Crumpton M. P. Church

Divine services at Double Creek next Sunday are 11 a. m. preaching by the pastor, preceeded by the Sunday school at 10 a. m., Christmas themes will be presented at all the services.

At Crumpton M. P. Church the same spirit of loyalty and enthusiasm continues. Large congregations greet the pastor at every service. A short time ago the officials, members and friends of the church presented the pastor with a very costly and handsome Holman Teachers Bible as a tribute of the high esteem in which he is held by the church and the town. This week his friends further evidenced their regard by sending to the parsonage a large Xmas turkey, and the delightful things that make the occasion joyful. It ought to be well known that this church is very gracious and loyal to the man of God who ministers to them in holy things. The present pastorate has been a continued series of blessings in every way. Next Sunday at 2.30 p. m. a great praise and prayer service in Crumpton M. P. Church to which everybody is invited. In the evening at 7.30 the pastor will preach. Subject of sermon, "Receiving the News." Mrs. J. H. Sweetman is expected to sing and those who have heard her know what that means. Come and worship with this people next Sunday evening, and you will not only enjoy their fellowship, but be lifted into the realization of a greater Christian experience.
