NEWS OF CHURCHES

No service at I. U. until January 10th, at 10.30 a. m., when Bishop Davenport will be present.

Service at Betterton at 11 a. m., January 3rd and 2.30 p. m. January 10th. At this last service the Bishop will be present.

Wesley Chapel

Sunday school at 9.30 a. m., worship and preaching by pastor at 10.45 a. m., Christian Endeavor at 7.00 p. m.

Kesley Chapel

Sunday school at 2 p. h., preaching by pastor at 10.45 a. m., Christian Endeavor at 2.30 p. m.

Raum Chapel

Sunday school at 2 p. m., Christian Endeavor at 7 p. m., preaching and worship at 7.30 p. m., "I was glad when they said unto me, let us go into the House of the Lord."

Bond M. E. Church

Bond M. E. Church services this week will be Sunday school at 10 a. m., special program: Divine worship and New Year's sermon by pastor at 11 a. m., Epworth League service at 7.30 p. m.

Bond Church Aid will meet on Thrursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Shinn. Come and enjoy these services.

The Christmas program of Bond Sunday school was enjoyed by a well filled church on Tuesday evening.

Mowbray M. E. Church

Special services, Sunday school at 2.30 p. m., Epworth League service at 7.15 p. m. followed by a New Year's sermon by the pastor. Come and enjoy these services of worship.

Quite a number enjoyed the Christmas program of Mowbray Sunday school on Monday evening despite the cold.

Kennedyville M. P. Church

Sunday school at 10 a. m., election of officers for the year 1926, 11 a. m. sermon by pastor, Dr. J. W. Trout 7 p. m. Christian Endeavor, led by W. L. Ford, 7.45 p. m. installation of officers for the Christian Endeavor, all members requested to be present.

On last Tuesday evening the Sabbath school held their Christmas entertainment at the church to a full house. The tree was beautifully decorated. A fine program was enjoyed by all present. Teachers and pupils exchanged gifts and to each member was given a box of candy.

Salem M. E. Church, Fairlee

Rev. S. L. Hanby, pastor. Services for the week: Sunday school 10 a. m., Walter Barnes, superintendent; preaching at 11 a. m., Junior League at 2.30 p. m., Epworth League 7.30 p. m., subject "The Son of God Becomes Man."

Union M. E. Church, Worton

Sunday school at 2 p. m., B. F. Rash, superintendent, preaching by the pastor at 3 p. m.

Chestertown M. P. Church.

N. O. Gibson, minister, Sunday January 3rd, Divine worship and Holy Communion at 11 a. m., theme for communion talk "The Feast of Trumpets," Sunday school at 2.30 p. m., Junior Christian Endeavor at 6 p. m., Christian Endeavor at 6.45 p. m., (installation of officers), gospel song service and sermon at 7.3. p. m., subject of sermon "Forward." Wednesday prayer and bible study at 7.30 p. m.

Rev. Harry Ewing will supply the pulpit of the M. E. Church in Easton in the absence of Rev. W. H. Briggs the pastor, who has gone to the Battle Creek Sanitarium in Michigan for treatment.

Prayer service in Betterton was held at the home of Reese Young Wednesday evening. After the service the pastor and his wife, Rev. and Mrs. Shockley and several others accompanied by Miss Louise Crew with her saxaphone and Charles H. Brice with his cornet went around town singing the Xmas carols to the shut-ins. They being Mrs. Lemuel Hickman, Mrs. Campbell, Archie Leigh, Mrs. Horace Brice, Mrs Octava Bowman, Mrs. M. A. Owens J. Trott and Dr. Stone.

Revival meeting to begin on Sunday at the Chesterown M. E. Church. Rev. T. J. Sard, pastor. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper at 11. The Sunday School Board will meet at 3.00 p. m. in the Sunday school room. All members of board are expected to be present. Epworth League at 6.45, special song service at 7.30 followed by preaching, sermon subject "Millions Now Living Are Already Dead." There will be service each evening during the week except Saturday evening beginning at 7.30. There will be a special song service each evening. The public is invited to attend these services.

St. James and Lynch M. P. Churches

We bid the good folks of Kent county a Happy New Year and Prosperous one, and invite you to begin the year right by attending our services the first Sunday. Our services at St. James include the Sabbath school at 10 a. m., with R. G. Nicholson, superintendent, in charge. The pastor will preach at the 11 a. m. service on the theme "Standing at the Portal." The Christian Endeavor has been discontinued for the winter due to the weather's uncertainty. Lynch will have its Sabbath school at 2.30 p. m., and its preaching at 3 p. m.

On last Sunday evening with the thermometer reading very low, a goodly group witnessed the "Adoration Pageant" of "The White Gifts for the King" series, at the St James M. P. Church.

The monthly meeting of the Emmanuel Branch of the Woman's Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary will be held in the parish house on Monday, Jan. 4th, 1926, at 3 o'clock.

Starr M. P. Church Thursday completed the sale of its Light street wharf property, near Pratt street, to the Baltimore Steamboat Company operating the Ericsson Line to Philadelphia. The price was $46,000. The frontage, which for many years was leased by the steamboat company was about 21 feet. The property formed part of the endowment of the church left by Wesley Starr.

HAND OF DEATH

Mrs. Martha Elizabeth Akers wife of George Akers and daughter of the late Samuel Sewell, died at her home in Rock Hall about 2 o'clock Saturday morning, Dec. 26th, 1925, at the age of 65 years. Mrs. Akers had spent a very pleasant Christmas day with her daughter, Mrs. Andrew J. Stevens, and planned to visit her other children during the week. While a semi-invalid for several years extreme illness lasted only a few hours. Besides her husband she is survived by three sons, Capt. Franklin Akers, Clarence Akers and Capt. Hillry Akers; two daughters, Mrs. L. M. Hubbard and Mrs. A. J. Stevens and twelve grandchildren. Mrs. Perry Rasin, of Worton, and Mrs. John Coleman are sisters. Her brothers are Thomas and Benjamin F. Sewell, of Baltimore. Funeral services were held in the Seventh Day Adventist Church Monday at 2 o'clock, the officiating elder being a clergyman from Washington, D. C. Mrs. Akers had led a lovely Christian life, having joined the Methodist Church when quite young and later transferred to the Adventist faith. Interment was made in Wesley Chapel cemetery. The bearers were Henry Urie, John Hogans, William Durding, George M. Coleman, Daniel Ayres and John Dowling, Sr. Thomas H. Casey funeral director.

Mrs. Kate E. McNeir, wife of Richard M. McNeir, died at her home in Piney Neck Wednesday, December 30th, aged 64 years. Besides her husband she leaves one sister, Mrs. Alice Phillips, of Baltimore. Remains will be taken to the home of her sister, where funeral services and interment will be held. C. L. Dodd, undertaker.

Mrs. Mary Patton Cochran, aged 52 daughter of the late Robert A. and Lydia Naudain Cochran, and wife of John P. Cochran, died Tuesday at her home in Warwick, Md. Funeral services were held at St. Anne's Church, Middletown, Fridap afternoon at 2 o'clock. She is survived by her husband, a daughter Mrs. Amos Wilson, son, R. Harrison Cochran, and three step-daughters. Mrs. Ralph Doyle, Mrs. Annie V. Cochran, and Mrs. Hattie Cochran. Mrs. Elizabeth Comegps of Wilmington, is a sister.

Budget of Breezy Local Happenings Here and There

Electric light rate has been decreased to 15 cents for 1926.

The radio "fans" are increasing so rapidly that it will not be long before every home will be equipped with this wonder of the age.

The next basket ball game will be at the college Saturday, January 9. The contenders have played Mt. St. Mary's a close score and are reported to be quite fast.

Definite steps are being taken to organize a Rotary Club in Chestertown. The first meeting for organization purposes will be held next Monday evening, when several members of the Easton Rotary Club will be present.

The Maryland University Glee Club played before a large audience in Lyceum Tuesday evening and pleased everyone. The concert was given under the auspices of the By-Kota Club of Chestertown M. E. Church.

Eliason Motors, Inc., has been awarded a handsome silver cup as a reward for being the leading seller of Ford cars on the Eastern Shore during the summer and fall campaign.

E. T. Othoson, of near Kennedyville, has had no throwing of bricks thru his windows recently. The Ku Klux delegation visited the farm, walked thru the house and addressed the help in warning language. It made a cure.

Sheriff I. W. Thompson reports having only two prisoners in jail in Bel Air. Last Christmas there were twenty-two persons in jail. Kent has twenty-four prisoners, fourteen for violating local option law.

Leonard Houston and wife, Hennie were arrested this week in Chestertown charged with violating the local option law. These, with the 12 arrested last week, make 14. There are others "on the list."

At a conference Tuesday of the Board of Education and the County Commissioners it was agreed to accept Turner's Creek School Monday and continue to keep it open so long as the State authorities did not object to the building.

The monthly meeting of the Farm Bureau at Fairlee has been changed on account of the Baltimore annual meeting to Tuesday, January 12th.

The turkeys sold thru the Farm Bureau in Chestertown brought an average of 50 cents per pound net This is a fine price.

Three horses, not quite so young and frisky as they had once been sold for a total of $36.75 at a sale in Harford county last week. One brought $1.75, another $10 and the third $$25. Truly the market for old horses seems to be at a low ebb.

The volunteer firemen were summoned to the residence of Mrs. Elizabeth S. Jarrell, corner Queen street and Maple avenue, Sunday morning last, shortly after eleven o'clock, where one of the large chimneys was a blaze, this being the second time within the week that chimneys in this residence were on fire. The timely arrival of the firemen averted what might have proven a disastrous conflagration as the flames had eaten its way into the second story room filled to capacity with furniture, a goodly portion of which was somewhat damaged.

The 38th series of stock in Building Loan Association was retired at $100 per share.

Next Monday evening Prof. Vautier will deliver another one of his celebrated lectures in the Court House.

Samuel E. Cooper has purchased of Benj. L. Bonnett the house on High street next door to Leonard Needles.

Wesley Gordon, colored, died at his home in Chestertown on Monday Gordon was well known in Chestertown and was employed for a number of years by the Commissioners as a street worker.

The annual Christmas dance given by the people of Chestertown was held Wednesday night in Washington College Gym. Music was furnished by Appel's Orchestra.

Charlie Long, the local Chinese laundryman will leave in a few days for a visit in China. Durng his absence his business will be conducted by a cousin, whose small son will be the first chinese to attend the Kent County Public Schools.

George P. Hendrickson has killed five wild geese on Fairlee farm, near Tolchester.

Kennedville Grange No. 244 P. of H. will meet Monday evening, Jan. 4th, 1926. A good attendance is desired as the officers for the ensuing year will be elected.

Wm. Legg, of Gill's Ice Cream Factory, returned from a vacation in New Jersey with a large deer skin He killed the buck in an exciting hunt with friends.

A. L. Sterling has installed a frigidaire machine with ten ice cream holders. George W. Baldwin did the work.

Frank Conner, a prosperous young farmer of near Townsend, has bought from Robert Wallen his farm known as the Lamb farm, containing 250 acres. Price private.

While returning from his route up the Shore Monday night, Richard Cooper, well-known in Chestertown, driving one of the Nathan Furniture Store trucks was run into by an unknown person who was driving without lights and who also failed to stop and offer assistance. Mr. Cooper was badly shaken up but it is not believed that his injuries are serious as he was able to get out; the extent of the damage to the truck has not been ascertained but it was almost completely demolished.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Bennett Grasley were injured Thursday night when their automobile skidded, overturned and was wrecked at Goose Hill, about two miles from Chestertown. Their 7-year-old daughter and a nephew, a Mr. Dunning, of New York, escaped injury. The party was bound for the Grasley home in Betterton. Mr. and Mrs. Grasley and the child were brought by a passing motorist to the office of Dr. H. P. Copeland, at Chestertown. Dr. Copeland, assisted by Dr. H. L. Dodd, gave them medical attention. Mr. Grasley suffered a dislocated ankle and cuts on head and hands, and Mrs. Grasley had deep cuts on her head and arms and on her right leg.

MILLINGTON NOTES

The Women's Home Missionary Society of Asbury M. E. Church will hold a public meeting at the home of Mrs. J. L. Smith, Thursday, January 7th at 7.30 p. m. Members and visitors will be cordially welcomed.

Mr. and Mrs. James Coverdale, of Oxford, Md., and Howard Stevens Jr., of Parlin, N. J., visited the latter's father, Howard Stevens, last week.

Among those who changed their homes this week are: John Wiest moved from the Hazel property on West Cypress street to the Taylor property recently occupied by C. T. Brannigan; Mr. Branigan moved to the Hazel home property on South Sassafras street recently occupied by Miss Mattie Hazell and Miss Mattie moved to the house vacated by Mr Wiest. Leo Gale moved from Galena into the Orem property on East Cypress street.

The Community Fire Company of Millington was called to the Jones' farm near town tenanted by McCosh Walls on Sunday last. The fire was confined to the chimney which was a double one. It became very hot causing the wall paper to break badly on the walls and caused much uneasiness to the family but no further damage occurred.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Adkinsor entertained the following guests at their home near town, during the holidays, Mr. and Mrs. George Dill and son, George, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hasselberg, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Everett, and Doctor and Mrs. Franklin Everett, all of Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Brice and little son, William, of Fairlee, and Mr. and Mrs. John Clendanel, Jr. and little son, John, 3rd, of Chestertown, were guests last week of Dr. and Mrs. Merritt Brice.

Mrs. Harry L. Higman and two children, James Booth, and Majory are spending two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. Johnson Booth, of Media, Pa.

Miss Elizabeth Stevens, of Philadelphia, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stevens, near town, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Leverage and little daughter Doris, of Easton were guests last week of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Dixon near town.

Mrs. Maria Bamberger suffered a stroke of paralysis at her home near town, last Sunday.

Miss Dorothy Taylor, of Hood College, Frederick, Md., is spending the Christmas holidays with Miss Mildred Gordon, in St. Petersburg Florida.

Mrs. W. E. Stevens visited Mr. and Mrs. Walters Painter, of Sudlersville, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ennis Walls, of Wilmington, were Christmas guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. McCosh Walls, near town.

The following Christmas program was given by the pupils of Millington High School on Wednesday afternoon of last week: Song, There's a Song in the Air; Who Can Guess, by 4th grade girls; Hurrah for December, by four girls of the 3rd grade; Dialogue, The Christmas Message, by Pauline Jones and Betty Jones; Santa Claus Song; Christmas Guesses by 5 boys of 3rd grade; Recitation Just for Christmas, by George Church; Quartette by High School; Christmas Tide by 10 members of the 3rd grade; Recitation, The Orphans' Christmas by Leona Phillips; Play, The Miner's Christmas, written, staged and directed by the 8th grade; Song, Up On a House Top.

Miss Bessie Selz spent the past month with her sister, Mrs. J. E. Krylow, of Pittsburgh, Pa., and Mrs J. Lankey, of Wheeling, W. Va.

Franklin Stevens, of Darby, Pa. visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs James B. Stevens, near town, last week.

William Benton, of near town, was the guest last week of friends in Wilmington.

The Christmas Pageant, Why the Chimes Rang, which was given last Sunday evening in Asbury M. E Church, will be repeated tomorrow, January 3rd, at 8 p. m. Everybody welcome.

William Feddeman, of Western Maryland College, Westminster, Md. is spending the Christmas holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Feddeman.

James Pennington, of Baltimore and Lieut. Victor Pennington, visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Liston Pennington, last week.

D. B. Ford and family, of Chestertown; Mr. and Mrs. John Brice, of Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Wood Jr., and family, and Lieut. Francis E. Fitch and family, of Wilmington and Mrs. Noah Walker and little son Noah, Jr., were Christmas guests of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Ahern.

Harry L. Higman spent a few days last week with his wife's parents Mr. and Mrs. I. Johnson Booth, of Media, Pa.

J. C. Numbers, of Parlin, N. J., visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Numbers, last week.

Mrs. S. T. Pippin and wo William and Jame f

Mr. and Mrs. Earle Everett, of near Church Hill, and Mr. and Mrs Charles Dixon and two little daughters, of near Newark, Del., spent Christmas Day with Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Everett, near town.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Moffett, of Chester, Pa., visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Kulley, near town, last week.

Mrs. Maria Stevens was the guest on Friday of last week of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Stevens, of Sudlersville.

Misses Marie and Alice Higman of Philadelphia, spent a few days last week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Higman, of near town.

Earle Everett, of Church Hill, and Miss Bertha Cole, of Swarthmore, Pa., were quietly married on Wednesday evening, December 23rd, at the M. E. Church, South, parsonage, of Ingleside, by Rev. H. A. Wilson. Mr. Everett os very well known around Millington, being the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Everett. They will reside near Church Hill, where the groom is engaged in farming.

GALENA NOTES

Mrs. Alvin McCauley and son, Jack, Misses Mary and Eva McCauley, of Philadelphia, Lester McCauley, of Wilmington, and Alvin McCauley, of Baltimore, spent part of last week with their mother, Mrs. Eva McCauley.

William Wood, of Bloomfield, N. J., is spending some time with his family.

Miss Annie F. Hayes is spending Christmas holidays with her sister. Mrs. William Petticord, at Locust Grove.

William Parr and daughter, Miss Lucille, of Still Pond, spent Christmas Day with Miss Jennie Parr.

Mrs. Effie Price, of Philadelphia, and Misses Anna and Mary Smith, of New York, spent a few days last week with theirmother, Mrs. Kathryn Smith.

Messrs. Scott and John Woodside, of West Chester, visited relatives in town on Saturday.

Miss Theresa Scott, of Woman's College, Newark, is spending the holidays with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Scott.

James Ellis, of Baltimore, is spending some time with Dr. and Mrs. George R. Jones.

Miss Martha Whitaker, of Wilmington, spent a few days with her sister, Mrs. George Hicks.

Frank Gale and son, Frank, spent part of Christmas Day with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gale.

Mr. anl Mrs. Gene Hungerford of Hebron, and William Pennington, of Baltimore, spent a few days with their mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Walmsley.

Wm. Johnston, of Philadelphia, is spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnston.

Louis Cruickshank, of Philadelphia, is a guest of his mother, Mrs. Lucy Cruickshank.

Mrs. Price, of Still Pond, has returned to her home in Still Pond after visiting her daughter, Mrs. Harry Redding.

Prof. H. H. Ransom, of Cambridge visited his many friends in town this week.

Daniel Miller, of State Sanitorium, spent a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Mullen.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Stewart and daughter, Jennie, spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas R. Hicks.

Miss Helen Vansant, of Maryland State Normal, and Miss Kathryn Vansant, of Goldey, Wilmington, are spending some time with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Vansant.

Rev. and Mrs. O. T. Baynard and children are spending some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Matthews at Chincoteague, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Guthrie spent the week-end at Kenton with her parents.

Mrs. Linda Walls and son, John, spent Christmas Day with Mrs. Elizabeth Walmsley.

Misses Nellie Dempsey and Helen Bolton, of Beacom, Wilmngton, are spending holidays with their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Dempsey entertained on Wednesday Rev. and Mrs. O. H. Connelly and family at Townsend.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dixon spe the holidays with Mr. and Mr Jarrell at Middletown.

Harvey Stradley visited in town Thursday evenin

Miss Carrie Dempsey Dover, is visiting Mr. S. Dempsey.

Mr. and Mrs. La Wilmington, spent days with her parent George Johnston.

———oo

F. G. USILTON

Kent

SATURDAY,

Write it 1926.

Make the year

Do your best t with love and goo

———x

May the Christ with the Kent Ne every day of 1926.

History makin the heels of tin radio listeners ringing of the J gress Hall, P Chimes, New Y go and Cincinn and revelers ous other pro

A bill of unusual watermen and pleasu of Chester River, has to Congress by Re Alan Goldsborough.

The proposed bill au vey of the Kent Island paratory to the dredgi nel on the Chester Riv the Eastern Bay side, other improvements waterway.

STERLING'S PH

EASTMA KODAK and FILMS

Developing Printin

Sterling's Phar

(THE REXALL STO

Stam Drug

The Prescription Sto

A full line of Squ Household Products. Cigars and Cigarette

TOILET ARTICLES AND PERFUMERY

Popular Priced Fiction Writing Paper, Ledgers and Day Books.

Stam Drug Co.

Phone 30 Chestertown Md

We Wish You
Health, Happiness and Prosperity
During the New Year

Accept our thanks for favors received during 1925.

H. B. ROTE
The Jeweler

Caldwell's Bazaar

GALENA, MARYLAND

Regular Auction at my Bazaar on

Wednesday, January 6, 1926

Beginning at 12 o'clock sharp will make a sale every Wednesday after this date.

10 Good Horses and Mules of most any kind of a horse you need.

20 head of cattle, several of them fresh with calf by sides, others springers, fat cattle and heifers. You can buy any kind of cattle you want at this sale. 1 stock bull.

150 shoats and pigs of every size and description. Several fat hogs. Several large lots of chickens and poultry of all kinds. Sold 121 head shoats and pigs at last sale.

If you need any kind of hogs or shotes this is the place to buy.

Special mention of a nice lot of blankets of all kinds also lot harness.

Two stoves and some furniture.

Special mention of a truck load of blankets, rubber boots, shoes, overcoats, stockings, and a lot of small articles too numerous to mention Will begin sale at 12 o'clock in order to get through selling.

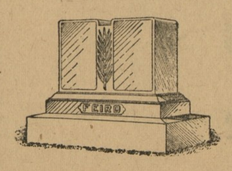
I will be compelled to make a sale every Wednesday on account of the amount of stock and goods sent here to sell.

Will sell anything for you at this sale on commission.

Terms Cash. S. G. CALDWELL.
Next Sale Wednesday, Jan. 13, 1926.

"HAT LURE GETS HELEN INTO SCRAPE."

MEMORIALS IN



GEORGIA MARBLE

THE PERFECT TRIBUTE.

Hundreds of beautiful designs from which to make selections.

H. W CURLETT

s12 Millington, Md.

Exclusive Agents For DOVER
CLEANERS & DYERS
All work called for and delivered twice weekly—
WEDNESDAYS AND SATURDAYS

BORDLEY & SON
Chestertown Md.

BASKET BALL GAME

Saturday, Jan. 9, 1926

8.15 P. M.

University of Maryland
School of Dentistry
vs.
Washington College

©Maryland State Archives, msa_sc6000_22_1-0006