LOCAL PARAGRAPHS

Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Strong have bought Mrs. Deputy's home at Fairlee, and moved in on Saturday.

As will be seen by advertisement in another column of this paper, The Tolchester Company will start their summer schedule on Saturday, May 29th.

Decoration Day coming on Sunday will be observed as a holiday on Monday. Graves in Chester Cemetery will be decorated by the local American Legion in the morning. In the afternoon a Polo match will be played on Ziesel's field and a game of ball on the College diamond.

As there are many valuable non-fiction books on the shelves of the Chestertown Library the Executive Board has decided to lend them out for a month at a time without renewal hoping by this means that the patrons of the Library may be induced to add to their store of knowledge by reading these standard words as well as the fiction of the day.

The net proceeds of a bazaar held by the By-Kota Club of the M. E. Church on High street on Saturday afternoon and evenign were about $165, which will be used for promoting the work of the club. The last meeting of the organization until the fall was held Monday evening at the home of Miss Helen Baxter on High street.

St. Paul's festival will be held next Thursday evening. Wesley follows a week later.

The Easternsho Forest No. 53, Tall Cedars of Lebanon, held their May Ceremonial in the Armory on Cross street, Chestertown, Tuesday night. The Tall Cedars of Lebanon is an organization the membership of which is confined to members of the masonic fraternity and the primary object of which is just fun and frolic. The visiting "Cedars" principally from Salisbury, came to town in large auto busses and were accompanied by a brass band. Fourteen new members, from Chestertown and vicinity, were initiated at the Ceremonial Tuesday night.

W. H. Thawley, South Queen St., Chestertown, will give a demonstration of the Red Star Oil Stove during the week of May 29th to June 5th. A representative from the factory will be present. During this sale at 10 per cent reduction will be allowed on all purchases of stoves.

Beginning Tuesday, June 1st, the Chestertown Public Library will be open every Tuesday and Saturday morning from 10 o'clock until one and Saturday evenings from 6.30 to 8 p. m.

Hogans' Express Company has been denied the right to run a truck route between Baltimore and Church Hill.

The Old Line Construction Company of Chestertown, landed a 3-mile road contract near Delmar this week.

The steamer Dreamland, formerly the Republic, was sold Wednesday at public auction in Baltimore. Charles A. Jording, dealer in junk, purchased the old excursion boat for $4,600, the sale including the equipment.

Reduced rates have been filed with the Public Service Commission by the Betterton Ice and Electric Company.

Lovers of harness racing are preparing to attend the first matinee of the season to be held at Harrington, Saturday afternoon. Kent county's interest centers in two entries from the stable of John Mallalieu, a former Wilmington trainer, now located at Sudlersville Driving Park. They are Edna Hal, owned by Captain Wm. C. A. Thompson, of Chestertown, and Princess D., formerly the property of George Sutton, of this county, but now owned by John Zebley, of Wilmington. Four races are scheduled, each for a purse of $1,000.

WEDDING NOTES

At noon on Saturday a wedding of interest to many in Kent and Queen Anne's counties took place at Emmanuel P. E. Church, when Miss Frances E. Perry became the bride of James G. Metcalfe, a prominent young business man of Kent conuty.

The wedding, although quiet, was one of the prettiest on the Shore in recent months. The bride-elect who is one of the charming young women of the social set in Kent and Queen Anne's counties was given in marriage by her brother, John Wilkinson Perry, of "Spring Gardens," near Centreville.

Her matron of honor was her sister, Mrs. Philip G. Wilmer, of Chestertown, and little Miss Betty Beck, charming and pretty daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Scott Beck, of Chestertown, and niece of the bride-elect, was the flower girl.

Mr. Metcalfe had his brother and business partner, Brown Metcalfe, also of Chestertown, as best man, and the uhers were Senator Dudley G. Roe, of Queen Anne's county; L. E. Skinner, brother-in-law of the bride, Swarthmore, Pa.; State's Attorney S. Scott Beck, and Wm. B Wilmer, of Chestertown. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Philip G. Wilmer, Front street, after which the couple left for an auto tour through the Shenandoah Valley and other Southern sections. They will live in the Crouch residence on Chester river, recently purchased by the groom.

Miss Perry is a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John M. Perry, of "Spring Gardens," near Centreville. She spent her girlhood in Centreville and was graduated from Centreville High School, and more recently from Dickinson College, Carlyle, Pa. She has for some time made her home with her sister, Mrs. Wilmer, in Chestertown. She is also well known in Swarthmore, Pa., where she was frequently the guest of her sister, Mrs. Louis E. Skinner. Numerous elaborate parties have been given in her honor during the past few weeks.

Mr. Metcalfe is a son of Mrs. James B. Metcalfe, of Sudlersville, and the late Mr. Metcalfe. He is one of Chestertown's most prominent youn men, and is engaged in business with his brother, Brown Metcalfe. He also is popular with a host of friends.

The bride wore a neat-fitting blue georgette dress and carried a bouquet of orchids and lilies-of-the-valley. The matron of honor's dress was of tan georgette and carried a maiden bouquet.

The flower girl wore a yellow dress and organdie hat and carried an old fashion bouquet.

Harry A. Layton, of Denton, Md., married to Miss Bessie Dowling, of Rock Hall on May 26, at the parsonage of the Church of the Brethren, at Denton, by Rev. S. Ira Arnold.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kennedy, of Kennedyville, gave a party on Friday evening, May 21st, in honor of their daughter, Miss Margaret's sixteenth birthday. About 8 o'clock the guests began to arrive. The house was beautifully decorated with plants and flowers. About ten o'clock refreshments were served. The dining room was decorated for the occasion, the color scheme being pink, blue and white. The center of the table was a beautiful "May Pole" with ribbons of pink, blue and white extending from the pole across the table forming pyramids with large angel birthday cake in the center with sixteen little pink candles on it pink favor baskets filled with candy at each girls' place while blue baskets with cand at the young men's place. Refreshments consisting of block cream, strawberries, cakes and candy.

Those present were:

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kennedy, Misses Margaret E. Kennedy, Gladys Archibald, Anna C. Wiltbank, Lydia P. George, Louise Crow, Isabel Crow, Helen Jones, Elizabeth Jones, Anna Deshane, Alice Kennedy, Kathryn Atwell, Kathryn Nickerson, and Helena Brown, Arthur Cleaver, Marion Sutton, Weldon Townsend, Paul Massey, Jr., Charles Clard, David Nickerson, Vernon Hill, John Money, Walter Kernan, Russell Fowler, Vernon Fowler, James Lusby, Robert Kennedy William Cleaver, George Kennedy, Lloyd Kennedy and family, Samuel Deshane and family, Ollie Atwell and fauily, Mr. and Mrs. John Atwell, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Glenn.

Many beautiful and useful presents were received. After spending a delightful evening, at a late hour, all left for their homes, wishing Miss Margaret many more happy birthdays.

PERSONAL NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. William Wells and son, Harold, and a friend, Mrs. S. Sparks, of Millville, N. J., were Sunday guests of the former's sister, Mrs. W. A. Joiner.

Dr. J. S. Wm. Jones, dean of Washington College faculty, will sail for England early in June where he will take a summer course in mathematics at Cambridge University and will tour a number of foreign countries before his return to the states in September.

J. Hall Denny and Dr. Trippe, of Talbot, saw the base ball game here Monday. They are Easton rooters.

E. L. King, superintendent of the boarding club at Washington College will leave here June 19th for Ocean City, Md., where he will have charge of a fine tea room.

Dr. Walter Truslow, wife and daughter, and Mr. James L. Bacchus all of New York, spent several days the past week with Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Bacchus, Chestertown.

Lewin Deputy is able to sit on his porch after a spell of pneumonia.

Mrs. Jas. G. Beck has returned to her home in Chestertown very much improved in health, after some time spent in Baltimore under the care of a specialist.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Barnett, of Baltimore, were week-end guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Barnett.

Edward Shuman, of Washington, spent the week-end with his wife at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Cooper.

Mrs. Louis Sheats, of Baltimore, spent Sunday the guest of relatives here.

Wm. Klein and family spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Klein at Fairlee.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen C. Smith entertained as Sunday guests Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lefever and Miss Katie Green, all of Baltimore.

Miss Rebecca Davis is visiting relatives in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Fannie Usilton, of Fairlee, spent the past week the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Voss, of Wilmington.

Misses Elizabeth and Martha Trew have rented the second floor apartment in the Custom House, recently vacated by Miss Mary Lynn.

Chas. Keithley, formerly of Chestertown, now in the baking business at North East, Cecil county, is a candidate for county commissioner in that county.

Miss Lucille Parr, of Still Pond, who was injured in an automobile accident several weeks ago, was taken to a Baltimore hospital on Monday. An X-ray examination disclosed fractures of hip and pelvic bones.

Walter Barnes, of Wilmington, is spending the week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Barnes.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter T. Pippin motored to Sabillasville, on Saturday and visited their daughter, Miss Anna at the State Sanatorium.

James Shuster, of Wilmington, visited his sister, Mrs. Wm. F. Russell, the first of the week.

Supt. M. A. Perkins and Managers T. H. Wood, W. O. Bringman and Reuben Rodney attended a banquet and meeting of the A. & P. Stores in Salisbury Sunday. There were 51 present.

George Hatcherson, Norman Edw. Carter, R. V. Moffett, Sr., and Geo. W. Carter, Jr., attended the funeral of Harry B. Thomas, at Langhorn, Pa., on Saturday.

R. S. Crew and wife moved into their new home on Washington ave this week.

J. Raymond Lusby has rented the Eliason farm on Lankford Bay in Broad Neck, now tenanted by Capt. H. W. Hadaway, who will move to his farm near McClain's Corner.

Wm. Vansant has been confined to his home on Mill street for ten days with an injured ankle.

Mrs. W. Frazier Russell, Jr., returned from Baltimore hospital Wednesday very much improved.

Miss Mary Trew left town Thursday for Galen Hall, Wernersville, Pa., where she will spend the summer.

Capt. James E. Woodall, one of Kent county's most well-known citiens, was stricken with paralysis on Monday at his home in Georgetown and his condition at this time is reported to be exeremely critical.

POLO GAME MONDAY

Another Polo Game will be played near Chestertown next Monday afternoon at Ziesel's Field. The Eastern Shore Women's Polo Team and the Washington Women's Polo Team will be the contestants. The latter team is said to be composed of experts.

Memorial Day service at Janes M. E. Church, colored, Sunday, May 30. 10.30 pastor's subject "Christ, The Sure Foundation;" 3.00 Rev. W. G. Matthews, of Coleman, will preach —his choir will accompany him; 8.00 the pastor will deliver the memorial message. Ex-soldiers of the Civil War and World War are invited. Music bp the choir. The Queens will make their rally report. Dr. J. R. Waters will preach Sunday, June 6 at p. m.

Among the pretty rose gardens in Rock Hall, Mrs. T. B. Durding's is hard to beat.

STANLEY B. SUTTON SCALDED

While operating a tractor on the farm of his father, Linwood A. Sutton, one of the members of Maryland's national cattle judging team which will sail for London on June 18, was scalded about the face and shoulders by escaping steam from the tractor. Fortunately the young man's eyes were not affected, and it is not believed that the accident will prevent him from making the trip nor will it detract from his judging ability. Young Sutton, with the two other members of the team, had just returned from Atlantic City, where they were the guests of the Maryland Bankers' Association i nannual session at the Traymore Hotel.

TIRE SALE

The MILLER, FEDERAL and MICHELIN

THOMPSON BATTERY AND ELECTRIC SHOP
603 HIGH STREET
CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND.

MISS E. G. HALSTEAD
The Well-Known Toilet Goods Specialist

Will Give You a Free Massage in Your Own Home by Appointment.

Careful attention to your skin will insure the attractiveness and personal charm that every woman craves.

To Neglect Your Skin Is To Forfeit Its Beauty

We have engaged Miss Halstead, the well-known Toilet Goods Specialist, for the week of June 7th to 14th, to call on a number of ladies in Chestertown each day, to give free massage and individual help and advice on the care of the skin.

This is an Exceptional Opportunity for One Week only

Step into the store, write or phone us. We'll do the rest. Understand Miss Halstead massage and advice are free.

Miss Halstead Will Also Be Glad to Talk to Any Woman's Club in Chestertown Free of Charge.

STERLING'S PHARMACY
THE REXALL STORE
CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND.

IN COMMEMORATION OF MEMORIAL DAY
THIS STORE
WILL BE CLOSED ALL DAY
MONDAY, MAY 31st.

BORDLEY & SON
CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND.

"THE STORE WITH A CONSCIENCE"

Dress up the house for summer

A house is like a person, it is just as cool as it looks. Don't let your house wear its winter clothes in the summer.

See our delightfully colored cretonnes for brightening up the home. Light, airy materials for the windows and draperies.

For the floors, we have the cool, easy-to-keep-clean mattings, rugs of grass, Deltox, fibre and wool and fibre in cool looking summery patterns. Sizes up to 12x15.

Brighten up

HARRY F. JEFFERSON
Chestertown, Maryland.

"THE STORE WITH A CONSCIENCE"

©Maryland State Archives, msa_sc6000_22_1-0209