Easton Captures First Place In Interscholastic Track And Field Meet

Easton captured first place in the fifth annual Eastern Shore interscholastic track and field meet held at Washington College, gaining 28 points. St. Michaels was second, with a total of 20, just nosing out Pocomoke, which came third with 19.

Easton's victory enabled Talbot to finish first in the county race, with Caroline tied with Worcester for second, and Somerset in third position.

The winning team was first in the 440 yard 80 pound class relay, the medley relay in the junior unlimited group, and captured enough points with seconds and thirds to compile a point score greater than any of its competitors.

Rotarians Attend Inter-city Meeting

Plan For Ladies Night During Summer

About ten members of the Chestertown Rotary Club attended the inter-city meeting held in Baltimore yesterday. All clubs of the thirty-fourth district were invited. The visitors were guests of the Baltimore club at a ball game and dinner at Hotel Rennert.

George Bahlke, president of the Baltimore Club, has agreed to address the local Rotarians in the near future, possibly some time in June.

The entertainment committee is planning a Ladies Night to be held during the summer months at one of Kent's bayside resorts.

MEETING IN RICH NECK

Wednesday evening was a memorable occasion in Rich Neck. The Young People's Club held a social in Union M. E. Church. The following program was presented:
