KENT WINS ANOTHER PRIZE FOR BEST CORN

Maryland growers won first prize for exhibiting the best white and yellow corn in the interstate class at the Annual Delaware State Corn Show held at Middletown last week under the auspices of the Delaware State Corn Growers' Association. It has been one of the best in the history of the association, with a large number of exhibitors and the quality of the exhibits above the average.

Josiah Massey, of Chestertown, and M .P. Pough, of Sykesville, were the two Maryland growers who won first prizes in the interstate classes. The prize winners in the various classes follow:

Interstate Class — White, first, Josiah Massey, Chestertown, Md.; second, E. B. Milbourne, Elkton; third, John W. Milbourne, Elkton; fourth, Fred Trimble, Hockessin; yellow, first, M. P. Pough, Sykesville, Md.; second, George Ely, Greenville; third, J. W. Hopkins, Lewes; fourth, A. S. Hopkins, Lewes.

Senator Charles D. Murphy, of Harrington, Del., has his consistent winner of last year, Golden Direct, 2.05¼ down at Pinehurst, N. C., under the care of Herman Tyson. Hal Bee, 2.02¼, another Murphy horse, is also in the stable and will be seen in the free-for-all paces again next season. Murphy has Nella Brooke, 2.09, and Charing Cross, 2.10¼, at his home town for the winter. Charlie Boy (3) by Dillon Axworthy, and Peter Direct by Chestnut Peter, have also been shipped to Herman Tyson for wintr training.

At the annual meeting of the Tri-County Past Masters Association, A. F. and A. M., held in Centreville, Friday evening, the following officers were elected for 1927:

President—Philip H. Hope. of St. Michaels.

First Vice President—A. E. Culver, of Chestertown.

Second Vice President, W. Lester Ball, of Easton.

Third Vice President—E. Clyde Walls, of Church Hill.

Secretary—W. D. J. Morris, of St. Michaels.

Following the meeting a banquet was served in St. Paul's parish house by the members of the Order of the Eastern Star. The speakers were Harry Wright. of Preston, grand lecturer of the Grand Lodge of Maryland, and J. Roscoe Wheatley, of Easton, deputy grand lecturer.

The meeting of the association next year will be held at St. Michaels.

SLEEPY AFTER MEALS

If you will take a teaspoonful of Goff's Bitters in a little water before eating you wont' feel heavy and sleepy afterward — no gas — no sour stomach. Prevents acute Indigestion. Mrs. Lyda Covington, New Church, Va., wrote: "I suffered greatly for two years with indigestion. I was asked to try your Herb Bitters, and before taking two bottles I felt like another woman. The relief was wonderful."

What a fine feeling it would be Xmas 1927

How Thick is A Dolar BILL?

NOT very thick—is it? Yet by the thickness of the dollar bill they failed to bank, thousands of people have just missed success. The dollar bill in a bank account here is thick enough to support a man from disaster.
