KILLED IN AUTO CRASH

Norman Moore, aged 22 years, of Queenstown and Baltimore, was killed almost instantly Saturday night about 7 o'clock and eight other persons including small children, narrowly escaped serious injury, when the car in which Mr. Moore was riding, collided with a car owned by Mrs. B. S. Nelson, of Queenstown, on the State highway, two miles from Centreville.

With Moore, were T. S. Delahay, driver of the automobile, and John Embert, both of Queenstown. Mrs. Nelson was accompanied by her sister and several small children. All escaped injury, except Moore. His skull was fractured when he struck the stone road.

The dead man is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Noah Moore, of Queenstown. He is a graduate of Centreville High School, and for some time has been employed as bookkeeper by Montgomery, Ward and Co., Baltimore. He returned to Queenstown to spend the New Year's holidays with his parents.

Mrs. Scott Rosen Entertains Sassafras Aid Society

The Aid Society of Sassafras M. P. Church was delightfully entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Scott Rosen, Thursday night, December 30. In addition to the regular routine of business, a special feature of the meeting was the bringing in of the "talents." Earlier in the year each member was to set aside a dime to invest and reinvest. As they were handed in, each person told how they did it, several giving their stories in rhyme. The total amount realized was $98 with several yet to report. Another interesting event was a surprise for the pastor and his wife when the Sewing Circle presented them with a beautiful wool comfort which they had made. Rev. and Mrs. Gordon take great pride in showing this quilt to their friends not only on account of its material and workmanship, but as a token of esteem from the Sassafras people.

New Year's Reception Held At St. Pauls

The rectory of Old St. Paul's Church, Fairlee, was the scene of a New Year's Day reception when the Rev. and Mrs. White were at home to their parishioners and friends. Mr. and Mrs. White have received on New Year's for many years in the western and Northern parishes in which Mr. White has served, and this first occasion in Kent brings another charming custom to the old parish.

A large number of people from all parts of the county, as well as a number of Baltimoreans who have been spending the holidays in Kent, were present.

A memorial was recently presented by Mrs. Barclay Kilbourne, of Chestertown, in memory of her husband and her mother, Mrs. Walters, The gift was a solid silver box for communion bread and is engraved in keeping with the silver challice and paten which has been in constant use in the parish since 1699.

Dr. Titsworth Corrects Statement.

January 4, 1927.

Editors of the Kent News,
Chestertown, Md.,
Gentlemen:

I think it only proper that I should correct a statement that has somehow gotten out from the college office that the College has lately received a donation of $30,000 from an alumnus.

The correct form of the statement is that an alumnus has recently made provision in his will for a $30,000 bequest to the College.

I shall appreciate your publishing this letter in this week's issue if it is possible for you to do so.

Very truly your,
PAUL E. TITSWORTH, President
