—HEAT—

These wintry days bring vividly before us the problem of heating.

We have been studying the modern methods of heating to some degree, particularly for those homes that do not have basements as well as for those who desire an inexpensive system of heating. We offer you two very successful and efficient Heaters. The first of these is

Allen's Parlor Furnace

Finished in Dark Gray or Walnut Enamel, it is a very attractive piece of furniture as well as a very successful heater. Nothing to do but connect the smoke pipe to your chimney and make a fire.

The Dark Grey Enamel at $115.00
The Walnut Finish at $125.00

The second is the

Antonia Parlor Furnace

This is finished in Grey or Walnut is a size smaller than the Allen.

The Grey Enamel is $75.00
The Walnut is $85.00

These furnaces heat from 4 to 8 rooms. We have satisfied customers to whom we can refer you. Come and see them.

Yours to Serve

BUSINESS MEN TO SPONSOR MOVEMENT

The News is glad to report that steps are being taken to recognize in some form the service of Kent soldiers in the late war and at the same time carry out the suggestion of beautifying the Park.

Monday evening a committee consisting of Dr. Paul E. Titsworth, P. Medford Brooks, representing the Business Men's Association met with the Town Commissioners for the purpose of devising plans for the improvmeent of the public square in the center of the town and for providing for the erection therein of a suitable memorial to the soldiers of the town and county who fought and died during the World War.

Not only the cooperation of the Commissioners but other organizations in the community, notably Old Kent Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, the Ladies' Town Improvement Association and other civic bodies, will be solicited.

President Titsworth has in contemplation during the spring and summer a broad program of improvement to the environments of the college, and it is planned to link this program with that of the town improvement. The commissioners expressed themselves heartily in accord with the contemplated movement, and assured the committee of their cooperation and substantial support.

The town is one of the very few on the Shore which have not yet recognized the services of its soldiers in the late war.
