URIEVILLE

KENT COUNTY, MD.

FOR SALE.

Rare Chance for Investment.

THE undersigned will sell at public sale, in Chestertown, on Tuesday,

the 24th of June next, at 11 o'clock, A. M., all their

MILLS,

HOUSES and DWELLINGS,

on the mail route between Elkton and Chester Town, in Kent county, Md., known as considered the best water power in the county and among the best on the Eastern Shore. It is located in a rapidly improving neighborhood, abounding in timber and easy of access to Baltimore or Philadelphia, being only two miles distant from navigable water, six from Chester Town, the capital of the county, from which place there is almost daily communication with Baltimore, by steamboats, and 5½ miles from Turner's Creek where steamboats puts in semi-weekly on their passage to Philadelphia.

The improvements consists of a Grist and Saw MILL and a HOUSE formerly used as a Woollen Factory, with the machinery, now occupied in the preparation of carriage materials—together with Eight Dwelling Houses, Post Office, Store, Carriage Houses, Stables, &c., to which there are exclusive of the Mill Pond which covers 30 more.

30 Acres of Land,

The Grist and Saw Mills was rented out last year for $600. The rental of the other houses for the present year is $430 per annum, making in all an annual rental of $1,030. It is not thought necessary to go more minutely into a description of the property, as it is presumed those wishing to purchase will inspect for themselves.

After repeated solicitation from aged parents, one of the subscriber's, who has the principal control of the property, consents to sell. The other being a farmer at a distance, not being able to spare any attention from his agricultural pursuits. We therefore offer the whole, or lots to suit purchasers, on the most accommodating terms, viz:

$1000 of the purchase money to be paid on the first day of October next—$1000 on the first day of January 1857, and the remainder in four annual payments, with interest on the whole sum from day of sale. Approved security with bond and mortgage will be required.
