COMING EVENTS

Chestertown is a lively place for one to live. Events crowd upon each other in quick order. In the month of June the News published a record of coming events which kept our readers and residents busy. We have come to another season of the year when events crowd upon each other, viz.:

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 2, postponed Tournament for professional and amateur riders of Cecil, Kent and Queen Anne's counties on William French's Farm, two miles from town, for benefit of Salem M. E. Church.

SEPTEMBER 6 to 10, First Summer School for Rural Ministers of the Delmarvia Peninsula to be held at Washington College, with faculty composed of Washington College professors and Bibical scholars of national reputation.

SEPTEMBER 6, Circus in Town.

SEPTEMBER 10-18, Second Annual Carnival of Chestertown Fire Company on public Square. Parade on Thursday evening, Sept. 16.

SEPTEMBER 13, Public Schools open for fall term.

SEPTEMBER 14 to 16, Fresbman Week at Washington College.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 14, Primary Election for Entire State and County Tickets.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 20, Recitations begin at Washington, prospect for an enrollment of 250 students.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 20, Eastern Shore County Commissioners meet in Chestertown for a one day meeting.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 7, Pre-Primary Registration Day.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 4, Horse Show postponed because of rain to this date.

Unthreshed Wheat Fields

Wheat on five Kent county farms remain unthreshed in the neighborhood of Galena. In most instances the grain has sprouted and several fields show shocks that are covered with green.

The reason for the fields not being threshed is generally attributed to the fact that threshing machines were not able to cover the usual number of farms owing to the fact that the crop throughout the county was unusually heavy, thus taking more time to thresh out.

Wedding Ceremonies Of Singular Interest

Jesse L. Barnes, a Carroll county widower, and Mrs. Rose Virginia Beebe, of Parkersburg, W. V., were issued a marriage license here Tuesday. They were driven to Tolchester where the ceremony was performed on the shore while the waves of the Chesapeake Bay played the wedding march. The minister was a visitor to the Beach and known to the parties. It was the groom's fourth venture into the state of matrimony.

Miss Nettie Mae Teat and James Alfred Simpler, Jr., both of Queen Anne's county, were quietly married Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the M. E. Parsonage, Chestertown. Rev. Mr. Corkran performing the ceremony. The young couple surprised their many firends and relatives.

Earl Adams, of Somers Point, and Miss Rose Naylor, of Ocean City, N. J., were married at the M. P. Parsonage in Chestertown Wednesday by Rev. N. O. Gibson.

During the recent illness of Rev. N. O. Gibson a couple went to the parsonage to be married. They were about to go away because of the pastor being sick in bed, when two ministers who happened to be visiting their sick brother overheard Mrs. Gibson's remark, took in the situation and at once offered their services which were accepted. So that instead of being married by Rev. N. O. Gibson the couple were wedded by Dr. Frank T. Little assisted by Dr. J. M. Sheridan, two ex-presidents of the Maryland Annual Conference, and the fees was turned over to the "parsonage fund."

A. C. Schmidt and Mrs. Lavinia Bullen were married last week. They reside at Rock Hall and will continue in the florist business.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Nevin Marks, 4604 Baltimore avenue, Philadelphia, was the scene of a pretty wedding last Saturday evening when Anna Beatrice DeFord, the niece of Mrs. Marks, was given in marriage by her brother, Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Evans, of Waltham, Mass. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. F. J. Bartlett, of the Chester Avenue Baptist Church.

The bride wore a period gown of white taffeta and a veil decorated with a shower bouquet of brides roses. The maid of honor, Miss Margaret Watson, wore beaded orchid crepe and carried a bouquet of tea roses. The bridesmaids were Miss Grace Evans, of New York, sister of the groom, and Miss Ruth Shuff, of Philadelphia, who wore period gowns of pink taffeta and carried bouquets of old fashion garden flowers. Mr. Henry B. Lent, acted as best man, and Albert Morgan as usher. Both of Philadelphia.

The house was beautifully decorated with pink and white flowers, banked in oak leaves. Music was furnished by piano, cello and violin.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James DeFord, of Chestertown, who attended the wedding. The groom is a graduate of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, class of 1925, and is employed as mechanical engineer by the Atlantic Refining Company.

After a real Maryland reception to about one hundred guests, the couple left for New England, where they will spend part of their honeymoon touring and visiting the groom's parents.

FARM BUREAU DRIVE

The Farm Bureau drive for new members began August 26th and will continue for a week. This is one of the most practical farmers' organizations now existing Their folders telling of the advantages will be ready in a day or two. Get one from Secretary Wm. G. Smyth, then join.

Horse Shoe Pitching Contest

One of the new attractions during the week of the Firemen's Carnival will be a Horse-Shoe-Pitching-Contest each evening.

This game will be played according to the rules now prevailing and used in various cities, etc., where this game has gained quite a reputation among various persons, taking part in same and for a good clean sport, ranks with our other well known games now prevailing and affords lots of amusement for quite a number in our town and county who participate in same.

Each night a prize of $2.50 in gold will be given to the team (two persons) making the highest score and each party will have the privilege of making pitches of 2 shoes each, making 50 pitches in all during one game.

On the last or final evening, the team making the highest score will be awarded a prize of $5.00 in gold, also a beautiful cup will be donated by The Volunteer Fire Company to the winners of said contest.

A small admission fee will be charged for participating in each contest.

Please therefore arrange to be here and take part, also tell your friends, as this is open to any or all who desire to take part and every one is invited to come.
