REV. GEO. W. COOKE, Evangelist.

EVANGELIST CAMPAIGN BY METHODIST CHURCHES

The two Methodist churches in Chestertown has completed arrangements for holding a three weeks' union revival, beginning next Sunday evening in the M. E. Church, and the entire congregations are being organized for an intensive religious campaign. Rev. George W. Cooke, evangelist, has been engaged for the meetings. As a preliminary to the services a union prayer meeting was held in Christ Church Wednesday evening, conducted by Rev. Dr. Corkran and Rev. N. I. Gibson, pastors of the two churches. The executive committee in charge of the campaign is composed of John C. Davis, M. E. Newsome, Mrs. A. H. Covey, Mrs. John N. Bennett, Charles L. Dodd, Clinton C. Jones, Fred. G. Usilton, W. Robert Huey and William Vansant.

Various other committees have been formed as follows, these to name assistants: Personal Work—Edw. Newsome, Fred. G. Usilton.

Finance—J. C. Davis, H. F. Jefferson, Mrs. Cora Moffett, C. N. Satterfield, George W. French, Mrs. C. C. Jones.

Music—Roy Woodland, Mrs. Merrick Clements, Miss Clara Usilton, Miss Mabel Toulson, Julian Coleman, Arthur Bacon.

Prayer Meetings — A. H. Covey, Mrs. Ella Crow, Miss Rebecca Davis, Thos. D. Bowers, Wm. Vansant, Mrs. Frances Culp.

Ushers—Usher's Union and Men's Club.

Young People's Work—Officers of Epworth League and Christian Endeavor Society.

Conservation—Julian Coleman, Mrs. Elizabeth Baxter, J. S. Kreeger, W. R. Huey, Miss Maud Duyer, and Miss Catherine Elliott.

The evangelist and singer come highly recommended. They have just completed a splendid campaign in Wilmington. In Cambridge, Denton and other places they have had wonderful success. On their first visit to Cambridge there were 325 converts while the record was in a large tent when hundreds were converted. Dr. Cooke is sound in doctrine, strong and tender in preaching, while Mr. Viguinlle is a man of sterling Christian qualities with a rich barytone voice, as well as a splendid director of choir and congregational singing.

The people of Chestertown are anticipating a splendid season of revival and hope the whole community will join in the services.

No, St. James will not be closed this Sunday as some have understood for repairs, but will conduct special Rally exercises at 10.30 a. m. with song and recitations. We invite you to rally with us. The Christian Endeavor Society will meet at 7.30 p. m. with the leaders appointed for last Sunday evening's meeting in charge, using the topic "What Are the Good Points of the Various Races in America?" These leaders are Mrs. Ruth Cooper and Miss Betty Moffett.

Lynch will welcome all who attend the service there at 2.30 p. m.

The November meetings of the Ladies' Aid Societies of St. James meet on Tuesday at 2 p. m. at the at the home of R. G. Nicholson and of Lynch on Wednesday at 2.30 p. m.

Christ M. P. Church, Chestertown, N. O. Gibson, minister, Nov. 7th. Divine worship at 11 a. m, the Holy Communion will be administered; Professor Harold Vigneulle, leader of the music for the Union Evangelistic services will sing. Sunday school at 2.30 p. m. Union Evengelistic services at the M. E. Church at 7.30 p. m., Dr. George W. Cooke, Evangelist, will have charge and he will be assisted by Professor Harold Vigneulle, Baritone and leader of the music.

Still Pond Notes

Miss Elizabeth Ellis spent last week-end with her cousin, Miss Henrietta Matthews.

Mrs. Wilson Smith of Philadelphia spent last week-end with her daughter, Mrs. Carl Norris.

Mrs. W. Tomb, of Wyomessing, Pa., is spending some time with her father, Charles Hague, and aunt, Miss Lauura Haguue.

Miss Mildred Hoyle, of Fairlee, visited her aunt, Mrs. Susie Toulson, last week.

Mrs. Wm. Hadaway spent several days this week in Baltimore.

Don't miss the I. O. O. F. supper this evening.

A large crowd attended the Hallowe'en social on Wednesday evening. Most of whom wore masquerade costumes. Some were large and some were small, some were pretty and some were odd, but all kept the judges guessing for quite awhile.

The devotional service of the Epworth League will be lead on Sunday evening by Mrs. Wm. G. Rasin.

Considering the rainy weather there was a good attendance at the Harvest Home service last Sunday. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers, fruit and vegetables. Rev. Harvey Ewing preached in the morning.
