COM. STOCKTON DECLINES.—Commodore Stockton has written the following letter to the committee appointed to inform him of his nomination for the Presidency:

Gentlemen:—Our efforts to prevent the great American party from being sectionalized or abolitionized have been successful. It has been purged of all sectional and abolition men and dogmas. The national camp has endorsed Mr. Fillmore's Americanism, and he is pledged to uphold the integrity of American principles and the perpetuity of our reformed organization. My object has been attained, and I am no longer a candidate for the Presidency.

Challenge Between Messrs. Brooks and BurlingaMe—Arrest of Mr. Brooks.

WASHINGTON, July 22nd.—Francis C. Treadwell of New York, yesterday made an affidavit that certain publications in the newspapers during the past and present week, and from conversation with various individuals, he has reason to believe that a challege to fight a duel had been passed between Messrs. Brooks and Burlingame.

Mr. Brooks was arrested at 10 o'clock this morning, and taken before Justice Hollingshead, and gave security in the sum of $5,000.

The police officers are in search of Mr. Burlingame, who left the District late last night or early this morning, as is supposed to receive the challenge. There is much excitement among Congressmen in regard to the matter.

[SECOND DESPATCH.]

Washington, July 24, P. M.—Among the many reports in circulation the most reliable is, that Mr. Brooks asked Mr. Burlingame, through a friend, where a note or challenge would reach him, and Mr. Burlingame replied, "at the Clifton House, Canada," Mr. Brooks, it is further stated, declines following him preferring a meeting in this vecinity.

Mr. Burlingame's most intimate friends express their ignorance of his whereabouts.

☞ A letter from Kentucky says:

I have seen the enthusiasm of the Whigs in 1840, '44, and '48, but it did not exceed that which now prevails for Mr. Filmore with every genuine old-line whig in Fayette. It is both amuseing and gratifying to witness the indignation of those grey headed veteran whigs—who may be properly called the body guard of Mr. Clay in all his political compaigns—lasting through a half century—when approached with that Democratic bait, "the ex-

ENGLAND.

Insurrection among the Irish Militia.

There is nothing new respecting American affairs, except that a milder tone is evinced by the press in commenting on the Central American question.

A serious riot occurred among the militia at Nagah, Ireland, on the 6th inst., and during three succeeding days, caused by the alledged bad faith of the government towards them. They had been ordered to disband and give up their clothing and arms, which they refused to do, but instead broke open the magazines and seized upon the amunition. Afterwards they paraded the streets, discharging their muskets in the air. Assistance was telegraphed for, and one thousand troops of the line soon arrived, when after a short struggle, they succeded in disarming the insurgents.

Three of the insurgents and one regular were killed. About a dozen soldiers were wounded. The citizens sided with the militia, and cheered them on. At the latest telegraphic accounts all was quiet.

There had been no further reference to American affairs in Parliament, excepting some interrogatorins concerning the bombardment of the Belize.

☞ As the Whigs of Maryland have endorsed Mr. Fillmore, shall we not hear something from Senator Pearce in regard to the Presidency? His Whig friends have a right to know his position, which has not yet been indicated. When will he speak?—Easton Gazette.
