P. T. A. Meeting

The Parent-Teacher Association of the Massey School held its first meeting at the school Wednesday between the hours of 3 and 4.30. Among the many interesting items of the program was a demonstration in primary reading taught by Miss Mamie Donohoe. A word of commendation was given by Miss Woodley, the supervisor, and a request for more similar lessons was made by the president, Mrs. E. T. Massey.

The election of officers was speedily accompanied with the following results:

President—Mrs. E. T. Massey.
Vice President—Mrs. A. V. Crew.
Secretary—Miss Clara Palmer.
Treasurer—Mrs. Dudley Everett.

The treasurer reported a balance in the treasury of $18.32, a part of which shall be spent for curtains for the grammar room.

A Halloween social was arranged for, in which the parents will furnish refreshments, while the pupils will prepare a program.

An invitation was extended to the community to attend the celebrations at 2.30 next Tuesday in honor of Columbus.

A committee of three, Mrs. Bryan Shockley, Mrs. Lester Newnam and Miss Clara Palmer, was appointed to arrange a program for the year, namely, the securing of more library and books and a victrola.

The attendance was commendable. Among those present were Mrs. Lester Newnam, Mrs. John Bramble, Mrs. Walter Darrell, Mrs. Frank Benton, Miss Clara Palmer, Mrs. Bryan Shockley, Mrs. John Waecker, Mrs. Katie Roe, Mrs. A. V. Crew, Mrs. Dudley Everett, Mrs. E. Thos. Massey, Miss Mamie Donahoe, Miss Helen J. Woodley and Rev. J. H. Garner.

The first five of these are new members. We hope our complete membership will be present next month. Among the items there will be a supervised library lesson to encourage the purpose of Book Week.
CLARA E. PALMER, Sec.

CLINICS TO BE HELD IN TOWN

Four clinics will be held in Kent County under the auspices of the Maryland Tuberculosis Association on Monday, October 11, 1926.

Dr. Nicklas will conduct a clinic for white people in the new Health Center in the Voshell House on Monday morning, October 11th, from 9 a. m. to 12 m.

Dr. John E. O'Neill, of the Maryland Tuberculosis Sanatorium, (colored branch), will hold a clinic at the M. E. Church on College Avenue for the colored people from 9 a. m. until 12 noon.

In the afternoon clinics will be held for colored at Coleman's Corner M. E. Church from 2 to 4 p. m. and Millington M. E. Church from 2 to 4 p. m.

It is particularly important that all persons should be examined who have at any time been in contact wit a case of tuberculosis or who are complaining of cough, expectoration of blood, tired feeling, loss of weight and appetite, indigestion, hoarseness etc. The family physician should be consulted on the adviseability of attending these clinics.

MR. LEE HURT IN ACCIDENT

John T. Lee, engineer on the B. and O. R. R., met with a serious accident Monday morning while on his regular trip near Baltimore. The collision was caused by the fog. Mr. Lee jumped and saved his life but was badly scalded in the face and side. He is resting easy in the hospital where his mother is with him.

AN EXCITING CONTEST

The Worlds Series has been a great affair with thrills a plenty. Flowers, of Washington College, has not measured up to the fans expectations, but will share in the money. New York has won 3 games and St. Louis 2. They play in New York this Saturday. The capacity of the grounds have been taxed at each game. Players earnings have shown a steady increase since the early games of the classic in 1903. The present series will establish a record for both winners and losers, with each member of the winning team receiving $6,254 and the losers, $4,168. Last year's figures were $5,332 and $3,734.

WEDDING EVENTS

Miss Elizabeth Wickes, youngest daughter of Judge and Mrs. Lewin W. Wickes, and Henry A. Kratzer of Chestertown, were married on Monday night by Rev. J. F. Earner at the Sacred Heart Catholic rectory here.

Mr. Kratzer is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Kratzer, of Chestertown. The groom was in the real estate business in Florida last winter and since returning to Chestertown has been in the automobile business. They spent their honeymoon at Atlantic City.

Miss Mary Webb, of Crisfield, became the bride of John Schelberg, of Queenstown, this week. Schelberg is well known here having been one of the star moundsmen for WashingtonCollege several years ago and also twirled for the Chestertown summer team. He is at present a member of the Syracuse team in the International League. Schelberg met his bride-to-be at Chrisfield several years ago when he was a member of the Eastern Shore League team of that town.

The wedding of Miss Maude Ringgold Toulson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John M. Toulson, of Salisbury and Eric Carl Metzerroth, will take place Friday, October 15th, 1926, at High noon at St. Peter's P. E. Church at Salisbury.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Fisher, of Cumberland, announce the marriage of their daughter, Mary Cutter to Franklin Charles Ankeney, on Tuesday, September 28th, at Cumberland.

The bride was the classmate of Mrs. G. Bates Chaires while students at University Hospital, Baltimore and at the present time is public health nurse in Cumberland. She is well known in Chestertown, where she was a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bates Chaires.

DEATHS !

The funeral of John Walter Skirven, whose death was noted in the News last week, took place Sunday afternoon from the home of his daughter, Mrs. H. Stockton Startt, near Chestertown. The large crowd attested to the high esteem in which the deceased was held. Rev. Colvin Randall officiated and the bearers were Charles and French Skirven, Chaplin Willis, Willis Usilton, Skirven and Lee Startt. The interment was in Chester Cemetery.

The deceased was the oldest member of St. James having joined the church in August, 1865. He was 77 years old and a man beloved by a large circle of friends.

He owned three of the finest farms in the county located within three miles of Chestertown, and was a large stockholder in the Tolchester Steamboat Company. He is survived by a widow, Mrs. Virgie Skirven, and two children, Mrs. H. Stockton Startt and a son, Lewin U. Skirven, both of this county.

Mrs. Mary Culley died at the home of Mrs. John T. Cox, near Massey, age 86. She leaves the following children: Mrs. John T. Cox, Massey, Mrs. S. S. Price, Lynch, Mrs. Howard Coxe, Smyrna, Del., Mrs. Walter Reed, Massey, and one son, Joseph Culley, Lynch. She is also survived by 23 grand children. Funeral at the M. P. Church where she used to attended before she was afflicted two year during that time she always held her Saviour as her comforter. She had her children by her bedside when the end came, four devoted daughters to speak the last word of comfort. Her six grandsons acted as bearers; interment in Galena Cemetery.

John Esling, died at his summer home at Rock Hall last Saturday, October 2nd, after an illness of three weeks, aged 80 years. He leaves a wife and two sons. The remains were taken to his home in Baltimore where funeral services were held. Interment in Cedar Hill Cemetery.

On Thursday of last week, Theresa May, only child of Mr. and Mrs. James P. Bolton, Jr., of Earleville, ruptured a blood vessel during a paroxysm of whooping cough, whcih caused her death. Funeral services conducted by Rev. G. W. Dawson, were held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Bolton, Sr., on Sunday afternoon, attended by a large number of relatives and friends gathered to express their sorrow for the bereaved parents.

Thomas M. Bartlett, aged 57 years, died at his home "Clifton," near Easton, Saturday night of heart trouble and Bright's disease. He had been ill for some time. Mr. Bartlett was cashier of the Easton National Bank, a member of the Board of Directors of the Emergency Hospital, Easton; president of the Easton Gazette Publishing Company and treasurer of the local Red Cross Society of Talbott County. In politics he was a Republican and was recognized for years as the leader of that party in Talbot county.

Hugh W. Caldwell, 43 years old, secretary of the Maryland State Teachers' Association and superintendent of Cecil county schools for the last ten years, died Monday at the Maryland General Hospital following an illness of several weeks. He was ordered last week to the Union Hospital at Elkton, and from there he was sent to Baltimore Saturday. An operation and blood transfusion were performed shortly after he entered the hospital.
