U. S. MAY NOT OPPOSE SPAN FOR UPPER BAY

Officials of the War Department Thursday suggested a means of withdrawing their present objections to the bridging of the Chesapeake Bay near the mouth of Back river. Permission to remove their long-range guns from Aberdeen to the navy proving ground at Dahlgren, Va., would remove their objection, it was disclosed.

The department's views were set forth by Maj.-Gen. Clarence C. Williams, chief of ordinance, in a conference with Representative Millard E. Tydings and Stuart S. Janney and Roscoe Bonsal, representing the Chesapeake Bay Bridge Company.

Senator-elect S. Scott Beck relinquished the duties of the office of State's attorney for Kent county on Monday to Stephen R. Collins, who took the oath of office before Judge Lewin W. Wickes at 8 a. m. It is now State's Attorney Stephen Roberts Collins.

WEDDING NOTES

Chestertown is fast becoming a Gretna Green. During 1926 there were 266 marriage licenses issued. Saturday, January 1, 1927, there were seven licenses issued to out of county couples. These couples waited in front of the Court House and News Building for several hours before the clerk was brought to his office. Local preachers married most of them.

A quiet wedding was solemnized Saturday at Kennedyville M. P. parsonage by Rev. J. W. Trout. The contracting parties were Miss Margaret Catherine, the attractive and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Loller, of Worton, and Charles Budd Ford, son of the late Dr. and Mrs. S. E. Ford, of Chestertown. The bride has been the assistant book-keeper in the Chestertown Bank of Maryland, while the groom is one of the efficient clerks in the Chestertown postoffice. After the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Ford took a trip by auto to Northern points. Upon their return they will reside in one of A. M. Culp's cosy residences on Mt. Vernon Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton E. Woods, of Kent county and Philadelphia, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Rowena, to Lieut. George B. Heldon, U. S. M. C., of Philadelphia. The wedding will take place in April. Miss Woods, until recently was a popular and accomplished member of the Eastern Shore Women's Polo Association.

D'Arcy Flowers, utility infielder of the St. Louis Cardinals, and Miss Laura Leone Brannock, daughter of Chief of Police and Mrs. Daniel E. Brannock, of Cambridge, were married Tuesday morning at the home of the bride's parents, on Henry street. The marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev. R. Y. Nicholson, pastor of Rhode Island Avenue M. P. Church, of Washington, D. C., a former pastor of St. Paul's Church.

The couple were married under a bower of pines, with the room lighted by candles, the bride entering upon the arm of the groom, with no attendants. She wore a French blue dress and hat to match and carried a large bouquet of Bride roses and lillies of the valley. After a wedding trip to points in Pennsylvania the couple will return to Cambridge, where they will make their home.

Flowers, who is known to baseball fans all over the Eastern Shore and Maryland as Jake, started his baseball career with the local club of the Eastern Shore League, working his way up through the minors until reaching the Cardinals, with which club he participated as a utility player in the recent World Series. He is a Washington College graduate and well-known here having been trained in baseball here by Coach J. Thomas Kibler.

Mrs. Sarah C. Moore, of McGinnis, announces the marriage of her daughter, Edna May, to Clinton Sparks, on Tuesday, Dec. 14th, in Chestertown, by the Rev. W. F. Corkran.

Herbert Bertram Moore,, of Centreville, and Miss Anna Beatrice Cresswell, of Crumpton, were quietly married Christmas night at the parsonage of Calvary Church, Sudlersville. Rev. R. S. Hodgson perfarmed the ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Peter Cresswell, of Crumpton, and the late Mrs. Cresswell. Mr. Moore is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert W. Moore, of Centreville. He is connected with the American Stores Company, in Centreville. The young couple will make their home with the groom's parents for a short time.

The wedding of Miss Mary Ernestine Jarrell, daughter, of Mrs. Elizabeth F. S. Jarrell, of Baltimore, and D. Stanley Matthews, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley W. Matthews, of Still Pond, took place at Ellicott City, Md. on January 1st, 1927. Both of the young couple are well known in this community and have many friends here.

Friends of Miss Lora L. Tarbell, a former teacher at the Seventh Day Adventist School at Rock Hall, received invitations to her wedding to W. P. Warren, Sunday, January 2nd, 1927, at 12 o'clock noon, at Pine Cove Sanitarium, Old Fort, N. C.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Starr Wednesday, January 5, when their daughter, Minnie Margaret became the wife of George Grussing, of Fairlee, Rev. R. E. Green performed the beautiful ring ceremony. Rev. Sidney B. Bradley and Miss Mary Grussing were best man and maid of honor. After the ceremony a supper was served after which the evening was given up to a general good time until 11 o'clock when all returned home wishing the bride many good wishes. Those present were Rev. R. E. Green, Geo. Grussing and Miss Minnie Starr, Rev. S. B. Bradley, Mr. Grussing, Sr., and wife and four children, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Starr, Rose, Daisy and Walter Starr, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Starr and baby, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Starr and two children, Mrs. Alex Herzberg and son, August, Mrs. James Deford George Deford, Clifton Everett, Miss Gladys Everett and Miss Caroline Stoops.
