oral examination before the Automobile officers in Centreville Thursday, but failed on the demonstration when he passed several cars on the left. He is said to have told Officer Gearhart that he lived a considerable distance from Centreville and that it was very inconvenient for him to take another examination. He then offered $2 in exchange for an operator's license, whereupon Gearhart ordered his arrest.

A part of this news reached Chestertown and during the tests for automobile licenses held Thursday here, an attempt was made to bribe one of the officers. Two colored applicants who failed to pass the tests handed the officer a $5.00 bill as an inducement to give them their permits. The officer immediately placed them under arrest and brought them before the Police Justice who fined them $10 and costs.
