FIELD MASS AT OLD BOHEMIA

A solemn high field mass will be celebrated on the lawn of St. Francis Xavier's (Old Bohemia) Church at 11 o'clock Sunday, October 10, 1926. This is the oldest Catholic Church on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, older than in Delaware or Philadelphia. It was founded in 1704. The Jesuit Fathers sailed across the Chesapeake Bay from Baltimore, Md., to the big Bohemia, thence up the little Bohemia, to the present site of St. Francis's Xavier's, better known as Old Bohemia Church. Here Georgetown University had its beginning. Here Charles Carroll, of Carrolltown, one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence, and his cousin, John Carroll, the first Catholic Bishop of America, spent their early school days.

This, therefore, is an historical spot. Now historical places should be preserved for future generations. It has been the praiseworthy custom, particularly in recent years for the Federal Government, the several States and Muncipalities to perpetuate in a suitable manner, historical events and to point with justifiable pride to those heroic persons who have much and dared much for the public good and for their fellow men.

So, too, the friends and lovers of Old Bohemia greatly desire and deeply hope to make of this hallowed spot a shrine sacred to the memory of those-sacrificing Jesuit Fathers, who, in yesteryears, spent themselves and were spent, as the Apostles of Old, for the salvation of souls; sacred also to those who sleep in the adjoining cemetery; sacred, moreover to justice, freedom and liberty.

To these ends, on the 10th day of October, 1926, at 11 o'clock a Solemn High Field Mass will be celebrated as above stated. We hope to make this celebration an annual event.

All are cordially invited to attend and take part in this historic celebration and by their presence honor those God-fearing priests who sacrificed themselves that others might live the better, truer, and higher life. The Rt. Rev. Edmond J. FitMaurice, Bishop of Wilmington, will be present. A noted Jesuit Father will preach. Rev. James F. Earner, pastor of Sacred Heart Church, Chestertown, Md., will be celebrant, Rev. Patrick A. Brennan, pastor of St. Johns Church, Newark, Del., deacon. Rev. John J. Bolen, Chancellor of the diocese, sub-deacon. Deacons of honor Rev. Charles P. McGoldrick, pastor of Mother of Sorrows Church, Centreville, Md., Rev. Pierre Launay, O. S. F. S.

Route—From Wilmington, Del., to Middletown, Del., (25 miles), West to Warwick, (4 miles), second turn to Old Bohemia (2 miles.

Route—From Elkton through Chesapeake City, to Cecilton (15 miles), first turn to left to Warwick, Md., (5 miles), first turn to left to Old Bohemia Church (3 miles).

—are you? Are you balancing your daily affairs? You should be, because balance is just as vital in your life as it is in wire-walking, aviation or bookkeeping.

Balance your finances, it will make your life easier and prevent dire circumstances. Just like carrying water—it is easier to carry a bucket on each shoulder than both on one shoulder. They balance!

The same principle applies to your affairs. Balance work with play—sorrow with gladness—and balance your expenses with SAVINGS.

The man who fails to save money is forced to pass up opportunities, business success, future comforts and happiness for the man who does.

Washington College Team To Be The Centre Of Attraction

President Titsworth and Prof. W. R. Howell, graduate manager, of Washington College, were in conference this week with Col. Hyatt, vice president of the Pennsylvania Military College, and Capt. Conner at Chester. The object of the visit was to cement the present relationship between the colleges so that there will be no break and to perfect plans for the big game to be played on Oct. 2nd. At this time the $80,000 new stadium will be dedicated witn appropriate ceremonies.

The team will go to College Park today and play their first game. They are rapidly coming into shape under Coach Brown, a newcomer to W. C. Both Coaches Kibler and Brown are with the team daily and find the boys quick to learn. There are only four of last year's letter men on the squad.

THREE RING MOTOR TRUCK CIRCUS TO EXHIBIT HERE

Downie Bros. Wild Animal Circus. This well known circus will be seen here Tuesday, October 5th. This season the entire circus is transported on an immense fleet of motor trucks. Keeping a little ahead of the times they have discarded their train of obsolete wooden railroad cars and have the latest model motor trucks. Wild animals, horses, ponies and even the herd of elephants all have their own palatial auto pullmans. "A Mile of Motor Trucks" is necessary to move this gigantic amusement enterprise from place to place but with experts in every department it is accomplished with apparent ease.

Downie Bros. give a big street parade at noon each day.

The Downie Bros. herd of elephants are under the direction of N. W. McKay, trainer of "Tusko," the world's largest elephant. Included in the herd is "Teddy," the New York Hippodrome elephant, who has delighted thousands in the past three years at the world's largest theatre.

One of the big features with Downie Bros. Circus is the concert band under the leadership of WilliamAllison. They play the latest Jazz numbers as well as the standard marches.

The prices of the big show will be 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children. Two performances at 2.15 and 8.15 p. m. Doors open one hour earlier.

You can teach an old dog new tricks!

I WAS already a veteran pipe-smoker when I ran across Prince Albert. It happened one day in the smoking-car. I reached for my tobacco and found I was "out." A good samaritan sitting across the aisle held out a friendly looking red tin.

I accepted the offer. That was a great moment in my life, as it turned out. Why, that very first taste won me. It was cool, like a breeze through an open window. It was sweet as a ripe peach. It was fragrant, even in that smoke-filled car. I was having the time of my life.

The mildness of Prince Albert appealed to me too. Yet there was plenty of body to it. I knew I was smoking. And I knew I was enjoying it more than any other tobacco I had ever tried. That settled me. I bought some P. A. when the train pulled in.

That was several years ago. I've been a P. A. regular ever since. Maybe you need a similar experience to put you next to the grandest tobacco that ever lined a pipe-bowl. My suggestion is: don't wait! Get yourself a tidy red tin of Prince Albert today!

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red tins, pound and half-pound tin humidors, and pound crystal-glass humidors with sponge-moistener top. And always with every bit of bite and parch removed by the Prince Albert process.
