Fine Yacht In Chestertown

Chestertown now boasts a $10,000 yacht. On last Wednesday morning the yacht "Tranquility," with the owner, Commodore Herbert T. Hartman, M. P. Brooks, R. Hynson Rogers, R. H. Collins, Jr., and George Batchelor arrived in Chestertown harbor from New York. The "Tranquility" is a beauty and rides the waves like a beautiful swan. She is an entire new boat having been built at New York under the direct orders of the owner, Commodore Herbert T. Hartman, of Chestertown. The boat is 39 feet long with 12 foot beam and having a 125 horse-power engine. She is lighted by electricity, is said to have cost $10,000 and is thoroughly equipped with every convenience for cruising in home waters or abroad.

Lightning Sets Fire To Harry Clark's Barn

During the electric and hail storm which visited Kent Monday afternoon the outbuildings on the farm of Harry Clark, near Lynch, were burned. Loss included hay, corn, a favorite horse and a dog. The horse was in the stable and the dog went there to get in from the storm. Mrs. Clark was looking out the window and saw the bolt strike. She and her husband with help saved the harness and all implements.

The Chestertown Fire Company responded to the alarm and saved the residence, the barn and stables being a mass of flame by the time the firemen reached the scene. No damag was done to growing crops by the hail stones whoch were about the size of peas, in Chestertown.

Mr. Clark's loss will amount to $5,000 on which there was only $500 insurance.

Health Association Meet

A meeting of the Kent County Public Health Association was held here Thursday and reports were read of work done in combating contagious efficient work along this line has been efficinet work along this line has been done by Dr. Joseph P. Franklin, deputy State health officer for Cecil, Kent and Queen Anne's counties. During the year the majority of children of high school age have been inoculated with the toxin anti-toxin treatment, with the consent of their parents, and every effort is now being made to reach elementary school pupils in outlying districts of the county. This campaign has been waged with the co-operation and permission of local school authorities.

COMMENCEMENT WEEK IS HERE

The Commencement exercises at Washington College began Sunday evening when the annual sermon to the Christian associations was delivered in Christ M. P. Church by Rev. Harry Holmes, of New York. It was a splendid address on "The Creed of Jesus Christ"—Love of God and Love of Men. A choir of 25 voices rendered special music, under the direction of Prof. A. Roy Woodland, of the college faculty. This week includes the annual declamation contest for the Simpers gold medals on Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock, and the annual debate for the Samuel Towner Rogers prizes at 8 p. m. the same day. Today, Saturday, has been designated as Alumni Day. The events include the annual Alumni-Varsity baseball game, President Titsworth's annual reception to the visiting alumni, members of the board of visitors and governors, faculty, and students, in the college gymnasium, and the annual reunion and banquet of the Alumni Association at 8 o'clock, at which covers will be laid for 200 members and guests. On Sunday morning, June 13, President Titsworth will deliver the bacclaureate address to the graduates in William Smith Hall, and on Monday morning, June 14, the graduating exercises will take place in William Smith Hall. The address to the graduates will be delivered by former Chief Judge J. Harry Covington, of the Suprme Court of the District of Columbia, and President Titsworth will deliver the diplomas, award prizes anl confer honorary degrees. One of the most interesting and impressive features of the exercises will be the presentation of a large portrait of the late Chief Judge James Alfred Pearce, for years president of the board of visitors and governors, which will be unveiled with solemn ceremonies and hung upon the wall over the stage in William Smith Hall, besides the portraits of the late Chief Judge Joseph A. Wickes, a former president of the board, and former president of the college, the late Dr. Charles W. Reid, and Dr. James W. Cain. The graduating class is one of the largest for some years, numbering 18 men and women as follows:

Bachelor Of Arts.

James Straughn Adkins, Roland Frederick Adkins, J. Frank Blake, Jr., Ralph Horst Buchanan, Percy Schmidt Donaghay, Michael John Fiore, Margaret Alice Hammer, Sara Elizabeth Herman, Michael Francis Kelly, Lida Eugenia Leaverton, Virgil Eves Maddox, Howard Timothy Rayne, Harry Simmons Russell, William Schnauffer, Hilmah Shirley Touchton, Warren Hyland VanSant.

Bachelor Of Science.

Emil John Christopher Hildenbrand, Lawrence Gilford Holland, Thomas Kenneth McDonald, James Carl Rankin, Leslie Ewing Timmons, William Edgar Twilley, William Horace Wheeler.

The Rev. John White recently appointed rector of Old St. Paul's P. E. Church of Kent county, will deliver the address to the graduates of Chestertown High School, June 18, and to the Elementary graduates the afternoon of Thursday, June 17th.

He will also speak at Galena High School Wednesday evening, June 16 and at Rock Hall High School the evening of June 17th. Rev. C. L. Atwater will preach thte Baccalaureate sermon to the Rock Hall graduates Sunday.

KENT WINS SONG TEST

Maryland's club song is the finest in the land.

At the final "sing" between rival State federations of clubs in Atlantic City Friday the Maryland song, "Our Pledge," was given the prize, a silk flag, as the winner over 47 other State songs.

The words of "Our Pledge" were written by Miss Minnie Hicks, of the Associated Blind Women of Maryland, and whose parents are W. T. Hicks and wife, of Chestertown, who was awarded a prize of $25 in gold at the annual meeting of the Maryland State Federation in April 1925.

The words of the sightless singer were afterwards given a spirited setting by Mrs. Chester B. Graham, of the Woman's Community Club of Kensington, who also was awarded a $25 prize at the recent meeting of the State Federation in Annapolis.

Here are the words:

OUR PLEDGE

For Maryland, our Maryland,
For all we hold most dear—
For God and Home and Right we stand,
With loyal heart and willing hand,
The future visioned clear.

REFRAIN

A woman' heart, a woman's hand,
A woman's constancy;
In union strong, O Maryland,
We pledge to Right and thee.
In church and school and court and street
May truth and justice reign,
With love and mercy mingled sweet;
May happiness and labor meet
In truest, noblest gain.
We guard thy homes, O Maryland,
Thy coming years to bless,
With citizens beneath whose hand
Thy State shall grow, the life expand
And good shall rule success.

Sunday School Convention Meets in Galena Church

Galena M. E. Church, Rev. Ivanhoe Willis, pastor, extended a warm welcome to the 90 or more delegates who attended the Sunday School Convention there Tuesday. A sumptuous dinner was served to about a hundren and about sixty partook of a supper that was really appetizing. The ladies of Galena certainly deserve credit for the excellent reception accorded everyone.

The convention opened, H. S. Startt presiding, with address of welcome by the pastor followed by a response by Wm. T. Hague. Miss Lillian McCormick and C. H. Gundersdorff gave splendid addresses.

In the afternoon Rev. Mr. Thawley made the principal address followed by conferences of various divisions.

At night Dr. Frank Heiser, of Newark, Del., gave a most impressive and interesting address on Sunday school work. It was along practical lines leaving the experts and graded systems far behind in his aim to build Christian character and save souls.

Duets were sung by Mrs. Shallcross and Rev. Colvin Randall in addition to singing by Galena Church and Sunday school choirs.

The convention adjourned to meet next year in Rock Hall.

The following officers were elected and installed by Rev. Mr. Hanby:

President—Henry T. Caldwell.
Vice President—H. S. Startt.
2nd Vice President—Mrs. Wm. T. Brice, Jr.
Secretary-Treasurer—Bayard Harper.
Assistant—Miss Emma Shafer.
Recording Secretary—Mrs. H. T. Williams.
Superintendents — Mrs. Harvey Moore, Bayard Ayres, Rev. Ivanhoe Willis, Rev. Mr. Revelle, Rev. Mr. Barrett, Rev. C. W. Clark.
Executive Committee—M. E. Newsome, R. G. Nicholson, N. O. Gibson.
